Note 2 Significant Accounting Policies

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses for the periods. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Certain prior period amounts and disclosures have been reclassified to conform to the current period financial presentation. Book value per share is computed by dividing total shareholders' equity by the number of shares issued and outstanding at the end of the measurement period. The following is a summary of the Company's significant accounting policies:

Principles of Consolidation

The accompanying consolidated financial statements include the operations of the Company and its subsidiaries. All material intercompany transactions and balances have been eliminated in consolidation.

Segment Information

Management has determined that the Company operates in one business segment, namely providing investment management and administration services to mutual funds, separate accounts, and private investment funds. Therefore, no disclosures relating to operating segments are required in the Company's annual or interim financial statements.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include demand deposits and money market funds.

Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable are recorded when they are due and are presented in the balance sheet, net of any allowance for doubtful accounts. Accounts receivable are written off when they are determined to be uncollectible. Any allowance for doubtful accounts is estimated based on the Company's historical losses, existing conditions in the industry, and the financial stability of those individuals or entities that owe the receivable. No allowance for doubtful accounts was deemed necessary at September 30, 2010 or December 31, 2009.

Valuation of Investment Portfolio

Investments held by the Company are valued based upon the definition of Level 1 inputs and Level 2 inputs. Level 1 inputs are defined as fair values which use quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the Company has the ability to access. Level 2 inputs are defined as quoted prices in markets that are not considered to be active for identical assets or liabilities, quoted prices in active markets for similar assets or liabilities and inputs other than quoted prices that are directly observable or indirectly through corroboration with observable market data. At September 30, 2010, $1,178,926 and $12,383,429 in Company investments are valued based upon Level 1 and Level 2 inputs, respectively. At December 31, 2009, $4,108,170 and $12,321,797 in Company investments are valued based upon Level 1 and Level 2 inputs, respectively. Level 1 investments are all registered investment companies (mutual funds). Level 2 investments are all limited partnerships. There were no transfers in or out of the levels.

The changes in market values on the investments are recorded in the Consolidated Statement of Income as investment return.

Limited Partnership Interests

DHCM is the managing member of Diamond Hill General Partner, LLC, the General Partner of Diamond Hill Investment Partners, LP (DHIP), Diamond Hill Investment Partners II, LP (DHIP II), and Diamond Hill Research Partners, LP (DHRP), collectively (the Partnerships), each a limited partnership whose underlying assets consist of marketable securities.

DHCM, in its role as managing member of the General Partner, has the power to direct the Partnerships' economic activities and the right to receive investment advisory and performance incentive fees that are significant to the Partnerships. The Partnerships are subject to investment company accounting and, as a result, they have not been consolidated in presenting the accompanying financial statements. DHCM's investments in these partnerships are reported as a component of the Company's investment portfolio, valued at DHCM's proportionate interest in the net asset value of the marketable securities held by the Partnerships. Gains and losses attributable to changes in the value of DHCM's interests in the Partnerships are included in the Company's reported investment return.

The Company's exposure to loss as a result of its involvement with the Partnerships is limited to the amount of its investments. DHCM is not obligated to provide financial or other support to the Partnerships, other than its investments to date and its contractually provided investment advisory responsibilities, and has not provided such support. The Company has not provided liquidity arrangements, guarantees or other commitments to support the Partnerships' operations, and the Partnerships' creditors and interest holders have no recourse to the general credit of the Company.

Several board members, officers and employees of the Company invest in DHIP and DHIP II through Diamond Hill General Partner, LLC. These individuals receive no remuneration as a result of their personal investment in the Partnerships. The capital of Diamond Hill General Partner, LLC is not subject to a management fee or an incentive fee.

Furniture and equipment, consisting of computer equipment, furniture, and fixtures, are carried at cost less accumulated depreciation. Depreciation is calculated using the straight-line method over estimated lives of three to seven years.

Revenue Recognition – General

The Company earns substantially all of its revenue from investment advisory, distribution, and fund administration services. Mutual fund investment advisory and administration fees, generally calculated as a percentage of assets under management, are recorded as revenue as services are performed. Managed account and private investment fund clients provide for monthly or quarterly management fees, in addition to quarterly or annual performance fees.

Revenue Recognition – Performance Incentive Revenue

The Company's private investment funds and certain managed accounts provide for performance incentive fees. For management fees based on a formula, there are two methods by which incentive revenue may be recorded. Under Method 1, incentive fees are recorded at the end of the contract period; under Method 2, the incentive fees are recorded periodically and calculated as the amount that would be due under the formula at any point in time as if the contract was terminated at that date. Management has chosen Method 1, in which incentive fees are recorded at the end of the contract period for the specific client in which the incentive fee applies. The table below shows assets under management (AUM) subject to performance incentive fees and the performance incentive fees as calculated under each of the above methods:

	As Of September 30,
	2010	2009
AUM – Contractual Period Ends Quarterly	$ 105,112,498	$ 106,500,933

	For The Three Months Ending Sept. 30,		For The Nine Months Ending Sept. 30,
	2010	2009	2010	2009
Performance Incentive Fees – Method 1	$ 3,934	$	$ 3,934	$ 4,645
Performance Incentive Fees – Method 2	$ 37,823	$ (20,620)	$ 37,823	$ 179,406

Revenue Recognition – Mutual Fund Administration

DHCM has an administrative and transfer agency services agreement with the Funds, under which DHCM performs certain services for each fund. These services include mutual fund administration, transfer agency and other related functions. For performing these services, each fund compensates DHCM a fee at an annual rate of 0.30% for Class A and Class C shares and 0.19% for Class I shares times each series' average daily net assets. The Funds have selected and contractually engaged certain vendors to fulfill various services to benefit the Funds' shareholders or to satisfy regulatory requirements of the Funds. These services include, among others, required fund shareholder mailings, federal and state registrations, legal and audit fees. DHCM, in fulfilling a portion of its role under the administration agreement with the Funds, acts as agent to pay these obligations of the Funds. Each vendor is independently responsible for fulfillment of the services it has been engaged to provide and negotiates fees and terms with the management and board of trustees of the Funds. The fee that the Funds pay to DHCM is reviewed annually by the Funds' board of trustees and specifically takes into account the contractual expenses that DHCM pays on behalf of the Funds. As a result, DHCM is not involved in the delivery or pricing of these services and bears no risk related to these services. Revenue has been recorded net of these Fund related expenses, as it is the appropriate accounting treatment for this agency relationship. In addition, DHCM finances the up-front commissions which are paid by the Funds' principal underwriter to brokers who sell Class C shares of the Funds. As financier, DHCM advances to the underwriter the commission amount to be paid to the selling broker at the time of sale. These advances are capitalized and amortized over 12 months to correspond with the repayments DHCM receives from the principal underwriter to recoup this commission advancement.

Beacon Hill has underwriting and administrative service agreements with certain clients, including registered mutual funds. The fee arrangements vary from client to client based upon services provided and are recorded as revenue under Mutual Fund Administration. Part of Beacon Hill's role as underwriter is to act as an agent on behalf of its mutual fund clients to receive 12b-1/service fees and commission revenue and facilitate the payment of those fees and commissions to third parties who provide services to the funds and their shareholders. The amount of 12b-1/service fees and commissions are determined by each mutual fund client and Beacon Hill bears no financial risk related to these services. As a result, 12b-1/service fees and commission revenue has been recorded net of the expense payments to third parties as it is the appropriate accounting treatment for this agency relationship.

Third Party Distribution Expense

Third party distribution expenses are earned by various third party financial services firms based on sales and/or assets of the Company's investment products generated by the respective firms. Expenses recognized represent actual payments made to the third party firms and are recorded in the period earned based on the terms of the various contracts.

Income Taxes

The Company accounts for income taxes through an asset and liability approach. A net deferred tax asset or liability is determined based on the tax effects of the various temporary differences between the book and tax bases of the various balance sheet assets and liabilities and gives current recognition to changes in tax rates and laws.

The Company has analyzed its tax positions taken on federal income tax returns for all open tax years (tax years ended December 31, 2007 through 2009) to determine any uncertainty in income taxes and has recognized no adjustment in the net asset or liability.

Earnings Per Share

Basic earnings per share (EPS) excludes dilution and is computed by dividing net income by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding for the period. Diluted EPS reflects the potential dilution of EPS that could occur if outstanding warrants were exercised. At September 30, 2010, there were no warrants outstanding.

Forward-looking Statements

The words believe, expect, anticipate, estimate, should, hope, plan, intend and similar expressions identify forward-looking statements that speak only as of the date thereof. While the Company believes that the assumptions underlying its forward-looking statements are reasonable, investors are cautioned that any of the assumptions could prove to be inaccurate and, accordingly, the actual results and experiences of the Company could differ materially from the anticipated results or other expectations expressed by the Company in its forward-looking statements. Factors that could cause such actual results or experiences to differ from results discussed in the forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to: the adverse effect from a decline in the securities markets; a decline in the performance of the Company's products; changes in interest rates; a general or prolonged downturn in the economy; changes in government policy and regulation, including monetary policy; changes in the Company's ability to attract or retain key employees; unforeseen costs and other effects related to legal proceedings or investigations of governmental and self-regulatory organizations; and other risks identified from time-to-time in the Company's public documents on file with the SEC.

General

The Company, an Ohio corporation organized in 1990, derives its consolidated revenue and net income from investment advisory and fund administration services provided by its subsidiaries Diamond Hill Capital Management, Inc. (DHCM), Beacon Hill Fund Services, Inc. (BHFS), and BHIL Distributors, Inc. (BHIL). BHFS and BHIL collectively operate as Beacon Hill. DHCM is a registered investment adviser under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 providing investment advisory services to individuals and institutional investors through Diamond Hill Funds, separate accounts, and private investment funds (generally known as hedge funds). Beacon Hill was incorporated during the first quarter of 2008, and provides certain fund administration services and underwriting services to mutual fund companies, including Diamond Hill Funds.

In this section, the Company discusses and analyzes the consolidated results of operations for the three and nine month periods ending September 30, 2010 and 2009 and other factors that may affect future financial performance. The accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements were prepared in accordance with the instructions for Form 10-Q and, therefore, do not include information or footnotes necessary for a complete presentation of financial position, results of operations and cash flows in conformity with United States generally accepted accounting principles. Accordingly, these financial statements should be read in conjunction with the Consolidated Financial Statements and Notes thereto of the Company included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2009. However, in the opinion of management, all adjustments (consisting of only normal recurring accruals) which are necessary for a fair presentation of the financial statements have been included. The results of operations for the three and nine month periods ended September 30, 2010, are not necessarily indicative of the results which may be expected for the entire fiscal year.

The Company's revenue is derived primarily from investment advisory and administration fees. Investment advisory and administration fees paid to the Company are generally based on the value of the investment portfolios managed by the Company and fluctuate with changes in the total value of the assets under management (AUM). Such fees are recognized in the period that the Company manages these assets. Performance incentive fees are generally 20% of the amount of client annual investment performance in excess of a specified hurdle. Because performance incentive fees are based primarily on the performance of client accounts, they can be volatile from period to period. The Company's primary expense is employee compensation and benefits.

Table of ContentsAssets Under Management

As of September 30, 2010, AUM totaled $7.1 billion, a 29% increase in comparison to September 30, 2009. Revenues are highly dependent on both the value and composition of AUM. The following is a summary of the Company's AUM by product and objective as of September 30, 2010 and 2009 and a roll-forward of AUM activity for the nine months ended September 30, 2010 and 2009:

Three Months Ended September 30, 2010 compared with Three Months Ended September 30, 2009

The Company generated net income of $3,438,406 ($1.24 per diluted share) for the three months ended September 30, 2010, compared with net income of $3,203,918 ($1.23 per diluted share) for the three months ended September 30, 2009. While net income experienced an increase of $230 thousand, revenue for the period increased $2.7 million offset by a $1.4 million increase in compensation and related costs and a decrease in the investment return on the Company's corporate investments by $894 thousand from the nine months ended September 30, 2009 to the nine months ended September 30, 2010. Excluding the investment return, net operating income after tax increased $492 thousand, or 26%, for the period primarily due to a 29% increase in AUM from September 30, 2009 to September 30, 2010.

As a percent of total third quarter 2010 revenues, investment advisory fees accounted for 87% and mutual fund administration fees accounted for the remaining 13% compared to the third quarter of 2009 where investment advisory fees accounted for 84% and mutual fund administration fees accounted for the remaining 16% of revenues.

Table of Contents

Investment Advisory Fees. Investment advisory fees increased by $2.7 million, or 28%, due to a 29% increase in AUM from September 30, 2009 to September 30, 2010. Investment advisory fees are calculated as a percent of average net AUM at various levels depending on the investment product. The Company's average advisory fee rate for the three months ended September 30, 2010 was 0.72% compared to 0.74% for the three months ended September 30, 2009. The decrease in the average advisory fee rate is due to an overall change in the composition of AUM where long-short strategies, which pay a higher advisory fee, made up 32% of total AUM as of September 30, 2010 compared to 39% of total AUM as of September 30, 2009 while long only strategies, which have a lower advisory fee, made up 47% of total AUM as of September 30, 2010 compared to only 39% of total AUM as of September 30, 2009. The Company's average AUM during the quarter ended September 30, 2010 was $6.8 billion compared to $5.1 billion for the quarter ended September 30, 2009. Despite the 0.02% decrease in average advisory fee rate in third quarter 2010, the fee rate was being charged on a greater asset base compared to the same quarter in 2009 resulting in an increase in the overall fees earned during the period.

Mutual Fund Administration Fees. Mutual fund administration fees include administration fees received from Diamond Hill Funds, which are calculated as a percent of average net AUM, and all Beacon Hill fee revenue. Effective April 30, 2010, the administration fee rate for Diamond Hill Funds decreased from 0.34% to 0.30% on Class A and Class C shares and decreased from 0.20% to 0.19% for Class I shares. This decrease represents a sharing of the fund administration economies of scale with mutual fund shareholders. Fund administration revenues decreased by $28 thousand for the quarter ended September 30, 2010 compared to the quarter ended September 30, 2009 due to a decrease in the effective blended gross fee rate from 0.29% to 0.24% and an increase in Fund Related expenses associated with a 21% increase in mutual fund AUM. The impact of the 0.05% decrease in the effective blended gross fee rate was partially offset by a 29% increase in the Company's average mutual fund AUM during the quarter ended September 30, 2010 compared to the quarter ended September 30, 2009.

Expenses

(in thousands)	Three Months Ended		% Change
	2010	2009

Third party distribution	239	201	19%
Mutual fund administration	509	611	-17%
Total	$ 9,844	$ 8,523	15%

Compensation and Related Costs. Employee compensation and benefits increased $1.4 million, or 20%, during the three months ended September 30, 2010 compared to the same period a year ago, primarily due to an increase of $670 thousand, or 16%, in incentive compensation during the period consistent with an increase in AUM and the associated increase in operating income. Further contributors to the overall increase in compensation expense were restricted stock expense, which increased by $187 thousand due to an overall increase in the total amount of long-term equity awards outstanding in 2010 compared to 2009, and base salaries and related benefits, which increased by $181 thousand due to an increase in employee headcount.

General and Administrative. General and administrative expenses increased by $47 thousand, or 6%, period over period. This increase is primarily due to additional research expenses to support the Company's investment team, expansion of the Company's office space, and implementation of a new trading system during the second quarter of 2010, partially offset by a reduction in legal costs and the phase-out of the Ohio franchise tax expense.

Sales and Marketing. Sales and marketing expenses decreased by $14 thousand, or 9%. This decrease was primarily due to a reduction in other marketing expenses related to the timing of certain conferences offset by an increase in travel related expenses during the quarter.

Third Party Distribution. Third party distribution expense represents payments made to intermediaries related to sales of the Company's investment products. The expense is directly correlated with investments in the Company's private investment funds. The period over period increase or decrease directly corresponds to the increase or decrease in investment advisory fees earned by the Company.

Table of Contents

Mutual Fund Administration. Mutual fund administration expense decreased by $509 thousand, or 17%, period over period. The majority of mutual fund administration fees are variable based on the amount of mutual fund AUM. Despite an overall increase in mutual fund AUM of $709 million, or 21%, as of September 30, 2010 compared to September 30, 2009, the decrease in mutual fund administration expenses is primarily due to a third party service provider fee reduction related to bringing certain administration activities in-house.

Nine Months Ended September 30, 2010 compared with Nine Months Ended September 30, 2009

The Company generated net income of $7,938,585 ($2.88 per diluted share) for the nine months ended September 30, 2010, compared with net income of $7,871,645 ($3.05 per diluted share) for the nine months ended September 30, 2009. While net income experienced an increase of only $67 thousand, revenue for the period increased $11.3 million offset by a $6.4 million increase in compensation and related costs and a decrease in the investment return on the Company's corporate investments by $4.3 million from the nine months ended September 30, 2009 to the nine months ended September 30, 2010. Excluding the investment return, net operating income after tax increased $2.9 million, or 58%, for the period primarily due to a 29% increase in AUM from September 30, 2009 to September 30, 2010.

Revenue

(in thousands)	Nine Months Ended September 30,		% Change

Mutual fund administration, net	5,559	4,075	36%
Total	$ 41,188	$ 29,849	38%

As a percent of 2010 year to date revenues, investment advisory fees accounted for 87% and mutual fund administration fees accounted for the remaining 13% compared to the 2009 period where investment advisory fees accounted for 86% and mutual fund administration fees accounted for the remaining 14% of revenues.

Investment Advisory Fees. Investment advisory fees increased by $9.8 million, or 38%, due to a 29% increase in AUM from September 30, 2009 to September 30, 2010. Investment advisory fees are calculated as a percent of average net AUM at various levels depending on the investment product. The Company's average advisory fee rate for the nine months ended September 30, 2010 was 0.71% compared to 0.74% for the nine months ended September 30, 2009. The decrease in the average advisory fee rate is due to an overall change in the composition of AUM where long-short strategies, which pay a higher advisory fee, made up 32% of total AUM as of September 30, 2010 compared to 39% of total AUM as of September 30, 2009 while long only strategies, which have a lower advisory fee, made up 47% of total AUM as of September 30, 2010 compared to 39% of total AUM as of September 30, 2009. The Company's average AUM during the nine months ended September 30, 2010 was $6.6 billion compared to $4.6 billion for the nine months ended September 30, 2009. Despite the 0.03% decrease in average advisory fee rate during the nine months ending September 30, 2010, the fee rate was being charged on a greater asset base compared to the same period in 2009 resulting in an increase the overall fees earned during the period.

Mutual Fund Administration Fees. Mutual fund administration fees include administration fees received from Diamond Hill Funds, which are calculated as a percent of average net AUM, and all Beacon Hill fee revenue. Effective April 30, 2010, the administration fee rate for Diamond Hill Funds decreased from 0.34% to 0.30% on Class A and Class C shares and decreased from 0.20% to 0.19% for Class I shares. This decrease represents a sharing of the fund administration economies of scale with mutual fund shareholders. Fund administration revenues increased by $1.5 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2010 compared to the nine months ended September 30, 2009 due to a 21% increase in mutual fund AUM, a $227 thousand increase in Beacon Hill revenue, offset by a decrease in the effective blended gross fee rate from 0.28% to 0.26%. Despite the 0.02% decrease in effective blended gross fee rate, the Company's average mutual fund AUM during the nine months ended September 30, 2010 was $3.7 billion compared to $2.8 billion for the nine months ended September 30, 2009. Therefore, the lower effective blended gross fee rate for the nine months ended September 30, 2010 was being charged on a greater asset base compared to the same period in 2009 resulting in an increase in the overall fees earned during the period.

Compensation and Related Costs. Employee compensation and benefits increased $6.4 million, or 37%, during the nine months ended September 30, 2010 compared to the same period a year ago, primarily due to an increase of $4.5 million in incentive compensation during the period consistent with an increase in AUM and the associated increase in operating income. Further contributors to the overall increase in compensation expense were restricted stock expense, which increased by $512 thousand due to an overall increase in the total amount of long-term equity awards outstanding in 2010 compared to 2009, and base salaries and related benefits, which increased by $673 thousand due to an increase in employee headcount.

General and Administrative. General and administrative expenses increased by $338 thousand, or 15%, period over period. This increase is primarily due to additional research expenses to support the Company's investment team, expansion of the Company's office space, implementation of a new trading system, and an increase in systems related expenses to support the investment team, partially offset by a decrease in legal costs and the phase-out of the Ohio franchise tax expense.

Sales and Marketing. Sales and marketing expenses increased by $42 thousand, or 10%, period over period. This increase was primarily due to an increased presence at industry conferences and an increase in travel and sales related expenses.

Third Party Distribution. Third party distribution expense represents payments made to intermediaries related to sales of the Company's investment products. The expense is directly correlated with investments in the Company's private investment funds. The period over period increase or decrease directly corresponds to the increase or decrease in investment advisory fees earned by the Company.

Mutual Fund Administration. Mutual fund administration expense decreased by $291 thousand, or 16%, period over period. The majority of mutual fund administration fees are variable based on the amount of mutual fund AUM. Despite an overall increase in mutual fund AUM of $709 million, or 21%, as of September 30, 2010 compared to the nine months ended September 30, 2009, the decrease in mutual fund administration expenses is primarily due to a third party service provider fee reduction related to bringing certain administration activities in-house.

Table of ContentsBeacon Hill Fund Services

Beacon Hill is currently staffed with twelve full-time equivalent employees, up from eleven at September 30, 2009, and provides compliance, treasurer, and other fund administration services to mutual fund clients and their investment advisers. In addition, through its registered broker/dealer, Beacon Hill also serves as the underwriter for a number of mutual funds. The Company previously expected Beacon Hill to break even in the fourth quarter of 2010, but we now believe revenue will not be sufficient. The following is a summary of Beacon Hill's performance for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2010 compared to the three and nine months ended September 30, 2009, excluding 12b-1/service fees and commission revenue and expenses, which net to zero:

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The Company's entire investment portfolio is in readily marketable securities, which provide for cash liquidity, if needed. Investments in mutual funds are valued at their quoted current net asset value. Investments in private investment funds are valued independently based on readily available market quotations. Inflation is expected to have no material impact on the Company's performance.

As of September 30, 2010, the Company had negative working capital of approximately $811 thousand compared to $20.5 million at December 31, 2009. Working capital includes cash, securities owned and accounts receivable, net of all liabilities. On September 17, 2010 the Company's board of directors declared a $13 per share dividend payable on December 15, 2010 to shareholders of record on December 1, 2010. This dividend is expected to reduce shareholder equity by approximately $36.3 million. Excluding the dividend payable of $36.3 million, which is not being paid out until December 15, 2010, the Company believes its available working capital is sufficient to cover current expenses. The Company has no debt and does not expect any material capital expenditures during 2010.

During the third quarter of 2007 the Board of Directors authorized management to repurchase up to 350,000 shares of the Company's common stock. No shares were repurchased during the nine months ended September 30, 2010.

Use of Supplemental Data as Non-GAAP Performance Measure

Net Operating Income After Tax

As supplemental information, we are providing performance measures that are based on methodologies other than generally accepted accounting principles (non-GAAP) for Net Operating Income After Tax that management uses as benchmarks in evaluating and comparing the period-to-period operating performance of the Company and its subsidiaries.

Table of Contents

The Company defines net operating income after tax as the Company's net operating income less income tax provision excluding investment return and the tax impact related to the investment return. The Company believes that net operating income after tax provides a good representation of the Company's operating performance as it excludes the impact of investment return on financial results. The amount of the investment portfolio and market fluctuations on the investments can fluctuate significantly from one period to another, as seen over the past year, which can distort the underlying earnings potential of a company. We also believe net operating income after tax is an important metric in estimating the value of an asset management business. This measure is provided in addition to net income and net operating income and is not a substitute for net income or net operating income and may not be comparable to non-GAAP performance measures of other companies.
