KEYCORP ANNOUNCES $625 MILLION COMMON STOCK OFFERING;
PLAN TO REPAY TARP; CAPITAL ACTIONS

Proceeds will be used to repurchase TARP Preferred Stock investment by U.S. Treasury
Senior debt offering to follow common stock offering
Certain planned capital actions also announced

CLEVELAND, Mar. 18, 2011 KeyCorp (NYSE: KEY) announced today it has commenced an underwritten public offering of $625 million of its common stock in connection with its plan to repurchase the $2.5 billion of the Series B Fixed-Rate Cumulative Perpetual Preferred Stock it issued to the U.S. Treasury under the TARP Capital Purchase Program. Key is proceeding with these capital actions pursuant to its capital plan (the Plan) submitted to the Federal Reserve on January 7, 2011. Today, the Federal Reserve informed Key that it had no objections to the capital actions set forth in the Plan.

Key also intends to promptly commence a separate registered public offering of senior notes. Proceeds from both offerings, together with other available funds, will be used to repurchase such preferred stock upon receiving the U.S. Treasury's authorization.

Key's Plan, which was approved prior to submission by Key's Board of Directors, requested authority to increase its quarterly common stock dividend from $0.01 per share to $0.03 per share effective in the second quarter of 2011. The Federal Reserve did not object to that request and Key's Board will consider the dividend increase at its regular May meeting. Future increases will be evaluated by the Board of Directors, based on our earnings, financial condition, capital requirements, and other factors.

Morgan Stanley & Co. Incorporated is acting as capital advisor for the equity offering and, together with J.P. Morgan Securities LLC, as joint bookrunning managers, with KeyBanc Capital Markets serving as senior co-manager. In connection with the equity offering, the underwriters will have a 30-day option, solely to cover over-allotments, to purchase up to an additional ten percent of the offered amount of common stock.

These actions position Key to grow, said Henry Meyer, KeyCorp CEO. Key has successfully returned to profitability, fortified its capital position, reduced expenses and is benefitting from its early and aggressive actions to reduce our risk profile.

Meyer added: Our goal has been to be patient in repaying TARP in order to reduce shareholder dilution. We believe this is the appropriate time to put TARP repayment behind us and that repayment now is in the best interests of KeyCorp and our employees, customers and shareholders. We are pleased that our patience has been rewarded with capital replacement favorable to our peers, achieving our goal to limit shareholder dilution.

We believe the U.S. Treasury's investments in Key and hundreds of other banks across the nation contributed to stability and strength of the U.S. banking system during the financial crisis, Meyer said. We are appreciative of having been a recipient of the TARP investment. Key paid an aggregate of approximately $282 million in dividends to the U.S. Treasury during the investment period.

Key issued 25,000 shares of preferred stock to the U.S. Treasury in late 2008, one of over 700 U.S. banks which have participated in the program.

Upon completion of the repurchase of the TARP preferred stock, Key intends to enter into negotiations to repurchase the warrant held by the U.S. Treasury. If Key decides not to or is unable to repurchase the warrant, it may choose instead to repurchase common stock in an amount expected to be sufficient to offset any estimated dilution to Key's equity that would occur if the warrant were exercised.
