Declassification of Board

At our annual general meeting of shareholders held on June 7, 2011 (the Meeting), shareholders voted a majority of the shares represented in favor of a shareholder proposal recommending declassification of the Board of Directors, which has historically been divided into three classes, each serving a staggered three-year term. The Board continues to believe that a classified Board provides greater long-term stability to the Company. However, in light of the current evolution of accepted practices in corporate governance and the overwhelming support of the Company's shareholders, the Board determined at its meeting held on October 28, 2011 to recommend declassification of the Board.

The bye-law amendments to effect that change will require shareholder approval and will be presented to shareholders for approval at the 2012 annual general meeting of shareholders (the 2012 Meeting). In anticipation of such approval, the Governance and Nominating Committee will nominate director candidates for election at the 2012 Meeting for one-year terms, including all current directors that may be nominated for re-election. The amendment would be effective immediately for directors elected at the 2012 Meeting, while directors currently serving will continue to serve for the terms to which they were elected (i.e., Class I directors will serve until 2013, and Class II directors will serve until 2014). Pursuant to the Bye-laws, the amendment will require approval by a majority of the issued shares of common stock entitled to vote at the 2012 Meeting.

Majority Voting in Uncontested Director Elections

At the Meeting, shareholders also voted a majority of the shares represented in favor of a shareholder proposal recommending that directors be elected by the majority of votes cast at an annual meeting of shareholders, with a plurality vote standard retained for contested director elections. Consistent with evolving standards in corporate governance, at its meeting held on October 28, 2011 the Board amended its Guidelines on Significant Corporate Governance Issues to require that any director nominee who does not receive the affirmative vote of the majority of the shares voted in connection with his or her uncontested election promptly tender his or her resignation from the Board. The Governance and Nominating Committee (excluding the director in question) will review the matter and make a recommendation to the Board whether or not to accept the resignation. If no compelling reason for the director to remain on the Board exists, the resignation will be accepted.

Annual Say-on-Pay Vote

One of the matters considered at the Meeting was a non-binding advisory vote regarding the frequency of advisory votes on executive compensation (Say-on-Pay) at future annual shareholders meetings. Shareholders voted a majority of the shares represented in favor of annual Say-on-Pay votes. As previously disclosed under an amendment to our current report on Form 8-K dated June 7, 2011, which amendment was filed with the SEC on October 31, 2011, the Board has considered the preference expressed by shareholders and determined at its meeting held on October 28, 2011 to hold future Say-on-Pay votes annually.
