AILP beneficially owns 27,716,000 shares of Common Stock (the "AILP Shares"), which were acquired with the funds of AILP. Palomino beneficially owns 24,284,000 shares of Common Stock (the "Palomino Shares," and together with the AMLP Shares and the AILP Shares, the "Shares"), which were acquired with the funds of Palomino. The aggregate purchase price of the AILP Shares was $9,295,306.80. The aggregate purchase price of the Palomino Shares was $8,144,293.20.

ITEM 4. PURPOSE OF TRANSACTION

The acquisition of the Shares by the Reporting Persons was for investment purposes. On March 15, 2006, in its capacity as a stockholder, AMLP sent a letter to the Issuer's board of directors expressing concerns over the current management of the Issuer in connection with the commencement and prosecution of the Issuer's case under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (the "March 15th Letter"). Particularly, the March 15th Letter outlines AMLP's belief that the Issuer's management and board of directors have engaged in, and are continuing to pursue, courses of action that are in breach of their fiduciary duties of care, loyalty and candor, and that have resulted in, and are continuing to inflict, material harm to the Issuer and all of its bona fide stakeholders. Notably, there has been no indication that any material adverse event occurred between August 2, 2005 (when a dividend was paid) and October 8, 2005 (when the chapter 11 petitions were filed) that would justify the onset of bankruptcy. In addition to having improperly determined to seek chapter 11 relief, the Issuer's management and board of directors have repeatedly authorized the Issuer to take actions and make public statements in the chapter 11 case that are inconsistent with their duty to maximize value and prevented the Issuer's stockholders from being properly represented. For example:

- o the Issuer has repeatedly, materially overstated the amount of its labor-related obligations by failing to take into account the fact that many of the benefits are unvested (i.e., they can be terminated without incurring liability) and any legal duty to provide them expires with the applicable underlying collective bargaining agreement in late 2007;
- o the Issuer has improperly characterized itself as "grossly insolvent" in reliance on a superficial balance sheet analysis, and without performing an appropriate enterprise valuation based on a properly-vetted business plan presented after the formulation and assessment of alternative reorganization strategies;

8

- o the Issuer has included in the Key Employee Compensation Program ("KECP") a reservation of 10% of the Issuer's stock for management,

Edgar Filing: DELPHI CORP - Form SC 13D

putting management in direct conflict with the Issuer's stockholders (the KECP gives management the incentive to convert debt into equity of the reorganized Issuer, diluting current stockholders' ownership stake);

- o the Issuer has cancelled its annual stockholders meeting for 2005 in violation of the express requirements of applicable Delaware law, thereby preventing stockholders from exercising their governance rights; and
- o the Issuer has thwarted the stockholders' efforts to obtain a vehicle to be heard in the chapter 11 case by opposing the appointment of an official equityholders committee.

Moreover, the March 15th Letter demands that that the board schedule and hold the 2005 annual stockholders' meeting at the earliest possible time and further informs the Issuer's board of directors of AMLP's intention to nominate and elect a slate of between one and four directors to the board of directors at such meeting. The March 15th Letter further informs the Issuer's board of directors that if the Issuer is unwilling to proceed on a voluntary basis, AMLP is prepared to seek appropriate relief to compel a stockholders' meeting and asks that the Issuer promptly commence an action for damages arising from the breaches of the fiduciary duties of care and loyalty described in the March 15th Letter. AMLP has indicated that if the Issuer fails to do so, AMLP is prepared to seek relief from the Bankruptcy Court to take this action on the Issuer's behalf. The foregoing summary of the March 15th Letter is qualified in its entirety by reference to the March 15th Letter, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 1 to this Statement.

Except as described in this Item 4 or otherwise described in this Statement, the Reporting Persons currently have no plans or proposals which relate to or would result in any transaction, event or action enumerated in paragraphs (a) through (j) of Item 4 of the form of Schedule 13D promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

Each of the Reporting Persons reserves the right, in light of its or his ongoing evaluation of the Company's financial condition, business, operations and prospects, the market price of the Common Stock, conditions in the securities markets generally, general economic and industry conditions, its or his business objectives and other relevant factors, to change its or his plans and intentions at any time, as it or he deems appropriate. In particular, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, any one or more of the Reporting Persons (and their respective affiliates) reserves the right, in each case subject to any applicable limitations imposed on the sale of any of their Common Stock by the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or other applicable law, to (i) purchase additional shares of Common Stock or other securities of the Company, (ii) sell or transfer shares of Common Stock or other securities beneficially owned by them from time to time in public or private transactions, and (iii) cause any of the Reporting Persons to distribute in kind to their respective stockholders, partners or members, as the case may be, shares of Common Stock or other securities owned by such Reporting Persons.
