PART I

ITEM 1. BUSINESS

(a) GENERAL.

Blair Corporation (the "Company") was founded in 1910 by John L. Blair, Sr., and was incorporated in 1924 under the laws of the State of Delaware. The Company's business consists of the sale of fashion apparel for men and women, plus a wide range of home products. Although the Company's revenues are generated primarily through direct mail merchandising, the Company has transitioned into a multi-channel direct marketer, as an increasing amount of total revenue, approximately 5% in 2001, is being generated through its e-commerce website which was launched in 2000. The Company operates three retail stores, two in Pennsylvania and one in Delaware, and two outlet stores in Pennsylvania. The Company employs approximately 2,600 people. None of the Company's employees are subject to collective bargaining agreements.

(b) INFORMATION REGARDING INDUSTRY SEGMENTS.

The Company's business consists of only one industry segment, which is the direct mail, e-commerce and retail merchandising of men's and women's fashion apparel and home products.

(c) DESCRIPTION OF BUSINESS.

The Company markets a wide range of merchandise, manufactured by a number of independent suppliers, both domestic and foreign. Most of these suppliers have been associated with the Company for many years and manufacture products based upon the Company's specifications. Suppliers are selected in accordance with their ability to produce high quality products in a cost-effective manner.

The Company markets its products mainly by direct mail. Catalogs and letters containing color folders, depict the current styles of womenswear (such as coordinates, dresses, tops, pants, skirts, lingerie, sportswear, suits, jackets, outerwear and shoes), menswear (such as suits, shirts, outerwear, active wear, slacks, shoes, and accessories), and home products (such as bedspread ensembles, draperies, furniture covers, area rugs, bath accessories, kitchenware, gifts, collectibles and personal care items) and are mailed directly to existing and prospective customers. Sales of the menswear and womenswear products, including the Crossing Pointe product line which was introduced in 2000, accounted for approximately 89% of the Company's total sales in 2001, and sales of home products accounted for the remaining 11% (approximately). Media and co-op prospect advertising programs continue to be used as components of the Company's customer acquisition strategy. The Company expanded its Internet presence in 2001 generating nearly $35 million in sales, approximately 5% of the Company's total gross sales, as compared to approximately $2 million in sales in 2000. The Company launched its own e-commerce website (www.blair.com) in the fall of 2000 and redesigned the site at the beginning of 2001.

Both catalog mailings and letter mailings are mailed from commercial printers engaged by the Company. Prior to the second quarter of 2001, letter mailings originated from the Company's former Mailing Center in nearby Irvine, Pennsylvania. In the second quarter of 2001, the mailing operations were outsourced and in the third quarter of 2001, the merchandise returns operations that were located in the former Mailing Center were relocated to the Company's Returns Center in Erie, Pennsylvania. Orders for merchandise are processed at the Company's corporate offices in Warren, Pennsylvania (telephone orders via the call centers) and orders are filled and mailed from the Company's Distribution Center in Irvine, Pennsylvania. The Distribution Center is being expanded to include the former Mailing Center, and enhanced to improve customer service levels and to support the Company's growth plans. The Company serves customers throughout the fifty states.

The Company's outlet stores enable it to more efficiently promote and liquidate discontinued, overstocked and returned merchandise. The Delaware retail store is the only Company retail facility located outside of its home state of Pennsylvania.

The Company considers its merchandise to be low/medium-priced and competes for sales with other direct marketers, retail department stores, specialty shops, discount store chains and e-commerce and multi-channel marketers. The Company competes based on its sales expertise - its unique combination of product, quality, price, credit, guarantee and service.

During 2001, the Company continued to broaden its customer information database systems. The marketing and credit departments are continually updated in order to enhance the Company's ability to market to both customers and prospects.

In October 2001, the Company announced a partnership with accomplished actress, artist, author and mother, Jane Seymour, to launch the "Jane Seymour Signature Collection" of women's apparel. The Jane Seymour inspired fashions will be sold exclusively through the Company's Crossing Pointe catalog and website (www.crossingpointe.com). The first "Jane Seymour Signature Collection" fashions previewed in early January 2002 on the Crossing Pointe website and debuted in the Crossing Pointe Spring 2002 catalog mailed at the end of January 2002.

(d) FOREIGN OPERATIONS AND EXPORT SALES.

The Company does not derive any revenue from sales of merchandise outside of the United States.

In addition, three of the Company's wholly-owned subsidiaries lease office space in the Wilmington, Delaware area, which they use as their principal offices.

Management believes that these properties are capable of meeting the Company's anticipated needs for the near future once the previously announced modernization and expansion of the Company's merchandise fulfillment capabilities is completed, which is projected to be by year-end 2003. However, the Company's marketing strategy and potential sales growth may require expansion of the Company's customer service and call center capabilities.
