PART I

ITEM 1. BUSINESS

The Hallwood Group Incorporated ("Hallwood" or the "Company") (AMEX:HWG), a Delaware corporation, is a holding company that classifies its primary continuing business operations into two segments; real estate and textile products. Financial information for each business segment is set forth in Note 19 to the consolidated financial statements. The Company's former energy and hotel business segments were previously reclassified to discontinued operations.

Real Estate. Real estate operations are conducted primarily through the Company's wholly owned subsidiaries, HWG, LLC, Hallwood Realty, LLC ("Hallwood Realty") and Hallwood Commercial Real Estate, LLC ("HCRE"). Hallwood Realty is the sole general partner of Hallwood Realty Partners, L.P. ("HRP"), a publicly-traded, master limited partnership (AMEX:HRY). At December 31, 2002, HRP owned 14 real estate properties in six states containing 5,199,000 net rentable square feet. HRP seeks to maximize the value of its real estate by making capital and tenant improvements, by executing marketing programs to attract and retain tenants, and by controlling or reducing, where possible, operating expenses. The HRP Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2002 is included elsewhere within this document.

Hallwood Realty owns a 1% general partner interest and HWG, LLC owns a 21% limited partner interest in HRP. Hallwood Realty is responsible for asset management of HRP and its properties, including the decisions regarding financing, refinancing, acquiring and disposing of properties. It also provides general operating and administrative services to HRP. HCRE is responsible for property management for all HRP properties, and properties it manages for third parties, for which it receives management, leasing and construction supervision fees. Hallwood Realty and HWG, LLC account for their ownership in HRP using the equity method of accounting, recording their pro rata share of net income (loss) and partners' capital transactions reported by HRP.

Real estate accounted for 7% of the Company's total revenues from continuing operations in 2002, compared to 10% in 2001 and 8% in 2000.

Textile Products. Textile products operations are conducted through the Company's wholly owned Brookwood Companies Incorporated subsidiary ("Brookwood"). Brookwood is an integrated textile service firm that develops and produces innovative fabrics and related products through specialized finishing, treating and coating processes.

Brookwood principally operates as a converter in the textile industry, purchasing fabric from mills that is dyed and finished at its own plant, located in Rhode Island, or by contracting with independent finishers. Upon completion of the finishing process, the fabric is sold to customers. Brookwood, a large textile converter of nylon and polyester fabrics, is one of the largest coaters of woven nylons in the United States. Brookwood is known for its extensive, in-house expertise in high-tech and high-fashion fabric development, and is a major supplier of specialty fabric to U.S. military contractors. Brookwood produces fabrics that meet standards and specifications set by both government and private industry, which are used by consumers, military and industrial customers.

The Brookwood Roll Goods Division serves manufacturers by maintaining an extensive in-stock, short-lot service of woven nylon and polyester fabrics, offering an expansive inventory in excess of two million yards stocked in a wide array of colors. As speed is essential in this area, Brookwood Roll Goods has positioned its sales and distribution facilities in southern California and Rhode Island to allow shipment on a same day/next day basis.

The First Performance Fabric Division buys and sells short lots, remnants and mill seconds for a vast assortment of coated and uncoated nylon products at promotional prices. The products offered include nylon for consumer uses, such as activewear, outerwear, swimwear as well as nylons used for balloons, luggage, bags, flags and banners.

During 2000, Brookwood formed a joint venture, Strategic Technical Alliance, LLC ("STA"), with an unrelated party that is also in a textile-related industry. The business of STA is to produce advanced breathable, waterproof laminate materials for military applications. STA was 50% owned by each party with operating and management decision-making shared equally by both parties. In September 2002, STA acquired the 50% ownership interest not owned by Brookwood, effectively making STA a wholly owned Brookwood subsidiary. Since that date, the financial results of STA have been fully consolidated. Prior to the acquisition, Brookwood utilized the equity method of accounting.

The textile industry historically experiences seasonality swings. Brookwood has partially offset the effect of those swings by diversifying its product lines and business base. Brookwood enjoys a fairly steady stream of orders that comprise its backlog. However, the seasonality swings and backlog are subject to military contracts granted, from time to time, to its prime government contractor customers. Management believes that Brookwood maintains a level of inventory adequate to support its sales requirements and has historically enjoyed a consistent turnover ratio.

In January 2003, Brookwood was granted a patent for its "breathable waterproof laminate and method for making same", which is a critical process in its production of specialty fabric for U.S. military contractors. Brookwood has no other patents pending. Brookwood has ongoing programs of research and development in all of its divisions adequate to maintain the exploration, development and production of innovative products and technologies.

Textile products accounted for 88% of the Company's total revenues from continuing operations in 2002, compared to 86% in 2001 and 90% in 2000.

Other. Other revenues include amortization of the Company's noncompetition agreement fee received from the sale of its former energy investment in 2001, revenue from a leased hotel property (a 112-room GuestHouse Suites Plus hotel in Huntsville, Alabama), interest and other income and equity income (loss) from its investment in a newly-formed, private energy company.

Other expenses include administrative, interest, hotel operating costs, cost of Separation Agreement and loss from debt extinguishment. Administrative expenses represent the general costs of operating a public company, including consulting fees paid to HSC Financial Corporation, an entity associated with the Company's chairman and principal stockholder, Anthony J. Gumbiner. Hotel operating costs relate only to the leased hotel property the Company continues to operate. Interest expense relates principally to the Term Loan and Revolving Credit Facility, 10% Debentures, the Company's obligation in connection with the Separation Agreement among the Company, a former officer and director and a related trust (the "Separation Agreement"), a former Senior Secured Term Loan and former loans from the Company's chairman and principal stockholder. The cost of Separation Agreement represents an additional accrual of future cash payments through December 2004 to the aforementioned trust. The loss from extinguishment of debt relates to the write off of unamortized deferred loan costs associated with the repayment of the former Senior Secured Term Loan in 2001.

New Energy Investment. During 2002, the Company invested $3,500,000 in a newly-formed, private energy company -- Hallwood Energy Corporation ("HEC"). HEC is presently in the developmental stage, having drilled seven test wells in the Barnett Shale Formation of Johnson County, Texas. After constructing an extensive gas gathering system, HEC commenced commercial production and sales from three of the seven wells in February 2003. In March 2003, a fourth well was placed in production, a fifth well was in the process of being completed and a sixth well was nearing completion of drilling operations. These two wells are expected to begin production in April 2003. One well, after numerous completion attempts, has been temporarily abandoned. HEC anticipates that it will drill at least six additional wells during the remainder of 2003. HEC holds oil and gas leases covering 32,254 and 28,329 gross and net acres, respectively, in Johnson and Hill Counties, Texas as of March 2003. The Company owns approximately 28% of HEC and accounts for the investment using the equity method of accounting. Certain of the Company's current officers and directors and certain officers and directors of its former energy affiliate are investors in HEC.

Discontinued Operations -- Hotels. Hotel operations were conducted through the Company's wholly owned, Hallwood Hotels, Inc. ("Hallwood Hotels") and Brock Suite Hotels, Inc. ("Brock Hotels") subsidiaries. Hallwood Hotels held a long-term leasehold interest in the Holiday Inn and Suites hotel, located in Longboat Key, Florida and a fee interest in the Airport Embassy Suites hotel, located in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. Brock Hotels owned fee interests in two GuestHouse Suites Plus properties located in Tulsa, Oklahoma and Greenville, South Carolina, and holds a long-term leasehold interest in a GuestHouse Suites Plus property located in Huntsville, Alabama.

In December 2000, the Company decided to dispose of its hotel segment, principally by allowing its non-recourse debt holders to assume ownership of the properties through foreclosures, or by selling or otherwise disposing of its hotel properties. As part of the planned disposition, in December 2001 and 2000, the Company evaluated the operations and economic environment in which each of the hotels operated and determined it was appropriate to record impairments of $935,000 and $4,000,000, respectively, to reduce their carrying values to estimated fair market values.

In January 2001, a receiver was appointed to administer the disposition of the GuestHouse Suites Plus hotel in Greenville, South Carolina. In February 2001, the Company signed an Agreement to Terminate Lease with the landlord of the Holiday Inn and Suites hotel in Sarasota, Florida. In March 2001, receivers were appointed to administer the disposition of the GuestHouse Suites Plus hotel in Tulsa, Oklahoma and the Airport Embassy Suites hotel in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. In June 2001, the Company entered into a settlement agreement with the mezzanine lender whereby the Company transferred all of its capital stock of Hallwood Hotels-OKC, Inc., the entity that owned the Embassy Suites hotel, to the mezzanine lender and obtained a release from its obligations under the first mortgage and the mezzanine loan. The Company reported the transaction as a gain from extinguishment of debt in the amount of $316,000, before a deferred tax charge of $100,000.

During 2001, the Company determined it would retain its leasehold interest in the GuestHouse Suites Plus hotel located in Huntsville, Alabama, the results of which have been reported in continuing operations.

In January 2002, with assistance and consent of the lender, the Company sold the GuestHouse Suites Plus hotel in Tulsa, Oklahoma for $3,000,000. The Company received no cash proceeds from the sale; however, concurrently with the sale, it entered into a loan modification and assumption agreement, which included a release that discharged the Company from any further loan obligations. The Company recognized a gain from extinguishment of debt of $2,552,000, before a deferred tax charge of $875,000. In February 2002, the lender for the GuestHouse Suites Plus hotel in Greenville, South Carolina obtained a court judgement of foreclosure. In connection with the foreclosure, the lender waived its right to a deficiency judgment against the Company. The lender completed the foreclosure in June 2002 and the Company recognized a gain from extinguishment of debt of $3,237,000, before a deferred tax charge of $925,000.

The Company was a defendant in two lawsuits regarding guaranties of certain obligations of the Embassy Suites and Holiday Inn hotels. In February 2003, the Company settled both matters. The Company agreed (i) to pay $150,000 in cash and to issue a non-interest bearing promissory note in the amount of $250,000 payable in equal monthly installments over eighteen months, in exchange for a full release regarding the Embassy Suites hotel; and (ii) to pay $250,000 in cash, in exchange for a full release regarding the Holiday Inn hotel. In December 2002, the Company recorded an additional loss provision in the amount of $247,000 to fully accrue for these two litigation matters.

Discontinued Operations -- Energy. In March 2001, Hallwood Energy Corporation ("Hallwood Energy") announced that it had signed a definitive merger agreement pursuant to which Pure Resources II, Inc., an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of Pure Resources, Inc. ("Pure"), agreed to acquire all the outstanding common stock of Hallwood Energy at a price of $12.50 per share and all the outstanding shares of Series A Cumulative Preferred Stock of Hallwood Energy at a price of $10.84 per share. The all-cash transaction was structured as a first step tender offer followed by a cash merger to acquire all remaining shares of Hallwood Energy. The Company also agreed to tender all of its shares of common stock in the tender offer and granted to Pure an irrevocable proxy to vote in favor of the merger, on the same terms as provided in the merger agreement. Pure commenced its tender offer in April 2001, with an expiration date of May 8, 2001. On May 9, 2001, Pure announced that it had successfully completed its tender offer, and had acquired approximately 85% of the Hallwood Energy common stock and 78% of the Hallwood Energy preferred stock. The Company received $18,000,000 for the tender of its 1,440,000 shares of common stock in May 2001 and received an additional $7,250,000, pursuant to the terms of a noncompetition agreement that was paid by Pure upon the completion of the merger in June 2001.

Under the noncompetition agreement, the Company agreed to refrain from taking certain actions (described below) without the prior written consent of Pure and Hallwood Energy. These covenants were made by the Company in consideration of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and the payment by Pure to the Company. For a period of three years after the effective date of the merger agreement, the Company will not, directly or indirectly, engage in oil and gas activities in certain geographic areas without the prior consent of Pure. Hallwood Energy was engaged in the development, exploration, acquisition and production of oil and gas properties. Hallwood Energy owned interests in properties primarily located in the San Juan Basin in New Mexico and Colorado, South Texas, the Permian Basin in West Texas and onshore South Louisiana. The Company also agreed to keep Hallwood Energy's confidential and proprietary information strictly confidential.

Edgar Filing: HALLWOOD GROUP INC - Form 10-K

COMPETITION, RISKS AND OTHER FACTORS

THE COMPANY

If the Company cannot generate sufficient cash flows from operations, it may need additional capital. If the Company cannot generate enough cash flow from operations to finance its business in the future, it will need to raise additional capital through public or private financing or asset sales. If the Company borrows money, it may be required to agree to restrictions limiting its operating flexibility. If the Company requires additional capital but is not able to obtain such capital, it would have a material adverse effect on its operations and the Company's ability to service its debt.

Risk of Rising Interest Rates. A portion of the Company's indebtedness bears interest at variable rates. In addition, the Company may incur indebtedness in the future that also bears interest at a variable rate or may be required to refinance its debt at higher rates. Accordingly, increases in interest rates could increase the Company's interest expense, which could adversely affect cash flow from future operations and the Company's ability to service its debt.

Influence of Significant Stockholder. The Company's chairman, Anthony J. Gumbiner, is also a significant stockholder of the Company. A trust, of which Mr. Gumbiner and his family are beneficiaries, indirectly owns approximately 56% of the Company's outstanding common stock (61% including currently exercisable stock options held by Mr. Gumbiner) as of March 31, 2003. Accordingly, Mr. Gumbiner can exert substantial influence over the affairs of the Company.

Competition for skilled personnel could increase our labor costs. The Company competes with various other companies in attracting and retaining qualified and skilled personnel. The Company depends on its ability to attract and retain skilled management personnel who are responsible for the day-to-day operations of the Company. Competitive pressures may require that the Company enhance its pay and benefits package to compete effectively for such personnel. If there is an increase in these costs or if the Company fails to attract and retain qualified and skilled personnel, its business and operating results could be adversely affected.

The Company is dependent on its key personnel whose continued service is not guaranteed. The Company is dependent upon its executive officers for strategic business direction and real estate experience. While the Company believes that it could find replacements for these key personnel, loss of their services could adversely affect the Company's operations.

Restrictions on Stock Transfers and Ownership Limits. The Company's Second Restated Certificate of Incorporation contains a provision that restricts transfers of the Company's common stock in order to protect certain federal income tax benefits. The restriction prohibits any transfer of common stock to any person that results in ownership in excess of 4.75% of the then outstanding shares. The restriction can be waived only with the approval of the Company's board of directors. The restriction can impede a third party from acquiring the Company, even if such an acquisition would be beneficial to the Company's stockholders.

Risk of Loan Covenant Violations or 10% Debenture Restrictions. The Company's Term Loan and Revolving Credit Facility and 10% Debentures require compliance with various loan covenants and financial ratios, which, if not met, will trigger a default. The Term Loan and Revolving Credit Facility requires a minimum debt service coverage ratio for each rolling four quarter period, as defined, of 1.20 to 1.00, a senior leverage ratio, as defined, of no greater than 2.50 to 1.00 and a minimum collateral value coverage of 200% of the outstanding loan balance. Additionally, Brookwood's credit agreement requires compliance with various loan covenants and financial ratios, principally a minimum debt service coverage ratio of 1.25 to 1.00, a debt to equity ratio of 50% and a minimum net income requirement both at the interim quarters, as well as for the year ended December 31, 2002. Brookwood did not meet the minimum net income requirement for the 2002 year, which caused an event of default as of December 31, 2002. Brookwood received a waiver from its lender for the covenant violation. The Indenture for the 10% Debentures contains various covenants, principally the risk associated with a subsidiary commencing receivership, bankruptcy or insolvency proceedings, which if violated, may result in a call of the entire issue.

Risk of Litigation. The Company is currently a party to various litigation matters, as described more fully in Item 3 -- Legal Proceedings and Note 18 to the Company's consolidated financial statements. An unfavorable decision on the matters could have an adverse effect on the Company. In particular, the Company is a defendant in certain litigation in Delaware state court. The trial court in that matter ruled that the Company pay a judgment in the amount of $3,417,000 to HRP, plus pre-judgment interest of approximately $2,891,000 to HRP. In October 2001, the Company paid $6,405,000, including post-judgment interest of $97,000, subject to an arrangement that it be returned in full or part if the judgment is modified or reversed on appeal. The plaintiff and certain defendants appealed the ruling. In August 2002, the Supreme Court of Delaware affirmed the judgment of the trial court that the remaining defendants other than HRP are jointly and severally liable to HRP. The Supreme Court reversed the trial court's determination of damages, however, and remanded the case to the trial court to fashion appropriate relief. A hearing on the remand proceedings was held before the Delaware Court of Chancery in October 2002. A further hearing on the remand is scheduled to take place in May 2003, with a decision by the Chancery Court to follow. Since the appellate court reversed the judgment, any subsequent ruling by the trial court on remand may be more or less favorable to the Company.

REAL ESTATE

Concentration Risks. The Company's real estate subsidiaries receive a substantial portion of their revenues from management, leasing and other services provided to HRP. Any adverse effect on HRP's operations could affect the Company through reduced fee income. Further, the early cancellation or non-renewal of the management contracts between HRP and the Company's real estate subsidiaries, which expire in June 2004, would have a material adverse effect on the Company.

Deterioration in Economic Conditions and the Real Estate Markets Could Impair HRP's Business. The commercial real estate industry depends on a number of factors relating to global, national, regional and local general and economic conditions, including inflation, interest rates, taxation policies, availability of credit, war, threat of war, employment levels, and wage and salary levels. A negative trend in any of these conditions could adversely affect HRP's business. If a substantial number of tenants default on their leases, choose not to renew, or if rental rates decrease, HRP's financial position could be adversely affected. Such effects could include: a decline in acquisition, disposition and leasing activity; a decline in the supply of capital invested in commercial real estate; or a decline in the value of real estate. HRP's cash flow would be adversely affected by decreases in the performance of the properties it owns. Property performance typically depends upon the ability to attract and retain creditworthy tenants; the ability to manage operating expenses; the magnitude of defaults by tenants under their respective leases; governmental regulations; the nature and extent of competitive properties; financial and economic conditions generally and in the specific areas where properties are located; and the real estate market generally. Expenses may increase due to unexpected or higher repairs and maintenance costs, inflation, services and costs required to retain tenants or to sign new tenants, unsuccessful appeals of rising real estate taxes, changes in interest rates, higher insurance costs, the outcome of existing or future litigation, as well as other factors, many of which are beyond the control of HRP.

Interest Rate Risks. Because only one of its mortgage loans, with a $25,000,000 principal balance and interest at LIBOR plus 130 basis points, has a floating interest rate, HRP's exposure to changes in market interest rates is limited to the difference between the market rate in effect at the time a loan matures compared to its existing interest rate. As of December 31, 2002, HRP had mortgage loans totaling $172,552,000 with fixed interest rates from 6.97% to 8.7% (with an effective average interest rate of 8.21%). These loans mature between 2005 and 2020. At the time of loan maturity, a higher market interest rate, compared to the existing rate, will have a negative impact on the amount of mortgage proceeds secured from a refinancing, as well as a decrease in cash flow from future operations due to the higher interest rate.

Insurance Risks. Due in large part to the terrorist activities of September 11, 2001, insurance companies have re-examined many aspects of their business, and have taken certain actions in the wake of these terrorist activities, including increasing premiums, mandating higher self-insured retention and deductibles, reducing limits, restricting coverages, imposing exclusions (such as sabotage and terrorism), and refusing to underwrite certain risks and classes of business. Significantly increased premiums, mandated exclusions, or changes in limits, coverages, terms and conditions could adversely affect HRP's ability to obtain appropriate insurance coverages at reasonable costs; however, at this time the only impact on HRP has been an increase in premiums. HRP has $250,000,000 of terrorism insurance coverage.

Environmental Risks. Various national, state and local laws and regulations impose liability on real property owners, such as HRP, for the cost of investigating, cleaning up or removing contamination caused by hazardous or toxic substances. The liability may be imposed even if the original actions were legal and HRP did not know of, or was not responsible for, the presence of such hazardous or toxic substances. HRP may also be solely responsible for the entire payment of the liability if it is subject to joint and several liability with other responsible parties who are unable to pay. HRP may be subject to additional liability if it fails to disclose environmental issues to a buyer or lessee of property or if a third party is damaged or injured as a result of environmental contamination emanating from the site. HRP cannot be sure that any of such liabilities to which it may become subject will not have a material adverse effect upon its business, results of operations or financial condition. Certain HRP properties are known to contain asbestos. Removal of asbestos at HRP's properties is not required because it is cementitious, it is not friable and because the procedures in HRP's site environmental program Operations and Maintenance Manual are performed as required.

Competition. HRP's properties are subject to substantial competition from similar properties in the vicinity in which they are located. In addition, there are numerous other potential investors seeking to purchase improved real property and many property holders seeking to dispose of real estate with which HRP will compete, including companies substantially larger than HRP and with substantially greater resources.

Other. HRP's business is subject to other factors: (i) HRP's basic investment strategy is to hold real estate properties until what it believes to be an optimal time to sell them. HRP normally would sell properties during relatively strong real estate markets, however factors beyond HRP's control could make it necessary for HRP to dispose of properties during weak markets. Further, markets for real estate assets are not usually highly liquid, which can make it particularly difficult to realize acceptable prices when disposing assets during weak markets; (ii) HRP has financed its operations with cash flow from profitably operating its established properties. If HRP does not generate enough cash from operations to finance its business in the future, it will need to raise additional funds through public or private financing or asset sales. If HRP borrows additional funds, it may be required to agree to restrictions limiting its operating flexibility. If HRP requires additional funds and is not able to obtain such funds, it would have a material adverse effect on HRP's operations; (iii) HRP has certain mortgage loans that require compliance with loan covenants and restrictions, which if not met will trigger a default. Additionally, these loans contain restrictions that limit certain actions; (iv) HRP's properties are subject to the Americans with Disabilities Act. HRP and the Company's real estate subsidiaries acting on behalf of HRP, monitor compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act and are currently not aware of any material non-compliance issues; and (v) HRP is currently a party to certain litigation, the outcome of which is uncertain.

TEXTILE PRODUCTS

Supplier Risks. Brookwood purchases a significant amount of the fabric it uses from a small number of suppliers. Brookwood believes that the loss of any one or more of its suppliers would not have a long-term material adverse effect on Brookwood, because other manufacturers with which Brookwood conducts business would be able to fulfill Brookwood's requirements. However, the loss of certain of Brookwood's suppliers could, in the short term, adversely affect Brookwood's business until alternative supply arrangements were secured. In addition, there can be no assurance that any new supply arrangements would have terms as favorable as those contained in current supply arrangements. Brookwood has not experienced any significant disruptions in supply as a result of shortages in the supply fabrics.

Concentration of Credit Risk. The financial instruments that potentially subject Brookwood to concentration of credit risk consist principally of accounts receivable. Brookwood grants credit to customers based on an evaluation of the customer's financial condition. Exposure to losses on receivables is principally dependent on each customer's financial condition. Brookwood manages its exposure to credit risks through credit approvals, credit limits, monitoring procedures and the use of factors.

The amount of receivables that Brookwood could factor is subject to certain limitations as specified in individual factoring agreements. The factoring agreements expose Brookwood to credit risk, if any of the factors fail to meet their obligations. Brookwood seeks to manage this risk by conducting business with a number of reputable factors and monitoring the factors' performance under their agreements.

Risk of Loan Covenant Violations. Brookwood's credit agreement requires compliance with various loan covenants and financial ratios, principally a minimum debt service coverage ratio of 1.25 to 1.00, a debt to equity ratio of 50% and a minimum net income requirement at the interim quarters, as well as $1,500,000 for the year ended December 31, 2002. Brookwood did not meet the minimum net income requirement for the 2002 year, which caused an event of default under the credit agreement as of December 31, 2002. Brookwood received a waiver from its lender for the covenant violation.

Environmental Risks. Kenyon Industries, Inc. ("Kenyon") and Brookwood Laminating, Inc. ("Brookwood Laminating") are wholly owned subsidiaries of Brookwood. Kenyon and Brookwood Laminating are subject to a broad range of federal, foreign, state and local laws and regulations relating to the pollution and protection of the environment. Among the many environmental requirements applicable to Kenyon and Brookwood Laminating are laws relating to air emissions, ozone depletion, wastewater discharges and the handling, disposal and release of solid and hazardous substances and wastes. Based on continuing internal review and advice from independent consultants, Kenyon and Brookwood Laminating believe that they are currently in substantial compliance with applicable environmental requirements. Kenyon and Brookwood Laminating are also subject to laws, such as The Comprehensive Environmental Response Compensation and Liability Act ("CERCLA"), that may impose liability retroactively and without fault for releases or threatened releases of hazardous substances at on-site or off-site locations. Kenyon and Brookwood Laminating are not aware of any releases for which they may be liable under CERCLA or any analogous provision. Actions by federal, state and local governments in the United States and abroad concerning environmental matters could result in laws or regulations that could increase the cost of producing the products manufactured by Kenyon and Brookwood Laminating or otherwise adversely affect demand for their products. Widespread adoption of any prohibitions or restrictions could adversely affect the cost and/or the ability to produce products and thereby have a material adverse effect upon Kenyon, Brookwood Laminating or Brookwood.

Brookwood does not currently anticipate any material adverse effect on its business, results of operations, financial condition or competitive position as a result of its efforts to comply with environmental requirements. Some risk of environmental liability is inherent, however, in the nature of Brookwood's business, and there can be no assurance that material environmental liabilities will not arise. It is also possible that future developments in environmental regulation could lead to material environmental compliance or cleanup costs.

Patent and Trademark Risks. Brookwood considers its patents and trademarks, in the aggregate, to be important to its business and seeks to protect this proprietary know-how in part through United States patent and trademark registrations. Brookwood has a number of trademark applications pending, although no assurance can be given that trademarks will ever be issued from such applications or that any trademarks, if issued, will be determined to be valid. No assurance can be given, however, that such protection will give Brookwood any material competitive advantage. In addition, Brookwood maintains certain trade secrets for which, in order to maintain the confidentiality of such trade secrets, it has not sought patent or trademark protection and therefore such trade secrets could be infringed upon and such infringement could have a material adverse effect on its business, results of operations, financial condition or competitive position.

Competition. The cyclical nature of the textile and apparel industries, characterized by rapid shifts in fashion, consumer demand and competitive pressures, results in both price and demand volatility. The demand for any particular product varies from time to time based largely upon changes in consumer preferences and general economic conditions affecting the textile and apparel industries, such as consumer expenditures for non-durable goods. The textile and apparel industries are also cyclical because the supply of particular products changes as competitors enter or leave the market.

Brookwood sells primarily to domestic apparel manufacturers, some of which operate offshore sewing operations. Some of Brookwood's customers have moved their business offshore during the past few years. Brookwood has responded by shipping fabric to Asia directly and also by supplying finished products and garments directly to manufacturers. Brookwood competes with numerous domestic and foreign fabric manufacturers, including companies larger in size and having greater financial resources than Brookwood. The principal competitive factors in the woven fabrics markets are price, service, delivery time, quality and flexibility, with the relative importance of each factor depending upon the needs of particular customers and the specific product offering. Brookwood's management believes that Brookwood maintains its ability to compete effectively by providing its customers with a broad array of high-quality fabrics at competitive prices on a timely basis.

Brookwood's competitive position varies by product line. There are several major domestic competitors in the synthetic fabrics business, none of which dominates the market. Brookwood believes, however, that it has a strong competitive position. In addition, Brookwood believes it is one of only three finishers successful in printing camouflage on nylon for sale to apparel suppliers of the U.S. government. Additional competitive strengths of Brookwood include: knowledge of its customers' business needs; its ability to produce special fabrics such as textured blends; state of the art fabric finishing equipment at its facilities; substantial vertical integration; and its ability to communicate electronically with its customers.

Risks Relating to Imports. Imports of foreign-made textile and apparel products are a significant source of competition for most sectors of the domestic textile industry. The U.S. government has attempted to regulate the growth of certain textile and apparel imports through tariffs and bilateral agreements, which establish quotas on imports from lesser-developed countries that historically account for significant shares of U.S. imports. Despite these efforts, imported apparel, which represents the area of heaviest import penetration is estimated to represent in excess of 90% of the U.S. market.

The U.S. textile industry has been and continues to be negatively impacted by existing worldwide trade practices. The establishment of the World Trade Organization ("WTO") in 1995 has resulted in the phase out of quotas on textiles and apparel through 2004. In addition, tariffs on textile and apparel products will be reduced, but not eliminated, over the same ten-year period. After the end of ten years, the textile and apparel trade would revert to regular WTO rules that prohibit quotas and most other non-tariff barriers. Various other proposals have been presented for WTO consideration, which could lead to further significant changes in worldwide tariffs beyond those already anticipated.

U.S. government policy on an overall basis has not been favorable to the U.S. textile industry. Brookwood believes that the increasing flow of imports in the United States is partly due to the U.S. government's strong dollar monetary policy that allows foreign manufacturers to sell in the U.S. while a significant portion of their production costs are denominated in devalued local currencies.

Labor Relations. Brookwood's Kenyon Industries, Inc. subsidiary has entered into a collective bargaining agreement with the Union of Needletrades, Industrial and Textile Employees, representing approximately 239 employees at its Rhode Island plant facilities. The collective bargaining agreement expires on February 29, 2004. Management believes that overall relations with employees are good.

Edgar Filing: HALLWOOD GROUP INC - Form 10-K

RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

HRP. The Company's real estate subsidiaries earn asset management, property management leasing and construction supervision fees for their management of HRP's real estate properties. Hallwood Realty earns: (i) an asset management fee equal to 1% of the net aggregate base rents of HRP's properties, (ii) acquisition fees equal to 1% of the purchase price of newly acquired properties and; (iii) disposition fees with respect to real estate investments, other than the properties owned at the time of HRP's formation in 1990, equal to 10% of the amount by which the sales price of a property exceeds the purchase price of such property. HCRE earns property management, leasing and construction supervision fees. The management contracts with HRP expire on June 30, 2004 and provide for: (i) a property management fee equal to 2.85% of cash receipts collected from tenants; (ii) leasing fees equal to the current commission market rate as applied to net aggregate rent (none exceeding 6% of the net aggregate rent); and (iii) construction supervision fees for administering construction projects equal to 5% of total construction or tenant improvement costs.

Hallwood Realty is also reimbursed for certain costs and expenses, at cost, for administrative level salaries and bonuses, employee and director insurance and allocated overhead costs. In addition, since HRP does not employ any individuals, the compensation and other costs related to approximately 90 employees rendering services on behalf of HRP and its properties are reimbursed to Hallwood Realty and HCRE by HRP.

HSC Financial Corporation. The Company has entered into a financial consulting contract with HSC Financial Corporation ("HSC"), a corporation associated with Mr. Anthony J. Gumbiner, the Company's chairman and principal stockholder. The contract provides for HSC to furnish and perform international consulting and advisory services to the Company and its subsidiaries, including strategic planning and merger activities, at a rate of $795,000 per year ($495,000 prior to May 2001). HSC is also eligible for bonuses from the Company or its subsidiaries, subject to approval by the Company's or its subsidiaries' board of directors. Additionally, the Company reimburses HSC for reasonable and necessary expenses of office space and administrative services. A summary of the fees and expenses paid to HSC are detailed below (in thousands):

In addition, HSC performs services for certain affiliated entities that are not subsidiaries of the Company, for which it receives consulting fees, bonuses or other forms of compensation and expenses. The Company recognizes a proportionate share of such compensation and expenses, based upon its ownership percentage in the affiliated entities, through the utilization of the equity method of accounting.

Hallwood Investments Limited. During 2000 and 2001, the Company entered into loan agreements totaling $4,000,000 with Hallwood Investments Limited, an entity with which Mr. Gumbiner is associated. Several factors contributed to the Company's cash flow needs at the time, including difficulties experienced by the Company's hotel operations and restriction on the availability of distributions and tax-sharing payments from Brookwood. The loans bore an interest rate of 10% and were repaid in December 2001 and March 2002.

HEC. During 2002, the Company invested $3,500,000 in HEC, a newly-formed, private energy company. The Company owns approximately 28% of HEC and accounts for the investment using the equity method of accounting. Certain of the Company's current officers and directors and certain officers and directors of its former energy affiliate are investors in HEC.

Brookwood. During 2000, Brookwood formed STA with an unrelated party that is also in a textile-related industry, principally to produce advanced, breathable, waterproof laminate materials for military applications. In September 2002, STA acquired the 50% ownership interest not owned by Brookwood for $1,000,000 in cash, the issuance of a $596,000 note bearing interest at the prime rate and royalty payments for three years based upon production under a specified contract. Accordingly, STA became a wholly owned subsidiary of Brookwood in September 2002. Brookwood reported sales to STA of $11,444,000, $5,342,000 and $4,516,000 for the period through September 2002 and for the years ended December 31, 2001 and 2000, respectively.

The Company's Term Loan and Revolving Credit Facility and 10% Debentures require compliance with various loan covenants and financial ratios, which, if not met, will trigger a default. The Term Loan and Revolving Credit Facility requires a minimum debt service coverage ratio, as defined, for each rolling four quarter period, a senior leverage ratio, as defined, and a minimum collateral value coverage. Additionally, Brookwood's credit agreement requires compliance with various loan covenants and financial ratios, principally a minimum net income and debt service coverage ratio and a debt to equity ratio.

The principal ratios, as defined in the respective agreements, as of the end of the quarters in the year ended December 31, 2002 are provided below (dollar amount in thousands):

The Company was in compliance with its loan covenants under the Term Loan and Revolving Credit Facility as of December 31, 2002 and for all interim periods during 2002.

Brookwood was in compliance with its loan covenants for all interim periods during 2002, except for the quarter ended December 31, 2002, when it did not meet its minimum net income loan covenant. The covenant, which required for a minimum net income of $1,500,000, was not met as Brookwood's net income for the year ended December 31, 2002 was $1,436,000. Brookwood obtained a waiver for this violation from the lender, and believes that it will be in compliance with all of its covenants for 2003.

The Indenture for the 10% Debentures contains various covenants, which if violated, may result in a call of the entire issue. The principal covenants prohibit any subsidiary of the Company from commencing receivership, bankruptcy or insolvency proceedings.

Number of Employees. The Company had 548 and 546 employees as of February 28, 2003 and 2002, respectively, comprised as follows:

A substantial amount of the salaries and related costs for the employees of HCRE and Hallwood Realty are reimbursed by HRP.

Brookwood's Kenyon Industries, Inc. subsidiary has entered into a collective bargaining agreement with the Union of Needletrades, Industrial and Textile Employees, representing approximately 239 employees at its Rhode Island plant facilities. The collective bargaining agreement expires on February 29, 2004. Management believes that overall relations with employees are good.

The textile products' dyeing and finishing plant was custom-built and is a multi-shift facility well-suited for that particular business. The development of new products requires the plant to be constantly upgraded, along with various levels of utilization. Brookwood's revolving credit agreement contains a covenant to reasonably maintain property and equipment.

The Company intends to continue operating the leased GuestHouse Suites Plus hotel in Huntsville, Alabama under license and, as such, must meet and maintain standards established by the licensor. The Company does not plan to make any additional significant investment in property.

OFFICE SPACE

The Company shares offices with HRP in Dallas, Texas and pays a pro-rata share of lease and other office-related costs. The lease for the office space expires in November 2008 and contains a one-time option to terminate the lease in November 2005.

13

Brookwood maintains its corporate headquarters in New York City and leases its office space pursuant to a lease, which expires in August 2006.

ITEM 3. LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

The Company, certain of its affiliates and others have been named as defendants in several lawsuits relating to various transactions in which it or its affiliated entities participated. The Company and its affiliates intend to defend, or in some cases negotiate to settle, the remaining actions and does not currently anticipate that such actions will have a material adverse effect on its financial condition, results of operations or cash flows of the Company. See Note 18 to the Company's consolidated financial statements for a discussion of such litigation.

ITEM 4. SUBMISSION OF MATTERS TO A VOTE OF SECURITY HOLDERS

No matters were submitted to a vote of security holders during the period.

- (c) The Company's hotel operations consisted of five hotel properties. In December 2000, the Company decided to discontinue and dispose of its hotel segment; however, the Company subsequently determined that it would retain the leasehold interest in one of the hotels. Historical results of the four hotels that have been disposed of have been reclassified to discontinued operations from continuing operations. The one leasehold property that the Company retained has been reported as a continuing operation.
- (d) In May 2001, the Company sold its investment in Hallwood Energy which has been reclassified and reported as a discontinued operation for all periods presented herein.
- (e) SFAS No. 142 became effective on January 1, 2002, which resulted in the recording of income in 2002 of $568,000, which represented negative goodwill associated with the Company's HRP investment. 2001 results included a loss from adoption of SFAS No. 133.
- (f) Per share amounts have been recast for discontinued hotel and energy reclassifications and for previously reported extraordinary items.

ITEM 7. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Results of Operations. The Company reported net income of $7,362,000 for the year ended December 31, 2002, compared to net income of $4,245,000 for 2001, and a net loss of $4,867,000 for 2000.

Edgar Filing: HALLWOOD GROUP INC - Form 10-K

The Company reported income from continuing operations of $3,392,000 for 2002, compared to losses of $5,465,000 for 2001 and $720,000 for 2000. Revenue from continuing operations was $97,156,000 for 2002, $81,402,000 for 2001 and $82,243,000 for 2000.

Following is an analysis of the results of continuing operations for the real estate and textile products business segments and the discontinued operations for the energy and hotel business segments:

REAL ESTATE

Revenues. Real estate revenues of $7,095,000 for 2002, $8,514,000 for 2001 and $6,763,000 for 2000, include fee income and equity income (loss) from the Company's investments in HRP.

Fee income of $5,667,000 for 2002 decreased by $1,128,000, or 17%, compared to $6,795,000 for 2001. The 2001 fee income decreased by $215,000, or 3%, compared to $7,010,000 for 2000. The decreases were principally due to lower leasing and construction supervision fees, which are cyclical in nature. The Company's Hallwood Realty subsidiary is the general partner of HRP and earns an asset management fee and other fees from HRP properties, which amounted to $618,000 for 2002, $729,000 for 2001 and $655,000 for 2000. The Company's HCRE subsidiary is responsible for day-to-day on-site property management at all of HRP's properties and other properties it manages for third parties, for which HCRE receives management fees, leasing commissions and certain other fees, which amounted to $4,762,000 for 2002, $5,371,000 for 2001 and $5,434,000 for 2000.

The equity income (loss) from investments in HRP represents the Company's pro-rata share of the net income (loss) reported by HRP, adjusted for the elimination of intercompany income and, prior to January 1, 2002, amortization of negative goodwill. The Company recorded equity income of $1,428,000 for 2002, compared to income of $1,719,000 in 2001 and a loss of $247,000 for 2000. The 2002 decrease resulted principally from gains from property sales by HRP in 2001, partially offset by decreased litigation costs for 2002. The 2001 increase resulted from gains from property sales by HRP, improved operating performance and reduced administrative and litigation costs. The 2001 equity income was exclusive of the Company's $40,000 pro-rata share of HRP's $192,000 loss from cumulative effect of adopting SFAS No. 133, which is reported separately on the statement of operations. The 2000 equity loss resulted from reduced income reported by HRP, partially offset by reduced intercompany income adjustment related to leasing and development fees from HRP. In addition, the Company adopted Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 142 -- Goodwill and other Intangible Assets ("SFAS No. 142"), which resulted in the recording of income from the cumulative effect of a change in accounting principle in the amount of $568,000. This represented the unamortized amount of negative goodwill associated with the Company's equity investment in HRP.

Expenses. Real estate expenses of $2,491,000 for 2002, $5,347,000 for 2001 and $3,008,000 for 2000, include administrative expenses, depreciation and amortization and litigation expense.

Administrative expenses decreased by $496,000, or 21%, to $1,819,000 for 2002, compared to $2,315,000 for 2001. The 2001 expenses decreased by $21,000, or 1%, compared to $2,336,000 for 2000. The decreases were primarily attributable to the payments of commissions associated with leasing income and fluctuations in construction and facilities management expenses, which can vary significantly from year to year due to the transactional nature of the services.

Edgar Filing: HALLWOOD GROUP INC - Form 10-K

Amortization expense of $672,000 for each of the three years 2002, 2001 and 2000 relates to Hallwood Realty's general partner interest in HRP to the extent allocated to management rights, which is being amortized over a ten year period ending in October 2003. At December 31, 2002, the unamortized cost remaining was $560,000.

Litigation expense of $2,360,000 was recorded for 2001. The Delaware Court of Chancery rendered its opinion regarding certain litigation involving the Company in July 2001. The court determined that the defendants should pay to HRP a judgment of $3,417,000 plus pre-judgment interest of approximately $2,893,000. The principal component of the judgment amount, which represented the court's determination of an underpayment by the Company for certain limited partnership units purchased by the Company in 1995 from HRP, was considered additional purchase price and added to the Company's investment in the limited partnership units. The interest component of the judgment amount has been recorded as an expense, after elimination of the Company's $533,000 pro rata share of the income that will be reported by HRP as a result of the payment. The Company paid $6,405,000 (including post-judgment interest) to HRP in October 2001, subject to an arrangement that it be returned in full or part if the judgment is modified or reversed on appeal.

TEXTILE PRODUCTS

Revenues. Textile revenues were $85,933,000 in 2002, $69,579,000 in 2001 and $73,852,000 in 2000.

Sales of $84,770,000 in 2002 increased by $15,876,000, or 23%, compared to $68,894,000 in 2001 and decreased by $4,958,000, or 7%, in 2001, compared to $73,852,000 in 2000. The 2002 increase was principally due to renewed activity in the military business. The 2001 decrease was principally in the distribution business as a result of lower overall demand, the continued trend of U.S. customers moving production out of the country and the September 11th terrorist attacks that adversely impacted the tourism industry, as well as luggage and outerwear business, partially offset by increased revenues at the dyeing and finishing and laminating plants and revenues from new customers and new production processes to diversify Brookwood's product base. Brookwood had one customer that accounted for more than 10% of its net sales during 2002. The relationship with the customer is ongoing and Brookwood expects to maintain comparable sales volumes with that customer in 2003. Sales to that customer were $18,600,000, $3,800,000 and $42,000 in 2002, 2001 and 2000, respectively.

During 2000, Brookwood formed STA with an unrelated third party that is also in a textile-related industry. STA acquired the 50% ownership interest not owned by Brookwood in September 2002. Accordingly, STA became a wholly owned subsidiary in September 2002. Prior to the acquisition, Brookwood utilized the equity method of accounting. Brookwood's equity income from STA in 2002 was $1,163,000 (prior to acquisition) and $685,000 in 2001.

Expenses. Total expenses increased $11,561,000, or 16%, to $83,266,000 in 2002. The 2001 expenses decreased $1,692,000 to $71,705,000 from $73,397,000 in 2000.

Cost of sales increased $13,096,000 to $71,481,000, or 22%, in 2002. The 2001 cost of sales of $58,385,000 decreased by $4,016,000, or 6%, compared to $62,401,000 in 2000. The gross profit margin was 15.7%, 15.2% and 15.5% in 2002, 2001 and 2000, respectively.

Administrative and selling expenses of $11,243,000 for 2002 increased by

Edgar Filing: HALLWOOD GROUP INC - Form 10-K

$487,000, or 5%, from the 2001 amount of $10,756,000, which increased $945,000, or 10%, compared to the 2000 amount of $9,811,000. The increase in 2002 resulted primarily from an increase in indirect and administrative payroll costs. The increase in 2001 was attributable to costs related to the development of new business products, costs incurred in a brief strike at the dyeing and finishing plant and costs associated with the settlement of a contingent obligation in the amount of $375,000.

Interest expense decreased by $576,000, or 52%, to $542,000 for 2002, and increased by $67,000 for 2001 to $1,118,000 in 2001 from the 2000 amount of $1,185,000. The 2002 decrease was principally due to lower interest rates, while the 2001 decrease was the result of higher average borrowings and lower interest rates.

In 2001, management conducted an analysis of the carrying values of certain intangible assets related to acquisitions made in prior years by Brookwood and determined that Brookwood suffered an impairment to those values due to adverse economic trends and conditions. Accordingly, an impairment charge of $1,446,000 was recorded in December 2001.

OTHER

Revenues. Total revenues were $4,128,000 in 2002, $3,309,000 in 2001 and $1,628,000 in 2000.

Fee revenue of $2,417,000 in 2002 and $1,410,000 in 2001 is attributable to the amortization of deferred revenue from the noncompetition agreement associated with the sale of the Company's investment in Hallwood Energy. Under the noncompetition agreement, the Company agreed to refrain from taking certain actions without prior consent, including, among other items, directly or indirectly engaging in oil and gas activities in certain geographic areas, for period of three years. The original $7,250,000 cash payment is being amortized over a three year period which began June 2001.

Hotel revenue from the leased GuestHouse Suites Plus hotel in Huntsville, Alabama was $1,576,000 in 2002, compared to $1,677,000 in 2001 and $1,540,000 in 2000. The $101,000 decrease, or 6%, in 2002 was due to decreased occupancy, partially offset by an increased average daily rate. The 9% increase in 2001 was attributable to increased occupancy, partially offset by a reduced average daily rate. Revenues have been adversely impacted by a general downturn in the hotel industry and increased competition in the Huntsville market.

Interest and other income in 2002 was $322,000, compared to the 2001 amount of $222,000 and $88,000 in 2000. The 2002 increase was due to a gain of $296,000 on the exercise of an option and sale of a marketable security. The 2001 increase resulted from increased interest income on invested funds from the sale of Hallwood Energy.

Equity loss of $187,000 in 2002 relates to the Company's pro rata share of loss from HEC's operations, which commenced in 2002.

Expenses. Administrative expenses were $1,940,000 for 2002, compared to $2,279,000 for 2001 and $1,837,000 for 2000. The decrease of $339,000, or 15%, in 2002 and increase of $442,000, or 24%, in 2001 were primarily attributable to fluctuating consulting and professional fees.

Hotel expenses include operating expenses, depreciation and interest costs associated with the GuestHouse Suites Plus hotel in Huntsville, Alabama, which the Company has retained and continues to operate. Hotel expenses increased by $83,000, or 5%, to $1,898,000 in 2002, compared to $1,815,000 in 2001, principally due to an increase in repairs and maintenance expense. 2001 expenses decreased by $1,018,000, or 36%, from $2,833,000 in 2000 due to the recording of an impairment of $680,000 in December 2000, reduced depreciation due to the adjustment in basis from the impairment and lower operating expenses as a result of improved cost controls.

In 1999, the Company entered into the Separation Agreement. The Separation Agreement provided that a former officer and director and related trust exchange their 24% stock ownership in the Company, for 20% of the Company's limited partner interest in HRP, 20% of the Company's common stock interest in Hallwood Energy, all of the Company's interest in its condominium hotel business and future cash payments contingent on the net cash flow from the Company's real estate management activities, that being the lesser of 20% of the net cash flow from its real estate management activities for the preceding quarter or $125,000. These future cash payments are subject to termination or extinguishment in certain events. The additional cost of the Separation Agreement recorded in 2002 and 2001 in the amounts of $1,000,000 and $500,000, respectively, represent future cash payments to the trust through the period ending December 2004. The Company has an option to extinguish the future cash payments to the trust at any time prior to its expiration in December 2004 upon the payment of $3,000,000.

Interest expense relates to the Company's Term Loan and Revolving Credit Facility, 10% Collateralized Subordinated Debentures, former Senior Secured Term Loan, stockholder loans and interest costs on contingent payments associated with the Separation Agreement. Interest expense of $850,000 for 2002 decreased by $1,148,000, or 57%, compared to 2001 interest of $1,998,000. The decrease was primarily due to the payoff of the former Senior Secured Term Loan in May 2001, partially offset by increased interest expense associated with the Term Loan and Revolving Credit Facility obtained in March 2002. Interest expense for 2001 decreased $1,100,000, or 36%, to $1,998,000, compared to 2000 interest of $3,098,000. The decrease was principally due to the principal amortization on the former Senior Secured Term Loan prior to its payoff in May 2001, partially offset by increased interest costs associated with the stockholder loans.

The loss from debt extinguishment of $800,000 in 2001 relates to the write off of unamortized deferred loan costs associated with the repayment of the former Senior Secured Term loan in May 2001. Previously, this loss was reported as an extraordinary loss, but has been reclassified into continuing operations in accordance with Statement of Financial Standards No. 145.

INCOME TAXES

The Company recognizes future tax benefits, measured by enacted tax rates, attributable to net deductible temporary differences between financial statement and income tax basis of assets and liabilities (approximately $49,793,000 at December 31, 2002), tax net operating loss carryforwards ("NOLs") (approximately $29,278,000 at December 31, 2002) and tax credit carryforwards (approximately $2,228,000 at December 31, 2002), to the extent that realization of such benefits is "more likely than not", as contemplated in Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 109 -- Accounting for Income Taxes ("SFAS No. 109"). As a result of the fluctuations in the anticipated gain on the sale of the HRP limited partner units, the realization of a gain on the sale of Hallwood Energy, and the projected income from operations, partially offset by the decline in value and disposition of the Company's hotel properties, management has determined that the deferred tax asset should be adjusted to reflect the anticipated utilization of NOLs resulting from the expected income from these assumptions. Accordingly the Company recorded a deferred tax expense of $3,256,000 in 2002 and $949,000 in 2001, and deferred tax (benefit) of $(1,205,000) in 2000, respectively, which resulted in the recognition of deferred tax assets of $4,221,000 at December 31, 2002, $7,477,000 at December

Edgar Filing: HALLWOOD GROUP INC - Form 10-K

31, 2001 and $8,426,000 at December 31, 2000. The portion of the deferred tax expense (benefit) during the years ended December 31, 2002, 2001 and 2000 related to continuing operations was $1,456,000, $2,121,000 and $(1,546,000), respectively, and the portion relating to discontinued operations was $1,800,000, $(1,172,000) and $341,000, respectively.

The Company recorded a federal current charge of $50,000, $58,000 and $46,000 from continuing operations in the three years ended December 31, 2002, respectively, principally for the filing of separate returns of certain subsidiaries not included in the Company's consolidated federal tax return. The Company recorded state tax expense of $813,000 in 2002, $244,000 in 2001 and $290,000 in 2000.

The Company's NOLs expire as follows: 2007 -- $7,083,000; 2008 -- $12,896,000; and 2009 to 2020 -- $9,299,000. SFAS No. 109 requires that the tax benefit of such NOLs be recorded as an asset to the extent that management assesses the utilization of such NOLs to be "more likely than not". Based upon the Company's expectations and available tax planning strategies, management has determined that taxable income will more likely than not be sufficient to utilize approximately $12,415,000 of the NOLs prior to their ultimate expiration in the year 2020.

Management believes that the Company has certain tax planning strategies available, which include the potential sale of certain real estate investments, that could be implemented, if necessary, to supplement income from operations to fully realize the net recorded tax benefits before their expiration. Management has considered such strategies in reaching its conclusion that, more likely than not, taxable income will be sufficient to utilize a portion of the NOLs before expiration; however, future levels of operating income and taxable gains are dependent upon general economic conditions and other factors beyond the Company's control. Accordingly, no assurance can be given that sufficient taxable income will be generated for utilization of the NOLs. Management periodically re-evaluates its tax planning strategies based upon changes in facts and circumstances and, accordingly, considers potential adjustments to the valuation allowance of the deferred tax asset.

Although the use of such carryforwards could, under certain circumstances be limited, the Company is presently unaware of the occurrence of any event which would result in such limitations. In addition, utilization of NOLs in the future may be limited if changes in the Company's stock ownership create a change of control, as provided in Section 382 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

DISCONTINUED OPERATIONS -- HOTELS

Dispositions. In December 2000, the Company decided to discontinue its hotel operations and dispose of its hotel segment, principally by allowing its non-recourse debtholders to assume ownership of the properties through foreclosures or by selling or otherwise disposing of its hotel properties. The Company's former hotel segment consisted of three owned properties and two leased properties. As part of the planned disposition, the Company evaluated the operations and economic environment in which each of the hotels operated and in December 2001 and December 2000 recorded impairments of $935,000 and $4,000,000 ($3,320,000 for the hotels designated as held for sale and $680,000 for the remaining hotel held for use), respectively, to reduce hotel carrying values to estimated fair market values. Apart from the leasehold interest in the GuestHouse Suites Plus hotel in Huntsville, Alabama that the Company continues to operate and report as an asset held for use, hotel operations have been segregated from the Company's continuing operations and reported as discontinued hotel operations.

A summary of the discontinued hotel operations for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2002 are presented below (in thousands):

As of June 2002, the Company completed the disposition of all four hotel properties it had previously designated as hotels held for sale.

The Company was a defendant in two lawsuits regarding guaranties of certain obligations of the Holiday Inn and Embassy Suites hotels. In February 2003, the Company settled both matters. The Company agreed (i) to pay $150,000 in cash and to issue a non-interest bearing promissory note in the amount of $250,000 payable in equal monthly installments over eighteen months, in exchange for a full release regarding the Embassy Suites hotel and (ii) to pay $250,000 in cash in exchange for a full release regarding the Holiday Inn hotel. In December 2002, the Company recorded an additional loss provision in the amount of $247,000 to fully accrue for these two litigation matters. Comparisons are generally not meaningful due to the disposition of the Company's two full-service hotel properties in 2001 and two limited service hotel properties in 2002.

Revenues. In January 2002, with assistance and consent of the mortgage lender, the Company sold the GuestHouse Suites hotel in Tulsa, Oklahoma for $3,000,000. The Company received no cash proceeds from the sale. In connection with the sale, the parties entered into a loan modification and assumption agreement, which included a release that discharges the Company from any further loan obligation associated with the Tulsa hotel. The Company recognized a gain from extinguishment of debt of $2,552,000, before a deferred tax charge of $875,000, in the 2002 first quarter. In February 2002, the mortgage lender for the GuestHouse Suites hotel in Greenville, South Carolina obtained a court judgement of foreclosure. In connection with the foreclosure, the lender waived its right to a deficiency judgement against the Company and completed the foreclosure in June 2002. The Company recognized a gain from extinguishment of debt of $3,237,000, before a deferred tax charge of $925,000 in the 2002 second quarter.

In June 2001, the Company entered into a settlement agreement with the mezzanine lender whereby (i) the Company transferred to the lender the stock ownership of Hallwood Hotels-OKC, Inc., the entity that owned the Embassy Suites hotel and (ii) the mezzanine lender released the Company from its obligations under the first mortgage and the mezzanine loan. The Company reported a gain from extinguishment of debt of $316,000, before a deferred tax charge of $100,000 in connection with the settlement agreement.

Sales of $282,000 in 2002 decreased by $7,337,000 from the 2001 amount of $7,619,000 which decreased by $9,220,000, from the 2000 amount of $16,839,000, due to the February 2001 termination of the lease for the Longboat Key Holiday Inn and Suites hotel in Sarasota, Florida; and the dispositions of the Embassy Suites hotel in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma in June 2001, the Tulsa GuestHouse Suites hotel in January 2002, and the Greenville GuestHouse Suites hotel in June 2002.

Expenses. Hotel expenses were $2,669,000 for 2002, $9,319,000 for 2001, and $23,812,000 for 2000.

Operating expenses of $324,000 for 2002 decreased by $6,498,000, or 95%, from the 2001 amount of $6,822,000, which decreased by $7,924,000, or 54%, from the 2000 amount of $14,746,000. The decreases were primarily due to the aforementioned dispositions of the four hotels.

Interest expense of $183,000 for 2002 decreased by $1,665,000, or 90%, from the 2001 amount of $1,848,000, which decreased by $759,000, or 29%, from the 2000 amount of $2,607,000. Again, the decreases were due to the aforementioned dispositions.

The impairment of hotel assets of $935,000 in 2001 and $3,320,000 in 2000 were recorded to reduce the carrying values to their estimated fair values.

The litigation and other disposition costs principally relate to legal fees and other expenses in connection with the dispositions and the resolution of the two litigation matters discussed above, including a loss provision of $247,000 in the fourth quarter of 2002 for the settlement costs.

The deferred tax charge of $1,800,000 in 2002 is associated with the gains from extinguishment of debt. The deferred income tax benefit of $500,000 (net of the $100,000 deferred tax charge related to the disposition of the Embassy Suites hotel) in 2001 increased the deferred tax asset associated with the hotels held for sale to $1,800,000 in anticipation of debt extinguishment gains in 2002. The deferred income tax expense of $341,000 in 2000 was the result of the impairment charges in 2000.

Depreciation and amortization expense was not recorded in 2002 or 2001 due to the impairment charges and classification of the hotels as a discontinued operation. Depreciation and amortization expense was $2,683,000 for 2000.

DISCONTINUED OPERATIONS -- ENERGY

Revenues and Sale Transaction. In March 2001, the Company agreed to sell its investment in its Hallwood Energy affiliate, which represented the Company's energy operations, to Pure Resources II, an indirect subsidiary of Pure Resources, Inc., subject to Hallwood Energy's shareholder approval which was obtained in May 2001. The Company received $18,000,000 for the tender of its 1,440,000 shares of common stock of Hallwood Energy in May 2001 and recorded a gain of $8,725,000 from this transaction. Accordingly, the former energy operations have been segregated from the Company's continuing operations and reported as a single line item -- income from discontinued energy operations. A summary of its operations for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2002 are presented below:

The Company received an additional $7,250,000, pursuant to the terms of a noncompetition agreement, that was paid by Pure upon the completion of the merger in June 2001. The Company began amortizing the deferred revenue from the noncompetition agreement over a three-year period commencing June 2001. The amortization of $2,417,000 in 2002 and $1,410,000 in 2001 is reported in the "other" section of the statement of operations.

Under the noncompetition agreement, the Company agreed to refrain from taking certain actions without the prior written consent of Pure and Hallwood Energy. These covenants were made by the Company in consideration of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and the payment by Pure to the Company. For a period of three years after the effective date of the merger agreement, the Company will not, directly or indirectly, engage in oil and gas activities in certain geographic areas without the prior consent of Pure. Hallwood Energy was engaged in the development, exploration, acquisition and production of oil and gas properties. The Company also agreed to keep Hallwood Energy's confidential and proprietary information strictly confidential.

The equity income from the investment in Hallwood Energy represented the Company's 15% pro rata share of income available to common stockholders and amortization of negative goodwill. The 2001 amount reflects equity in Hallwood Energy's earnings through the May 2001 sale date.

The Company accounted for its investment in Hallwood Energy using the equity method of accounting, as the Company exercised significant influence over Hallwood Energy's operational and financial policies. The Company recorded its pro-rata share of Hallwood Energy's net income available to common stockholders, preferred dividends and amortization of negative goodwill as a single line item -- equity income from investments in Hallwood Energy.

Expenses. The Company recorded a net deferred federal income tax benefit of $672,000 in 2001, principally due to the utilization of the Company's NOL's associated with the gain on sale of its investment in Hallwood Energy, and state income tax expense of $100,000.

CUMULATIVE EFFECT OF CHANGES IN ACCOUNTING PRINCIPLES

SFAS No. 142 became effective January 1, 2002 and specifies that goodwill and some intangible assets will no longer be amortized but instead will be subject to periodic impairment testing. The effect of adopting SFAS No. 142 by the Company resulted in the recording of income from the cumulative effect of a change in accounting principle in the amount of $568,000, which represented the unamortized amount of negative goodwill associated with the Company's equity investment in HRP. In 2001, the Company recognized a loss from cumulative effect of Statement of Financial Accounting Standard No. 133 -- Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities ("SFAS No. 133"), in the amount of $40,000, from the recognition of the Company's pro rata share of HRP's loss from cumulative effect.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and judgments that affect the reported amounts of certain assets, liabilities, revenues, expenses, and related disclosures. Actual results may differ from these estimates under different assumptions or conditions.

In December 2001, the SEC requested that registrants identify "critical accounting policies" in Item 7 -- Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations. The SEC indicated that a "critical accounting policy" is one that is both important to the portrayal of an entity's financial condition and results and requires management's most difficult, subjective or complex judgments, often as a result of the need to make estimates about the effect of matters that are inherently uncertain. The Company believes that the following of its accounting policies fit this description:

Revenue Recognition -- Fee income from real estate operations is recognized as the services (e.g. management, leasing, acquisition, construction) are performed in accordance with various service agreements. The Company records a non-cash adjustment for the elimination of intercompany profits associated with leasing and construction supervision fees earned from HRP to the extent of their 22% ownership interest in HRP. Such intercompany profits are deferred and amortized to income over the term of the related leases and the depreciable lives of property improvements as recorded by HRP.

Textile products sales are recognized upon shipment or release of product, when title passes to the customer. Brookwood provides allowances for expected cash discounts, returns, claims and doubtful accounts based upon historical bad debt and claims experience and periodic evaluation of the aging of accounts receivable. If the financial condition of Brookwood's customers were to deteriorate, resulting in an impairment of their ability to make payments, additional allowances would be required.

On occasion, Brookwood receives written instructions from some of its customers to finish fabric, invoice the full amount and hold the finished inventory until the customer sends shipping instructions. In those cases, Brookwood records the sale and sends the customer an invoice containing normal and usual payment terms and segregates the inventory from Brookwood's inventory.

Equity Method of Accounting -- The Company accounts for its investments in HRP and HEC, using the equity method of accounting. The Company owns approximately 22% of HRP and 28% of HEC as of December 31, 2002, respectively. The equity method is used because the Company has the ability to exercise significant influence over the operating and financial policies of each entity. The Company records its pro rata share of each entity's net income (loss) adjusted for certain items, such as the elimination of intercompany profits, as well as a pro rata share of partners' capital and stockholders' equity transactions and comprehensive income.

Impairment of Long-Lived Assets -- The Company's management routinely reviews its investments for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. Unforeseen events and changes in circumstances and market conditions could negatively affect the fair value of assets and result in an impairment charge. In the event such indicators exist for assets held for use, if undiscounted cash flows before interest charges are less than carrying value, the asset is written down to estimated fair value. For assets held for sale, these assets are carried at the lower of cost or estimated sales price less costs of sale. Fair value is the amount at which the asset could be bought or sold in a current transaction between willing parties and may be estimated using a number of techniques, including quoted market prices or valuations by third parties, present value techniques based on estimates of cash flows, or multiples of earnings or revenues performance measures. The fair value of the asset could be different using different estimates and assumptions in these valuation techniques. Significant assumptions used in this process depend upon the nature of the investment, but would include an evaluation of the future business opportunities, sources of competition, advancement of technology and its impact on patents and processes, future rental and occupancy rates, and the level of expected operating expenses.

Inventories -- Inventories at the Brookwood subsidiary are valued at the lower of cost (first-in, first-out or specific identification method) or market. Inventories are reviewed and adjusted for changes in market value based on assumptions related to future demand and worldwide and local market conditions. If actual demand and market conditions vary from those projected by management, adjustments to lower of cost or market value may be required.

The policies listed are not intended to be a comprehensive list of all of our accounting policies. In most cases, the accounting treatment of a particular transaction is specifically dictated by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, with no need for management's judgment in the application. There are also areas in which management's judgment in selecting any available alternative would not produce a materially different result than those recorded and reported.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

The Company's cash position decreased by $1,629,000 during 2002 to $1,377,000 as of December 31, 2002. The principal source of cash during the year was $6,676,000 provided by operating activities. The principal uses of cash were $3,500,000 for the HEC investment, $1,950,000 for textile products machinery, equipment and capital items and $2,719,000 for net repayment of bank borrowings and loans payable.

The Company principally operates in the real estate and textile products business segments. During 2002, the Company reentered the energy business as a minority owner in HEC.

The Company's real estate segment generates funds principally from its property management and leasing activities without significant additional capital costs. The Company has pledged 300,397 of its HRP limited partnership units and the interest in its real estate subsidiaries to collateralize the Term Loan and Revolving Credit Facility, described below, and the remaining 30,035 HRP units to secure all of the capital leases. Each quarter, Hallwood Realty reviews HRP's capacity to make cash distributions to its partners. No distributions were declared by HRP in 2002.

The Company's textile products segment generates funds from the dyeing and finishing of fabrics and their sale to customers in the consumer, industrial, medical and military markets. Brookwood maintains a revolving line of credit facility and separate acquisition and equipment facilities. All facilities have a maturity of January 2004. At December 31, 2002, Brookwood had $4,365,000 of unused borrowing capacity on its revolving line of credit facility. In the years ended December 31, 2002, 2001 and 2000, Brookwood paid to the Company, payments of $250,000, $-0- and $200,000, respectively, under its tax sharing agreement but no cash dividends. Future cash dividends and tax sharing payments to the parent company are contingent upon Brookwood's compliance with the covenants contained in the credit facility. Brookwood was in compliance with its loan covenants for all interim periods in 2002, except for the quarter ended December 31, 2002, when it did not meet its minimum net income loan covenant. The covenant, which required a minimum net income of $1,500,000, was not met as Brookwood's net income was $1,436,000. Brookwood obtained a waiver for this violation from the lender, and believes that it will be in compliance with all of its covenants for 2003.

In March 2002, the Company and its HWG, LLC subsidiary entered into a $7,000,000 credit agreement with First Bank & Trust, N.A. The facility is comprised of a $3,000,000 term loan and a $4,000,000 revolving credit facility (the "Term Loan and Revolving Credit Facility"). The term loan proceeds were used in part to repay the aforementioned $1,500,000 convertible loan from stockholder in March 2002, bears interest at a fixed rate of 7%, matures April 1, 2005 and is fully amortizing requiring a monthly payment of $92,631. The revolving credit facility bears interest at the Company's option of one-half percent over the prime rate, or Libor plus 3.25%, and matures April 1, 2005. Collateral for the Term Loan and Revolving Credit Facility is 300,397 HRP limited partner units. The credit agreement contains various financial and non-financial covenants, including the maintenance of financial ratios, restrictions on new indebtedness and the payment of dividends. The Company was in compliance with the loan covenants for all periods during the year and as of December 31, 2002. The Company borrowed $500,000 under this Revolving Credit Facility in December 2002 and $800,000 in March 2003, and therefore has $2,700,000 of unused borrowing capacity.

In July 2001, the Delaware Court of Chancery rendered its opinion regarding certain litigation involving the Company. The court determined that the defendants, including the Company, should pay to HRP a judgment of $3,417,000 plus pre-judgment interest of approximately $2,988,000. The court's judgment is not final until all rehearings and appeals have been exhausted. In August 2001, the plaintiff and certain defendants appealed the Court of Chancery's judgment to the Delaware Supreme Court. In October 2001, with a portion of the proceeds from the sale of its Hallwood Energy investment, the Company paid HRP $6,405,000, including post-judgment interest, subject to an arrangement that it be returned in full or part if the judgment is modified or reversed on appeal. As further discussed in Note 18, the Supreme Court reversed the trial court's determination of damages, and remanded the case to the trial court to fashion appropriate relief. Preliminary hearings have been held and a further hearing on the remand is scheduled for May 2003, with a decision by the Court of Chancery to follow. Since the appellate court reversed the judgement, any subsequent ruling by the trial court on remand may be more or less favorable to the Company.

The Company tendered its 1,440,000 shares of common stock in Hallwood Energy, pursuant to a tender offer and merger agreement with a subsidiary of Pure announced in March 2001 and completed in May 2001. The Company received $18,000,000 for the tender of its shares in May 2001 and received an additional $7,250,000, pursuant to the terms of a noncompetition agreement upon completion of the merger in June 2001. The former Senior Secured Term Loan, with a remaining balance of $14,059,000, was fully repaid in May 2001 with a portion of the proceeds from the sale.

In February 2000, Brookwood, through a wholly owned subsidiary, acquired the assets of a company in a textile products-related industry. The purchase price was $1,479,000 in cash plus contingent payments of up to $3,000,000, based on specified levels of earnings over the next four years. Effective December 31, 2001, in consideration of thirty six monthly payments aggregating approximately $375,000, the contingent obligation had been reduced to a percentage of cash flow from the acquired subsidiaries, as defined, for the remaining years under the agreement. As of December 31, 2002, no amounts have been paid or were owed in relation to the contingency payments.

In accordance with the Separation Agreement, the Company has an obligation to pay a trust related to a former officer and director 20% of the net cash flow from the Company's real estate activities, up to $500,000 per year. These future cash payments are subject to termination or extinguishment in certain events. The Company has an option extinguish the future cash payments to the trust at any time prior to its expiration in December 2004 upon the payment of $3,000,000.

During 2003 debt obligations in the amount of $2,326,000 are due, primarily composed of $824,000 debt at Brookwood and $980,000 from the Secured Term Loan and Revolving Credit Facility. In January 2004, the Brookwood revolving and acquisition facilities, with a balance of $11,000,000 at December 31, 2002, mature. The Company intends to extend or refinance these facilities prior to their maturity.

In accordance with its plan to dispose of its hotel segment, the Company completed the disposition of its hotels held for sale in 2002 and did not receive any amounts in excess of the debt outstanding on the properties; however, all non-recourse debt associated with the properties has been extinguished. At December 31, 2002, the Company continues to operate one leased hotel, located in Huntsville, Alabama, which has been classified as hotel held of use. The capital lease obligations are collateralized by 30,035 HRP units. The lease payments are being made by the Company for the leases on the two properties that were disposed of in 2002. Payments on the capital leases, which expire in December 2004, are current.

The Company has outstanding contingencies and commitments of approximately $18,954,000, principally associated with a $13,118,000 subscription obligation of Hallwood Realty to HRP and operating lease commitments of $5,836,000.

The Company's ability to generate cash flow from operations sufficient to make scheduled payments on its debts as they become due will depend on its future performance and its ability to successfully implement business and growth strategies. The Company's performance will also be affected by prevailing economic conditions and the resolution of pending legal matters. Many of these factors are beyond the Company's control. If future cash flows and capital resources are insufficient to meet the Company's debt obligations and commitments, it may be forced to reduce or delay activities and capital expenditures, obtain additional equity capital beyond what is required under its current credit facilities or restructure or refinance its debt. In the event that the Company is unable to do so, it may be left without sufficient liquidity and it may not be able to meet its debt service requirements. The Company believes it can generate sufficient revenues and/or borrow on its credit facilities to meet its liquidity needs. See Notes 5 and 6 to the Company's consolidated financial statements for a further discussion of the Company's loan and debenture obligations.

SPECIAL PURPOSE ENTITIES

The Company has, in certain situations, created a Special Purpose Entity ("SPE"). These SPE's were formed to hold title to specific assets and accomplish various objectives. In 1998, the Company formed several SPEs to complete a consolidation of its real estate assets into a new structure to facilitate possible financing opportunities. In other situations, SPEs were formed at the request of lenders for the express purpose of strengthening the collateral for the loans by isolating (for Federal bankruptcy law purposes) the assets and liabilities of the SPEs. In all cases and since their various formation dates, these wholly-owned entities (including their assets, liabilities and results of operations) have been fully consolidated into the financial statements of the Company.

NEW ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 142 -- Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets ("SFAS No. 142") became effective January 1, 2002 and specifies that goodwill and some intangible assets will no longer be amortized but instead will be subject to periodic impairment testing. The effect of adopting SFAS No. 142 had an impact on the Company's financial statements to the extent that the unamortized amount of negative goodwill associated with the Company's equity investment in HRP was accounted for as a cumulative effect adjustment.

Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 143 -- Accounting for Asset Retirement Obligations ("SFAS No. 143") was issued in June 2001, and was adopted by the Company on January 1, 2003. This Statement addresses financial accounting and reporting for obligations associated with the retirement of tangible long-lived assets and the associated asset retirement costs. The Company has no such obligations as of December 31, 2002.

Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 144 -- Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-lived Assets ("SFAS No. 144") was issued in August 2001, and was adopted by the Company on January 1, 2002. This Statement supersedes Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 121 -- Accounting for the Impairment of Long-lived Assets and for Long-lived Assets to Be Disposed Of ("SFAS No. 121"), and the accounting and reporting provisions of APB Opinion No. 30, Reporting the Results of Operations -- Reporting the Effects of Disposal of a Segment of a Business, and Extraordinary, Unusual and Infrequently Occurring Events and Transactions, for the disposal of a segment of a business (as previously defined in that Opinion). This statement retains the requirements of SFAS No. 121 to (a) recognize an impairment loss only if the carrying amount of a long-lived asset is not recoverable from its undiscounted cash flows and (b) measure an impairment loss as the difference between the carrying amount and fair value of the asset. This statement requires that a long-lived asset to be abandoned, exchanged for a similar productive asset, or distributed to owners in a spinoff be considered held and used until it is disposed of. The accounting model for long-lived assets to be disposed of by sale is used for all long-lived assets, whether previously held and used or newly acquired. The accounting model retains the requirement of SFAS No. 121 to measure a long-lived asset classified as held for sale at the lower of its carrying amount or fair value less cost to sell and to cease depreciation. This statement requires that the current and historical results of operations of disposed properties and assets classified as held for sale, are classified as discontinued operations. This will result in the reclassification of historical operations for property dispositions or assets classified as held for sale that occur. The Company early adopted the requirements of this statement and accordingly, the hotel assets disposed of or to be disposed of were reclassified into discontinued operations for each of the years presented.

Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 145 -- Rescission of FASB Statements No. 4, 44 and 64, Amendment of FASB Statement No. 13, and Technical Corrections ("SFAS No. 145") was issued in May 2002 and is effective for fiscal years beginning and transactions occurring after May 15, 2002. This statement rescinds certain authoritative pronouncements and amends, clarifies or describes the applicability of others. One of its provisions requires the reclassification of previously reported extraordinary gains (losses) from early extinguishment of debt into continuing operations. The Company elected to early adopt SFAS No. 145 as of December 31, 2002, and, accordingly, has reclassified extraordinary gains (losses) from debt extinguishment of debt into continuing operations. The portion of the previously reported extraordinary gain (loss) which represented the Company's pro-rata share of an extraordinary gain (loss) reported by HRP, was reclassified to "Equity income (loss) from investments in HRP". The remaining amount was reclassified to "Loss from debt extinguishment". The reclassification had no effect on previously reported net income (loss).

Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 146 -- Accounting for Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities ("SFAS No. 146") was issued in June 2002, and will be effective for exit or disposal activities subsequent to December 31, 2002. This statement addresses financial accounting and reporting of costs associated with exit or disposal activities. The Company anticipates no material impact on its financial statements from the adoption of SFAS No. 146

Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 148 -- Accounting for Stock Based Compensation -- Transition and Disclosure, an Amendment of FASB Statement ("SFAS No. 148") was issued in December 2002. This statement provides new transition methods if an entity adopts the fair value based method of valuing stock-based compensation suggested in SFAS No. 123, as well as requiring additional disclosures in interim and annual financial statements. At this time, the Company expects that the impact will be limited to additional disclosure requirements.

In November 2002, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Interpretation No. 45 -- Guarantor's Accounting and Disclosure Requirements for Guarantees, Including Indirect Guarantees of Indebtedness of Others ("FIN 45"). FIN 45 requires that the guarantor recognize, at the inception of certain guarantees, a liability for the fair value of the obligation undertaken in issuing such guarantee. FIN 45 also requires additional disclosure about the guarantor's obligations undertaken in issuing such guarantee. FIN 45 also requires additional disclosure about the guarantor's obligations under certain guarantees that it previously issued. As of December 31, 2002, the Company had no such guarantees.

In January 2003, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Interpretation No. 46 -- Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities ("FIN 46"). This interpretation of Accounting Research Bulletin No. 51, "Consolidated Financial Statements," applies immediately to variable interest entities created after January 31, 2003 and applies to the first period beginning after June 15,

Edgar Filing: HALLWOOD GROUP INC - Form 10-K

2003 to entities acquired before February 1, 2003. While it has not fully completed its process of determining the impact of the adoption of this interpretation, FIN 46 requires the Company to disclose information about a variable interest entity if it is reasonably possible that the Company will consolidate or disclose information about the variable interest entity upon adoption of the interpretation. The Company has two entities which are currently accounted for utilizing the equity method of accounting, HRP and HEC. Information including the relationship of the Company to HRP and HEC and certain summarized financial information are described Notes 2 and 3.

INFLATION

Inflation did not have a significant impact on the Company in 2002, 2001 and 2000, and is not anticipated to have a material impact in 2003.

ITEM 7(A). QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

The Company has no foreign operations, and it does not enter into financial instrument transactions for trading or other speculative purposes.

The Company's real estate division through its investment in HRP will sometimes use derivative financial instruments to achieve a desired mix of fixed versus floating rate debt. As of December 31, 2002, HRP had an interest cap agreement for one of its mortgage loans, which will limit HRP's exposure to changing interest rates to a maximum of 10%. The Company's management does not consider the portion attributable to the Company to be significant.

The Company is exposed to market risk due to fluctuations in interest rates. The Company utilizes both fixed and variable rate debt to finance its operations. The table below presents principal cash flows and related weighted average interest rates of the Company's fixed rate and variable rate debt at December 31, 2002 (in thousands):

DEBT CLASSIFICATION	EXPECTED MATURITIES AS OF DECEMBER 31,						FAIR VALUE
	2003	2004	2005	2006	2007	TOTAL
Fixed Rate.....	$1,983	$ 2,106	$7,136	$ 180	$ 97	$11,502	$11,130
Average Interest Rate.....	9.05%	9.24%	9.55%	4.90%	4.78%
Variable Rate.....	$ 343	$11,253	$ 500	--	--	$12,096	$12,096
Average Interest Rate.....	4.56%	4.57%	4.75%	--	--

There is inherent rollover risk for borrowings as they mature and are renewed at current market rates. The extent of this risk is not quantifiable or predictable because of the variability of future interest rates and the Company's future financing requirements. A hypothetical increase in interest rates of one percentage point would cause a loss in income and cash flows of approximately $236,000 during 2003, assuming that outstanding debt remained at current levels.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

In the interest of providing stockholders and debentureholders with certain information regarding the Company's future plans and operations, certain statements set forth in this Form 10-K relate to management's future plans, objectives and expectations. Such statements are forward-looking statements. Although any forward-looking statement expressed by or on behalf of the Company is, to the knowledge and in the judgment of the officers and directors, expected to prove true and come to pass, management is not able to predict the future with absolute certainty. Forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks and uncertainties, which may cause the Company's actual performance and financial results in future periods to differ materially from any projection, estimate or forecasted result. Among others, these risks and uncertainties include, the ability to obtain financing or refinance maturing debt; a potential oversupply of commercial office buildings and industrial parks in the markets served; fees for leasing, construction and acquisition of real estate properties; lease and rental rates and occupancy levels obtained; the ability to compete successfully with foreign textile production and the ability to generate new products. These risks and uncertainties are difficult or impossible to predict accurately and many are beyond the control of the Company. Other risks and uncertainties are described in Item 1 and may be described, from time to time, in the Company's periodic reports and filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Edgar Filing: HALLWOOD GROUP INC - Form 10-K

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Stockholders and Directors of
The Hallwood Group Incorporated

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheets of The Hallwood Group Incorporated and its subsidiaries as of December 31, 2002 and 2001, and the related consolidated statements of operations, comprehensive income (loss), changes in stockholders' equity and cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2002. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based upon our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, such consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of The Hallwood Group Incorporated and its subsidiaries as of December 31, 2002 and 2001, and the results of their operations and their cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2002, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

As discussed in Note 1 to the consolidated financial statements under the caption "Depreciation and Amortization", the Company changed its method of accounting for goodwill in 2002 as required by Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 142, Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets.

THE HALLWOOD GROUP INCORPORATED AND SUBSIDIARIES

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE 1 -- ORGANIZATION AND SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The Hallwood Group Incorporated ("Hallwood" or the "Company") (AMEX:HWG), a Delaware corporation, is a holding company and classifies its primary operations into two business segments: real estate and textile products. Financial information for each industry segment is set forth in Note 19 to the consolidated financial statements. In May 2001, the Company decided to discontinue and dispose of its energy segment, accordingly, this former business segment was reclassified as a discontinued operation. The Company's energy revenues consisted of its pro rata share of earnings of Hallwood Energy Corporation ("Hallwood Energy"), a publicly traded oil and gas company, on the equity method of accounting. In December 2000, the Company decided to discontinue and dispose of its hotel segment, which at that time consisted of five hotel properties. Accordingly, the Company's hotel operations were reclassified as a discontinued operation. Two hotels were disposed of in 2001 and two hotels were disposed of in 2002. The Company determined in late 2001 that it would retain and continue to operate a leasehold interest in one hotel. Balance sheet presentation for the two remaining hotels which were disposed of in 2002 is "hotels held for sale" and for the leasehold interest is "hotel assets held for use."

Real estate activities are conducted primarily through wholly-owned subsidiaries. One of the subsidiaries serves as the general partner of Hallwood Realty Partners, L.P. ("HRP"), a publicly traded master limited partnership. Revenues are generated through the Company's pro rata share of earnings of HRP on the equity method of accounting and the receipt of management fees, leasing commissions and other fees from HRP and third parties.

Textile products operations are conducted through the Company's wholly owned Brookwood Companies Incorporated ("Brookwood") subsidiary. Brookwood is an integrated textile service firm that develops and produces innovative fabrics and related products through specialized finishing, treating and coating processes.

The Company fully consolidates all subsidiaries and records a minority interest in those less than wholly owned. All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

RECOGNITION OF INCOME

Fee income from real estate operations is recognized as the services (e.g. management, leasing, acquisition, construction) are performed in accordance with various service agreements. The Company records a non-cash adjustment for the elimination of intercompany profits associated with leasing and construction supervision fees earned from HRP to the extent of their 22% ownership interest in HRP. Such intercompany profits are deferred and amortized to income over the depreciable term of the related leases and property improvements as recorded by HRP.

Textile products sales are recognized upon shipment or release of product, when title passes to the customer. Brookwood provides allowances for expected cash discounts, returns, claims and doubtful accounts based upon historical bad debt and claims experience and periodic evaluation of the aging of accounts receivable. If the financial condition of Brookwood's customers were to deteriorate, resulting in an impairment of their ability to make payments, additional allowances may be required.

On occasion, Brookwood receives written instructions from some of its customers to finish fabric, invoice the full amount and hold the finished inventory until the customer sends shipping instructions. In those cases, Brookwood records the sale and sends the customer an invoice containing normal and usual payment terms and segregates the inventory from Brookwood's inventory.

Reclassifications, including a gross-up for construction and facilities management expenses that were previously netted against revenues, have been made in the prior-year amounts to conform to the classifications used in the current year. The reclassifications occurred due to the adoption of EITF No. 01-14 -- "Income Statement Characterization of Reimbursements Received for Out-of-Pocket Expenses Incurred. The reclassifications had no effect on previously reported net income or loss.

CARRYING VALUE OF INVESTMENTS AND REAL ESTATE

Common shares and other securities are recorded at fair value determined as of the date acquired. Thereafter, equity accounting is utilized where the Company exercises significant influence over the issuer's operating and financial policies.

Real estate is carried at cost, including interest costs associated with properties under development or renovation.

INVESTMENT IN FORMER ENERGY AFFILIATE

The Company utilized the equity method of accounting for its former Hallwood Energy affiliate, since the Company exercised significant influence over the operations and financial policies of the entity.

45

IMPAIRMENT

The Company's management reviews its investments for impairment losses when events and circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. In the event such indicators exist for assets held for use, and if undiscounted cash flows before interest charges are less than carrying value, the asset is written down to estimated fair value. Assets held for sale are carried at the lower of cost or estimated sales price less costs of sale.

DEPRECIATION AND AMORTIZATION

Depreciation of fee-owned hotel properties was computed on the straight-line method over a period of 20 to 25 years for buildings, 5 to 20 years for improvements, and 3 to 10 years for furniture and equipment. The Company completed the disposition of its fee-owned hotels in 2002. Depreciation and amortization of the hotels held for sale were discontinued in January 2001. Amortization of hotel leasehold interests was computed on the straight-line method over the remaining lease term and varies from 6 to 10 years. The one remaining leasehold interest, which had earlier been written down to a new cost basis at December 31, 2000, is being amortized on the straight line basis over 4

The excess of the Company's share of the underlying equity in the net assets of Hallwood Realty Partners, L.P. ("HRP") over its investment was amortized on a straight line basis over a period of 19 years. Such amortization was discontinued, effective January 1, 2002, upon the adoption of SFAS No. 142. The effect of adopting SFAS No. 142 resulted in the recording of income from cumulative effect of a change in accounting principle of $568,000, which represented the unamortized amount of negative goodwill associated with the Company's equity investment in HRP.

Depreciation of textile products buildings, equipment and improvements is computed on the straight-line method. Buildings and improvements are depreciated over a period of 15 to 20 years. Equipment is depreciated over a period of 3 to 10 years.

INCOME TAXES

The Company files a consolidated federal income tax return. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recorded based on the difference between the tax basis of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts for financial reporting purposes, referred to as temporary differences, net operating loss carryforwards and tax credits reduced by a valuation allowance. Provision is made for deferred taxes relating to temporary differences in the recognition of income and expense for financial reporting.

INVENTORIES

Inventories are valued at the lower of cost (first-in, first-out or specific identification method) or market.

CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

The Company considers highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less at the time of purchase to be cash equivalents.

ENVIRONMENTAL REMEDIATION COSTS

The Company accrues for losses associated with environmental remediation obligations when such losses are probable and can be reasonably estimated. Accruals for estimated losses from environmental remediation obligations generally are recognized no later than completion of the remedial feasibility study. Such accruals are adjusted as further information develops or circumstances change. Recoveries of environmental remediation costs from other parties are recorded as assets when their receipt is deemed probable. Company management is not aware of any environmental remediation obligations which would significantly affect the operations, financial position or cash flow of the Company.

COMMON STOCK

The Company's Second Restated Certificate of Incorporation contains a provision that restricts transfers of the Company's common stock in order to protect certain federal income tax benefits.

Edgar Filing: HALLWOOD GROUP INC - Form 10-K

EQUITY-BASED COMPENSATION

Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123 -- Accounting for Stock-Based Compensations ("SFAS No. 123") establishes a method of accounting whereby recognized option pricing models are used to estimate the fair value of equity-based compensation, including options. The Company has adopted the disclosure-only provisions of SFAS No. 123. Accordingly, no compensation cost has been recognized for the options. Refer to Note 10 for a discussion of the difference between the historical operations and pro forma operations for the three years ended December 31, 2002, had the expense provisions of SFAS No. 123 been adopted.

COMPREHENSIVE INCOME

Comprehensive income items are revenues, expenses, gains and losses that under accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America that are excluded from current period results and reflected as a component of stockholders' equity. The Company recorded a pro-rata share of comprehensive income items reported by its investments accounted for using the equity method of accounting.

USE OF ESTIMATES

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect reported amounts of certain assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses as of and for the reporting periods. Actual results may differ from such estimates.

CONCENTRATION OF CREDIT RISK

The financial instruments of its wholly-owned subsidiaries, which potentially subject the Company to concentration of credit risk, consist principally of accounts receivable. The Company grants credit to customers based on an evaluation of the customer's financial condition. Exposure to losses on receivables is principally dependent on each customer's financial condition. The Company controls its exposure to credit risks through credit approvals, credit limits and monitoring procedures and the use of factors.

DERIVATIVES

The Company accounts for derivative instruments in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 133 -- Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities ("SFAS No. 133"). The Company does not directly have any derivative instruments, however HRP does and Hallwood Energy did have such instruments. Accordingly, the Company records its proportional share of any impact of these instruments in accordance with the equity method of accounting.

HRP has one derivative, an interest rate cap. Since this derivative was designated as a cash flow hedge, changes in the fair value of the derivative, are recognized in other comprehensive income until the hedged item is recognized in earnings. Hedge effectiveness is measured based on the relative changes in the fair value between the derivative contract and the hedged item over time. Any changes in fair value resulting from ineffectiveness, as defined by SFAS No. 133, are recognized immediately in current earnings.

Edgar Filing: HALLWOOD GROUP INC - Form 10-K

Hallwood Energy determined that all of its oil and gas commodity swaps and collars, as well as its interest rate swaps should be designated as cash flow hedges. Since Hallwood Energy's derivatives were designated as cash flow hedges, changes in the fair value of the derivatives were recognized in other comprehensive income until the hedged item was recognized in earnings. Hedge effectiveness was measured based on the relative changes in the fair value between the derivative contract and the hedged item over time. Any changes in fair value resulting from ineffectiveness, as defined by SFAS No. 133, were recognized immediately in current earnings. The Company realized its pro-rata share of Hallwood Energy's accumulated other comprehensive income upon the disposition of its Hallwood Energy investment in May 2001.

COMPUTATION OF INCOME (LOSS) PER COMMON SHARE

Basic income (loss) per share was computed by dividing net income (loss) available to common stockholders by the weighted average shares outstanding.

Income (loss) per common share assuming dilution was computed by dividing net income (loss) available to common stockholders, adjusted for the interest expense (net of tax) of the convertible loan, by the weighted average of shares and potential shares outstanding.

Convertible loans are considered to be potential common shares when the Company reports income from continuing operations. The number of potential common shares from assumed loan conversion is computed using the "if-converted method" for the period during which the loans are outstanding. Stock options are considered to be potential common shares. The number of potential common shares from assumed exercise of options is computed using the "treasury stock method."

The following table reconciles the Company's income (loss) from continuing operations to income (loss) from continuing operations available to common stockholders—assuming dilution, and the number of common shares used in the calculation for the basic and assuming dilution methods (in thousands):

	YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31,
	-----	-----	-----
INCOME (LOSS) AVAILABLE TO COMMON STOCKHOLDERS
Income (loss) from continuing operations.....	$3,392	$ (5,465)	$ (720)

	=====	=====	=====

Due to the loss from continuing operations in 2001 and 2000, potential shares from assumed loan conversions of 456,000 and 155,000, respectively, were anti-dilutive.

RECLASSIFICATIONS

Certain reclassifications have been made to prior year amounts to conform to the classifications used in the current year.

48

NEW ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 142 -- Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets ("SFAS No. 142") became effective January 1, 2002 and specifies that goodwill and some intangible assets will no longer be amortized but instead will be subject to periodic impairment testing. The effect of adopting SFAS No. 142 had an impact on the Company's financial statements to the extent that the unamortized amount of negative goodwill associated with the Company's equity investment in HRP was accounted for as a cumulative effect adjustment.

Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 143 -- Accounting for Asset Retirement Obligations ("SFAS No. 143") was issued in June 2001, and was adopted by the Company on January 1, 2003. This Statement addresses financial accounting and reporting for obligations associated with the retirement of tangible long-lived assets and the associated asset retirement costs. The Company has no such obligations as of December 31, 2002.

Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 144 -- Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-lived Assets ("SFAS No. 144") was issued in August 2001, and was adopted by the Company on January 1, 2002. This Statement supersedes SFAS No. 121, "Accounting for the Impairment of Long-lived Assets and for Long-lived Assets to Be Disposed Of", and the accounting and reporting provisions of APB Opinion No. 30, "Reporting the Results of Operations -- Reporting the Effects of Disposal of a Segment of a Business, and Extraordinary, Unusual and Infrequently Occurring Events and Transactions", for the disposal of a segment of a business (as previously defined in that Opinion). This statement retains the requirements of SFAS No. 121 to (a) recognize an impairment loss only if the carrying amount of a long-lived asset is not recoverable from its undiscounted cash flows and (b) measure an impairment loss as the difference between the carrying amount and fair value of the asset. This statement requires that a long-lived asset to be abandoned, exchanged for a similar productive asset, or distributed to owners in a spinoff be considered held and used until it is disposed of. The accounting model for long-lived assets to be disposed of by sale is used for all long-lived assets, whether previously held and used or newly acquired. The accounting model retains the requirement of SFAS No. 121 to measure a long-lived asset classified as held for sale at the lower of its carrying amount or fair value less cost to sell and to cease depreciation. This statement requires that the current and historical results of operations of disposed properties and assets classified as held for sale, are classified as discontinued operations. This will result in the reclassification of historical operations for property dispositions or assets classified as held for sale that occur. The Company early adopted the requirements of this statement and accordingly, the hotel assets disposed of or to be disposed of were reclassified into discontinued operations for each of the years presented.

Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 145 -- Rescission of FASB Statements No. 4, 44 and 64, Amendment of FASB Statement No. 13, and Technical Corrections ("SFAS No. 145") was issued in May 2002 and is effective for fiscal years beginning and transactions occurring after May 15, 2002. This statement

rescinds certain authoritative pronouncements and amends, clarifies or describes the applicability of others. One of its provisions requires the reclassification of previously reported extraordinary gains (losses) from early extinguishment of debt into continuing operations. The Company elected to early adopt SFAS No. 145 as of December 31, 2002, and, accordingly, has reclassified extraordinary gains (losses) from debt extinguishment of debt into continuing operations. The portion of the previously reported extraordinary gain (loss) which represented the Company's pro-rata share of an extraordinary gain (loss) reported by HRP, was reclassified to "Equity income (loss) from investments in HRP". The remaining amount was reclassified to "Loss from debt extinguishment". The reclassification had no effect on previously reported net income (loss).

Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 146 -- Accounting for Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities ("SFAS No. 146") was issued in June 2002, and will be effective for exit or disposal activities subsequent to December 31, 2002. This statement addresses financial accounting and reporting of costs associated with exit or disposal activities. The Company anticipates no material impact on its financial statements from the adoption of SFAS No. 146.

Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 148 -- Accounting for Stock Based Compensation -- Transition and Disclosure, an Amendment of FASB Statement ("SFAS No. 148") was issued in December 2002. This statement provides new transition methods if an entity adopts the fair value based method of valuing stock-based compensation suggested in SFAS No. 123, as well as requiring additional disclosures in interim and annual financial statements. At this time, the Company expects that the impact of SFAS No. 148 will be limited to additional disclosure requirements.

In November 2002, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Interpretation No. 45 -- Guarantor's Accounting and Disclosure Requirements for Guarantees, Including Indirect Guarantees of Indebtedness of Others ("FIN 45"). FIN 45 requires that the guarantor recognize, at the inception of certain guarantees, a liability for the fair value of the obligation undertaken in issuing such guarantee. FIN 45 also requires additional disclosure about the guarantor's obligations undertaken in issuing such guarantee. FIN 45 also requires additional disclosure about the guarantor's obligations under certain guarantees that it previously issued. As of December 31, 2002, the Company had no such guarantees.

In January 2003, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Interpretation No. 46 -- Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities ("FIN 46"). This interpretation of Accounting Research Bulletin No. 51, "Consolidated Financial Statements," applies immediately to variable interest entities created after January 31, 2003 and applies to the first period beginning after June 15, 2003 to entities acquired before February 1, 2003. While it has not fully completed its process of determining the impact of the adoption of this interpretation, FIN 46 requires the Company to disclose information about a variable interest entity if it is reasonably possible that the Company will consolidate or disclose information about the variable interest entity upon adoption of the interpretation. The Company has two entities which are currently accounted for utilizing the equity method of accounting, HRP and HEC. Information including the relationship of the Company to HRP and HEC and certain summarized financial information are described Notes 2 and 3.

The ownership percentages reported below assume conversion/exercise of all convertible securities owned by the Company, but no conversion/exercise of any of the convertible securities owned by any other holder of such securities.

At December 31, 2002, the Hallwood Realty, LLC ("Hallwood Realty") and HWG, LLC, wholly owned subsidiaries of the Company, owned a 1% general partner interest and a 21% limited partner interest in its Hallwood Realty Partners, L.P. ("HRP") affiliate, respectively.

In 1990, the Company, through a wholly owned subsidiary, acquired from Equitec Financial Group, Inc. ("Equitec") the general partnership interests in eight Equitec sponsored and managed limited partnerships for $8,650,000 and consummated the consolidation of such limited partnerships into HRP. See Note 14. The Company subsequently acquired additional limited partner units of HRP in direct and open market purchases. The Company accounts for its investment in HRP using the equity method of accounting. In addition to recording its share of HRP's net income (loss), the Company also records non-cash adjustments for the elimination of intercompany profits with a corresponding adjustment to equity income, its pro rata share of

HRP's partner capital transactions with corresponding adjustments to additional paid-in capital and its pro rata share of HRP's comprehensive income. The cumulative amount of such non-cash adjustments, from the original date of investment through December 31, 2002, resulted in a $1,795,000 decrease in the carrying value of the HRP investment. Prior to January 1, 2002, the Company recorded amortization of the amount that the Company's share of the underlying equity in net assets of HRP exceeded its investment on the straight line basis over nineteen years, which was $568,000 as of January 1, 2002. In accordance with SFAS No. 142, the unamortized amount of such "negative goodwill" was recorded as income from cumulative effect of a change in accounting principle on January 1, 2002. In 2001, the Company recognized a loss from cumulative effect of SFAS No. 133 adoption of $40,000, from the recognition of the Company's pro-rata share of HRP's loss from cumulative effect.

The carrying value of the Company's investment in the general partner interest of HRP includes the value of intangible rights to provide asset management and property management services. Beginning in November 1993, the Company commenced amortization, over a ten-year period, of that portion of the general partner interest ascribed to the management rights and such amortization was $672,000 for each of the years ended December 31, 2002, 2001 and 2000. At December 31, 2002, the unamortized cost remaining was $560,000.

As further discussed in Note 18, the Delaware Court of Chancery rendered its opinion regarding certain litigation involving the Company in July 2001. The court determined that the defendants, including the Company, should pay to HRP a judgment of $3,417,000 plus pre-judgment interest of approximately $2,893,000 from August 1995. The judgment amount, which represented the court's determination of an underpayment by the Company for certain limited partnership units purchased by the Company in 1995 from HRP, was considered additional purchase price and was added to the Company's investment in the limited partnership units. The interest component of the judgment was recorded as an expense, net of the Company's pro rata share of the income that will be reported by HRP. In October 2001, the Company paid $6,405,000, including post-judgment interest, to HRP, subject to an arrangement that it be returned in full or part if the judgment is modified or reversed on appeal.

The Company has pledged 300,397 HRP limited partner units to collateralize the Term Loan and Revolving Credit facility and the remaining 30,035 units to secure all of the capital leases.

The quoted market price per unit and the carrying value per limited partner unit (AMEX:HRV) at December 31, 2002 were $82.20 and $36.85, respectively. The general partner interest is not publicly traded.

The following table sets forth summarized financial data of Hallwood Realty Partners, L.P., obtained from Securities and Exchange Commission filings on Form 10-K, as of and for each of the three years ended December 31, 2002 (in thousands):

The Company owns approximately 28% of HEC. It accounts for the investment using the equity method of accounting and records its pro rata share of HEC's net income (loss), its pro rata share of HEC's stockholder's equity transactions and comprehensive income adjustments, if any.

During 2002, the Company invested $3,500,000 in a newly-formed, private energy company -- Hallwood Energy Corporation ("HEC"). HEC is presently in the developmental stage, having drilled seven test wells in the Barnett Shale Formation of Johnson County, Texas. After constructing an extensive gas gathering system, HEC commenced commercial production and sales from three of the seven wells in February 2003. In March 2003, a fourth well was placed in production, a fifth well was in the process of being completed and a sixth well was nearing completion of drilling operations. These two wells are expected to begin production in April 2003. One well, after numerous completion attempts, has been temporarily abandoned. HEC anticipates that it will drill at least six additional wells during the remainder of 2003. HEC holds oil and gas leases covering 32,254 and 28,329 gross and net acres, respectively, in Johnson and Hill Counties, Texas as of March 2003.

The following table sets forth summarized financial data of HEC as of and for the year ended December 31, 2002 (in thousands):

On March 21, 2003, the parties submitted to the Delaware Court of Chancery an agreed proposed Order and Judgment, which was signed by the Court and terminated the litigation. The Order and Judgment provided for payment out of the escrowed funds of approximately $547,000 to the noteholder and $437,000 to the Company. The Company received its share of the funds on March 31, 2003.

Revolving Credit Facility. The Company's Brookwood subsidiary has a revolving credit facility in an amount up to $17,000,000 with Key Bank National Association ("Key Credit Agreement"). Availability for direct borrowings and letter of credit obligations under the Key Credit Agreement are limited to the lesser of the facility amount or the borrowing base as defined in the agreement. Borrowings are collateralized by accounts receivable, inventory imported under trade letters of credit, certain finished goods inventory, machinery and equipment and all of the issued and outstanding capital stock of Brookwood and its subsidiaries.

The Key Credit Agreement has a maturity date of January 2, 2004, bears interest at Brookwood's option of prime plus 0.25% (4.50% and 5.75% at December 31, 2002 and 2001, respectively) or Libor + 3.25%, contains various covenants, including minimum net income levels by quarter, maintenance of certain financial ratios, restrictions on dividends and repayment of debt or cash transfers to the parent company. The outstanding balance at December 31, 2002 was $10,000,000.

Cash dividends and tax sharing payments to the parent company are contingent upon Brookwood's compliance with the covenants contained in the loan agreement. As of December 31, 2002, Brookwood had $4,365,000 of unused borrowing capacity.

Acquisition Credit Facility. The Key Credit Agreement provides for a $2,000,000 acquisition revolving credit line. Brookwood borrowed $1,000,000 under this line during 2001. This facility bears interest at one percent over the prime rate (5.25% and 5.75%, at December 31, 2002 and 2001, respectively). The outstanding balance at December 31, 2002 was $1,000,000.

Subordinated Secured Promissory Note. Brookwood was a 50% partner in Strategic Technical Alliance, LLC ("STA") with an unrelated third party until September 2002. In September 2002, STA purchased the shares owned by the unrelated third party partner, effectively making STA a wholly owned Brookwood subsidiary, and gave the seller a promissory note in the amount of $596,000. The note bears interest at the prime rate (4.25% at December 31, 2002), requires a quarterly payment of approximately $85,000 and is due in July 2004. The outstanding balance at December 31, 2002 was $596,000.

Equipment Credit Facility and Term Loans. The Key Credit Agreement provides for a $2,000,000 equipment revolving credit line. The facility bears interest at Libor plus 2.75 (4.13% and 4.18% at December 31, 2002 and 2001, respectively). In May 2000, Brookwood borrowed $1,000,000 under this credit line, which was converted into a term loan, at a fixed rate of 9.37%, with a maturity date of October 2005. In February and December 2002, Brookwood borrowed an additional $542,000 and $298,000 under this facility and converted those amounts into term loans, at fixed rates of 5.10% and 4.67%, with maturities of March and December 2007, respectively. Brookwood has $610,000 availability under this facility. The outstanding balance at December 31, 2002 was $1,390,000.

Subordinated Promissory Note. As part of the purchase price related to the acquisition of an entity in 2000, Brookwood gave the seller a $375,000 subordinated promissory note dated March 2002. The interest free note is fully amortizing over 36 months and has a maturity date of February 2005. The outstanding balance at December 31, 2002 was $261,000.

Loan Covenants. Brookwood was in compliance with its loan covenants for all interim periods during 2002, except for the quarter ended December 31, 2002, when it did not meet its minimum net income loan covenant. The covenant, which required a minimum net income of $1,500,000, was not met as Brookwood's net income for the year ended December 31, 2002 was $1,436,000. Brookwood obtained a waiver for this violation from the lender, and believes that it will be in compliance with all of its covenants for 2003.

OTHER

Term Loan and Revolving Credit Facility. In March 2002, the Company and its HWG, LLC subsidiary entered into a $7,000,000 credit agreement with First Bank & Trust, N.A. The facility is comprised of a $3,000,000 term loan and a $4,000,000 revolving credit facility (the "Term Loan and Revolving Credit Facility"). Term loan proceeds were used in part to repay the $1,500,000 convertible loan from stockholder discussed below. The term loan bears interest at a fixed rate of 7%, matures April 2005 and is fully amortizing requiring monthly payments of $92,631. The outstanding principal balance of the loan at December 31, 2002 was $2,317,000.

Edgar Filing: HALLWOOD GROUP INC - Form 10-K

The revolving credit facility bears interest at the Company's option of one-half percent over prime, or Libor plus 3.25%, and matures April 2005. In December 2002, the Company borrowed $500,000 under the facility, proceeds which were principally used to invest in the Company's HEC affiliate. The interest rate is 4.75% at December 31, 2002. The Company borrowed an additional $800,000 under the facility in March 2003 and therefore has $2,700,000 of unused borrowing capacity.

Collateral for the Term Loan and Revolving Credit Facility is 300,397 HRP limited partner units. The credit agreement contains various financial and non-financial covenants, including the maintenance of certain financial ratios, restrictions on certain new indebtedness and the payment of dividends.

Loan Covenants. At December 31, 2002, and during the interim 2002 periods, the Company was in compliance with its loan covenants under the Term Loan and Revolving Credit Facility.

Capital Lease Obligations. During 1999, the Company's Brock Suite Hotels subsidiaries entered into three separate five-year capital leasing agreements for furniture, fixtures and building improvements at a cost of $2,085,000 for three GuestHouse Suites Plus properties. The Company has pledged 30,035 HRP limited partner units as additional collateral to secure the leases. The lease terms commenced January 2000 and expire in December 2004. The combined monthly lease payment is $46,570 and the effective interest rate is 12.18%. Interest expense in the amount of $112,000, representing the full interest costs through expiration of the capital leases associated with the two disposed hotels, was accrued in the 2002 second quarter, as a reduction of gain from extinguishment of debt. The outstanding balance at December 31, 2002 was $1,066,000.

Convertible Loans from Stockholder. In order to provide sufficient funds to meet the Company's cash flow requirements and maintain compliance with the loan covenants contained in the former Senior Secured Term Loan, the Company entered into three loan agreements with an entity associated with its chairman and principal stockholder, Anthony J. Gumbiner. Two loans were repaid in December 2001 and the remaining loan was repaid in March 2002 in the amount of $1,648,000, which represented principal of $1,500,000 and accrued interest of $148,000.

Senior Secured Term Loan. In December 1999, the Company and its HWG, LLC subsidiary entered into an $18,000,000 credit agreement with First Bank Texas, N.A. and other financial institutions (the "Senior Secured Term Loan"). Proceeds were used to repay the then outstanding 7% Debentures, a term loan and provide working capital. The Senior Secured Term Loan bore interest at a fixed rate of 10.25%, was scheduled to mature in December 2004, was fully amortizing and required a monthly payment of $385,000. The Senior Secured Term Loan was fully repaid in May 2001 with a portion of the proceeds from the sale of the Company's investment in Hallwood Energy.

NOTE 6 -- 10% COLLATERALIZED SUBORDINATED DEBENTURES

The Company has outstanding an issue of 10% Collateralized Subordinated Debentures ("10% Debentures"), due July 31, 2005. The 10% Debentures are listed on The New York Stock Exchange. For financial reporting purposes, a pro rata portion of an unamortized gain in the original amount of $353,000 was allocated to the 10% Debentures from a previous debenture issue is being amortized over its term using the effective interest method. As a result, the effective interest rate is 8.9%. The 10% Debentures are secured by a junior lien on the capital stock of Brookwood. Balance sheet amounts are presented below (in thousands):

	=====	=====

As a result of certain hotel properties of the Company being placed into receivership, as further discussed in Note 7, the Company determined that a technical default occurred under the terms of the Indenture for the 10% Debentures. The Indenture provides that upon the occurrence of the default, the principal and accrued interest on the 10% Debentures shall automatically become due and payable. The trustee for the 10% Debentures, mailed a notice (the "Notice") to debentureholders in July 2001, informing the holders of the default. The Notice stated that the holders of a majority of the outstanding principal amount of the 10% Debentures, on behalf of all holders, may waive the default, rescind and annul the declaration of acceleration and its consequences. In October 2001, the Company announced that a solicitation of its bondholders, which began in September 2001, was completed and that bondholders consented to grant the waiver and rescind and annul the acceleration. The overdue interest was subsequently deposited with the Trustee and was paid in November 2001. The payment consisted of interest that was to have been paid in July 2001 and October 2001, which the Company was prohibited from paying by the Indenture during the default, together with default interest on these amounts at the rate of 10% per annum. The normal quarterly interest payments resumed in January 2002.

NOTE 7 -- DISCONTINUED OPERATIONS -- HOTELS

The Company's hotel segment experienced cash flow difficulties during 2000 due to weaker occupancy and average daily rates. In December 2000, the Company decided to discontinue and dispose of its hotel segment, principally by allowing its non-recourse debtholders to assume ownership of the properties through foreclosure or by selling or otherwise disposing of its hotel properties. The Company's former hotel segment consisted of three owned properties and two leased properties.

The Company determined that it would retain ownership of the leasehold interest in the GuestHouse Suites hotel in Huntsville, Alabama. The Company continues to operate the hotel, subject to a lease concession from the owner. Accordingly, this hotel has been classified as an asset held for use and operating results are reported within continuing operations. The carrying value of the leasehold interest was $221,000 and $331,000, at December 31, 2002 and 2001, respectively.

In February 2001, the Company signed an Agreement to Terminate Lease with the landlord of the Holiday Inn and Suites Hotel in Sarasota, Florida. In March 2001, receivers were appointed to administer the disposition of the GuestHouse Suites Plus hotel in Tulsa, Oklahoma and the Airport Embassy Suites Hotel in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, respectively.

In June 2001, the Company entered into a settlement agreement with the mezzanine lender whereby the Company transferred all of its capital stock of Hallwood Hotels -- OKC, Inc., the entity that owned the Embassy Suites hotel, to the mezzanine lender and obtained a release from its obligations under the first mortgage and the mezzanine loan. The Company reported a gain from extinguishment of debt of $316,000 before a deferred tax charge of $100,000.

In January 2002, with assistance and consent of the mortgage lender, the Company sold the GuestHouse Suites hotel in Tulsa, Oklahoma for $3,000,000. The Company received no cash proceeds from the sale; however, concurrently with the sale, it entered into a loan modification and assumption agreement, which included a release that discharge the Company from any further loan obligations. The Company recognized a gain from extinguishment of debt of $2,552,000, before a deferred tax charge of $875,000 in the 2002 first quarter.

In February 2002, the lender for the GuestHouse Suites hotel in Greenville, South Carolina obtained a court judgement of foreclosure. In connection with the foreclosure, the lender waived its right to a deficiency judgement against the Company and completed the foreclosure in June 2002. The Company recognized a gain from extinguishment of debt of $3,237,000, before a deferred tax charge of $925,000 in the 2002 second quarter.

In December 2002, the Company recorded an additional loss provision in the amount of $247,000 to fully accrue for these two litigation matters.

NOTE 8 -- DISCONTINUED OPERATIONS -- ENERGY

In March 2001, the Company agreed to sell its investment in its Hallwood Energy affiliate, which represented the Company's energy operations, to Pure Resources II, Inc., an indirect subsidiary of Pure Resources, Inc., subject to Hallwood Energy's shareholder approval which was obtained in May 2001. The Company received $18,000,000 for the tender of its 1,440,000 shares of common stock in May 2001 and received an additional amount of $7,250,000, pursuant to the terms of a noncompetition agreement that was paid by Pure upon the completion of the merger in June 2001.

Under the noncompetition agreement, the Company agreed to refrain from taking certain actions without the prior written consent of Pure and Hallwood Energy. These covenants were made by the Company in consideration of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and the payment by Pure to the Company. For a period of three years after the effective date of the merger agreement, the Company will not, directly or indirectly, engage in oil and gas activities in certain geographic areas without the prior consent of Pure. The Company also agreed to keep Hallwood Energy's confidential and proprietary information strictly confidential.

Accordingly, energy operations have been segregated from the Company's continuing operations and reported as discontinued operations. A summary of the income from discontinued energy operations is detailed below (in thousands):

Energy's operational and financial policies. The Company's share of the underlying equity in net assets of Hallwood Energy exceeded its investment by $4,391,000, which was being amortized at a rate which approximated the depletion rate of Hallwood Energy's reserves. In addition to recording its share of Hallwood Energy's net income available to common stockholders, the Company also recorded its preferred dividends prior to the February 2000 sale of its preferred stock. The Company also recorded its pro rata share of any capital transactions and other comprehensive income.

NOTE 9 -- REDEEMABLE PREFERRED STOCK

The Company has outstanding 250,000 shares of preferred stock (the "Series B Preferred Stock"). The holders of Series B Preferred Stock are entitled to cash dividends in an annual amount of $0.20 per share (total annual amount of $50,000), which have been paid in each of the years beginning in 1996 through and including 2002. Beginning in 2001 dividends will accrue and be payable only if and when declared by the Board of Directors. The Series B Preferred Stock has dividend and liquidation preferences to the Company's common stock. The shares are subject to mandatory redemption fifteen years from the date of issuance, at 100% of the liquidation preference of $4.00 per share plus all accrued and unpaid dividends, and may be redeemed at any time on the same terms at the option of the Company. The holders of the shares of Series B Preferred Stock are not entitled to vote on matters brought before the Company's stockholders, except as otherwise provided by law.

The Company has adopted the disclosure-only provisions of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123 -- Accounting for Stock Based Compensation ("SFAS No. 123"). Accordingly, no compensation cost has been recognized for the options. Had compensation costs for the options been determined, based on the fair value at the grant date, for the awards under the 1995 Stock Option Plan consistent with the provisions of SFAS No. 123, the Company's net income (loss) and net income (loss) per share for the year ended December 31, 2000 would have been the pro forma amounts indicated below (in thousands, except per share amounts):

Net income (loss) available to common stockholders -- as reported.....	$ (4,917)

The fair value of options granted are estimated on the date of grant using the Black-Scholes option-pricing model with the following assumptions: expected volatility of 55%, risk-free interest rate of 6.0%-6.7%, expected life of 5 years and no distribution yield. The Company issued options for 70,800 shares of common stock in 2000 which vested immediately and did not issue options during 2001 or 2002. The weighted average fair value of the options granted during 2000 was $399,000. All options previously issued were fully vested.

NOTE 11 -- SEPARATION AGREEMENT

In 1999, the Company entered into the Separation Agreement. The Separation Agreement provided that a former officer and director and related trust exchange their 24% stock ownership in the Company, for 20% of the Company's limited partner interest in HRP, 20% of the Company's common stock interest in Hallwood Energy, all of the Company's interest in its condominium hotel business and future cash payments contingent on the net cash flow from the Company's real estate management activities, that being the lesser of 20% of the net cash flow from its real estate management activities for the preceding quarter or $125,000. These future cash payments are subject to termination or extinguishment in certain events. The additional cost of the Separation Agreement recorded in 2002 and 2001 in the amounts of $1,000,000 and $500,000, respectively, represents an additional accrual of future cash payments to the trust through the period ending December 2004. The Company has an option to extinguish the future cash payments to the trust at any time prior to its expiration in December 2004 upon the payment of $3,000,000.

As a result of the expected gains from the Company's disposition of certain hotels, the expected appreciation in the market value of the HRP limited partner units and projected income from continuing operations, management determined that the deferred tax asset should be adjusted to reflect the anticipated utilization of net operating loss carryforwards ("NOLs") from assumed realization of the gains and projected income from continuing operations. Accordingly, the Company recorded a deferred tax expense of $3,256,000 and $949,000 in 2002 and 2001, respectively, and a deferred tax benefit of $1,205,000 in 2000, which adjusted the deferred tax asset to $4,221,000 at December 31, 2002 from $7,477,000 ($1,800,000 attributable to hotels held for sale) at December 31, 2001.

Although the Company reported significant taxable income in 2002 from continuing operations and hotel dispositions and in 2001 from the sale of its investment in Hallwood Energy, it incurred no federal alternative minimum tax due to a change in the tax law affecting the calculation of the alternative minimum tax, however current federal taxes of $50,000 and $58,000 were incurred by subsidiaries in 2002 and 2001, respectively. For 2000, the Company incurred no federal alternative minimum tax, due to federal tax losses, however $46,000 was incurred by subsidiaries. The accrued federal income tax payable (receivable) was $33,000 and $(358,000), and state taxes payable were $460,000 and $157,000 at December 31, 2002 and 2001, respectively.

In addition, the Company has approximately $2,228,000 of alternative minimum tax credits, which have no expiration date, and a depletion carryforward of approximately $6,323,000, which may be used to offset future taxable income without an expiration limitation.

Current tax laws and regulations relating to specified changes in ownership may limit the Company's ability to utilize its NOLs and tax credit carryforwards. As of December 31, 2002, management was not aware of any ownership changes which would limit the utilization of the NOLs and tax credit carryforwards.

NOTE 14 -- ORGANIZATION AND OPERATIONS OF HALLWOOD REALTY PARTNERS, L.P.

Organization. In 1990, the Company, through a wholly owned subsidiary, acquired from Equitec Financial Group, Inc. ("Equitec"), the general partnership interests in eight Equitec sponsored and managed limited partnerships for $8,650,000 and consummated the consolidation of such partnerships into Hallwood Realty Partners, L.P. ("HRP"). The Company subsequently acquired additional limited partner units of HRP in direct and open market purchases. During 1998, management completed a consolidation of the Company's real estate assets into a new structure involving several new wholly owned entities. Following the completion of the consolidation, the general partner interest is owned by Hallwood Realty, LLC ("Hallwood Realty") and the limited partner interest is owned by HWG, LLC. The consolidation did not affect the carrying value of the investments.

Operations. The Company's real estate subsidiaries earn asset management, property management leasing and construction supervision fees for their management of HRP's real estate properties. Hallwood Realty earns: (i) an asset management fee equal to 1% of the net aggregate base rents of HRP's properties, (ii) acquisition fees equal to 1% of the purchase price of newly acquired properties and; (iii) disposition fees with respect to real estate investments, other than the properties owned at the time of HRP's formation in 1990, equal to 10% of the amount by which the sales price of a property exceeds the purchase price of such property. HCRE earns property management, leasing and construction supervision fees. The management contracts with HRP expire on June 30, 2004 and provide for: (i) a property management fee equal to 2.85% of cash receipts collected from tenants; (ii) leasing fees equal to the current commission market rate as applied to net aggregate rent (none exceeding 6% of the net aggregate rent); and (iii) construction supervision fees for administering construction projects equal to 5% of total construction or tenant improvement costs.

Hallwood Realty is also reimbursed for certain costs and expenses, at cost, for administrative level salaries and bonuses, employee and director insurance and allocated overhead costs. In addition, since HRP does not employ any individuals, the compensation and other costs related to approximately 90 employees rendering services on behalf of HRP and its properties are reimbursed to Hallwood Realty and HCRE by HRP.

A summary of the fees earned from HRP is detailed below (in thousands):

NOTE 15 -- ORGANIZATION AND OPERATIONS OF BROOKWOOD COMPANIES INCORPORATED

Organization. Brookwood Companies Incorporated, a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company ("Brookwood"), was formed in March 1989 to acquire certain assets and assume certain liabilities of a nylon textile converting and finishing company. Brookwood is an integrated textile service firm that develops and produces innovative fabrics and related products through specialized finishing, treating and coating processes.

Operations. Brookwood maintains factoring agreements which provide that receivables, resulting from credit sales to customers, excluding the U.S. Government, may be sold to the factor without recourse, subject to a commission of 0.7% and the factor's prior approval. Commissions paid to the factors were approximately $297,000, $240,000 and $322,000 for the years ended December 31, 2002, 2001 and 2000, respectively. Brookwood had one customer that accounted for more than 10% of its net sales during 2002. The relationship with the customer is ongoing and Brookwood expects to maintain comparable sales volumes with that customer in 2003. Sales to that customer were $18,600,000, $3,800,000 and $42,000 in 2002, 2001 and 2000, respectively.

In 2001, management conducted an analysis of the carrying values of certain intangible assets related to acquisitions made in prior years and determined that Brookwood suffered an impairment to those values due to adverse economic trends and conditions. Accordingly, an impairment charge of $1,446,000 was recorded in December 31, 2001.

During 2000, Brookwood formed a joint venture, Strategic Technical Alliance, LLC ("STA"), with an unrelated third party that is also in a textile related industry. The business of STA is to produce advanced breathable waterproof laminate materials for military applications.

In September 2002, STA acquired the shares owned by the unrelated third party, effectively making STA a wholly owned subsidiary, for $1,000,000 in cash, the issuance of a $596,000 promissory note and royalty payments for three years based upon production under a specified contract. For the first three quarters of 2002, Brookwood accounted for its investment under the equity method of accounting. Since that date, the results of STA have been fully consolidated.

The following table sets forth summarized financial data of STA as of and for the years ended December 31, 2002 and 2001(in thousands):

NOTE 16 -- FAIR VALUE OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The estimated fair value amounts have been determined using available market information or other appropriate valuation methodologies that require considerable judgment in interpreting market data and developing estimates. Accordingly, the estimates presented herein are not necessarily indicative of the amounts that the Company could realize in a current market exchange. The use of different market assumptions and/or estimation methodologies may have a material effect on the estimated fair value amounts.

66

The fair value of financial instruments that are short-term or reprice frequently and have history of negligible credit losses are considered to approximate their carrying value. These include cash and cash equivalents, restricted cash, short term receivables, accounts payable and other liabilities.

Management has reviewed the carrying value of its loans payable and 10% Debentures in connection with interest rates currently available to the Company for borrowings with similar characteristics and maturities. Loans payable associated with the Company's assets held for sale and discontinued operations have not been considered. Management has determined that the estimated fair value of the loans payable would be approximately $17,243,000 and $19,141,000 at December 31, 2002 and 2001, compared to the carrying value of $17,130,000 and $19,141,000, respectively. The estimated fair value of the 10% Debentures is $5,983,000 and $5,045,000, based on market prices on the New York Stock Exchange, compared to the carrying values of $6,625,000 and $6,677,000 at December 31, 2002 and 2001, respectively. The fair value of the Company's hotel obligations approximated the carrying value given their proximity to expected extinguishment, which occurred during 2001 and 2002.

The fair value information presented as of December 31, 2002 and 2001 is based on pertinent information available to management. Although management is not aware of any factors that would significantly affect the estimated fair value amounts, such amounts have not been comprehensively revalued for purposes of these financial statements since that date and, therefore current estimates of fair value may differ significantly from the amounts presented herein.

NOTE 17 -- RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

HSC Financial Corporation. Effective January 1997, the compensation committee approved a financial consulting contract with HSC Financial Corporation ("HSC"), a corporation with which Mr. Gumbiner is and Mr. Troup was associated, that provides for HSC to furnish and perform international consulting and advisory services to the Company and its subsidiaries, including strategic planning and merger activities, for annual compensation of $825,000, excluding reimbursement for out-of-pocket and other reasonable expenses. The annual amount is payable in monthly installments, as a retainer to secure the availability of HSC to perform such services as and when required by the Company. This contract had an original termination date of July 1998, however, it automatically renews for one-year periods if not terminated by the parties beforehand. The contract was amended to reduce the annual consulting fee to $495,000 in January 2000 and amended to increase the fee to $795,000 in May 2001. In addition, the Board of Directors awarded a bonus to HSC in March 2003 and 2002, accrued into the prior year, in the amount of $33,000 from its HCRC subsidiary.

Pursuant to the HSC financial consulting agreement, the Company reimburses HSC for reasonable and necessary expenses in providing office space and administrative services. The Company reimbursed HSC $392,000, $344,000 and $304,000 for the years ended December 31, 2002, 2001 and 2000, respectively. Of the amounts paid, the Company incurred $98,000, $86,000 and $117,000 of expense for the years ended December 31, 2002, 2001 and 2000, respectively. The remainder was reimbursed by HRP and certain energy affiliates.

Hallwood Investments Limited. In March 2000, September 2000 and March 2001, the Company entered into loan agreements with an entity associated with its chairman and principal stockholder, Anthony J. Gumbiner, in the amount of $1,500,000, $1,000,000 and $1,500,000, respectively. Significant terms included: (i) term of five years; (ii) fixed interest rate of 10%; (iii) interest and principal payments deferred until maturity; (iv) unsecured; and (v) convertible into common stock twelve months after date of issuance, if not previously repaid, at a per share price which was 115% of the market price on the date each of the loans was approved by the Company's independent board members. Two of the loans were repaid in December 2001 in the amount of $2,881,000, which represented principal of $2,500,000 and accrued interest of $381,000. The remaining loan was repaid in March 2002 in the amount of $1,648,000, which represented principal of $1,500,000 and accrued interest of $148,000.

Hallwood Realty Partners, L.P. As previously discussed in Note 14, the Company earns management fees, leasing commissions and other fees from HRP.

Stanwick. The Company shares common offices, facilities and staff with Stanwick Holdings, Inc. ("Stanwick"). The Company pays the common general and administrative expenses of the two entities and charges Stanwick a management fee for its allocable share of the expenses. Stanwick reimbursed the Company $25,000 for each of the years ended December 31, 2002, 2001 and 2000, respectively. Stanwick is a subsidiary of Luxembourg-based Hallwood Holdings S.A. ("HHSA"). Anthony J. Gumbiner is a director of HHSA. Melvin J. Melle is chief financial officer of HHSA and Stanwick.

Strategic Technical Alliance, LLC. In the normal course of business, Brookwood sold inventory to STA, its joint venture investee. These sales totalled $11,444,000, $5,342,000 and $67,000 for the period through September 2002 and for the years ended December 31, 2001 and 2000, respectively. In September 2002, STA became a wholly owned Brookwood subsidiary. At December 31, 2001 STA owed $5,217,000 to Brookwood under this arrangement, and at December 31, 2002 the intercompany balance due has been eliminated in consolidation.

NOTE 18 -- LITIGATION, CONTINGENCIES AND COMMITMENTS

Litigation. The Company, certain of its affiliates and others have been named as defendants in several lawsuits relating to various transactions in which it or its affiliated entities participated. The Company intends to defend, or in some cases negotiate to settle, the remaining actions and does not currently anticipate that such actions will have a material adverse effect on its financial condition, results of operations or cash flows.

In June 1997, an action was filed against the Company, HRP, the general partner Hallwood Realty Corporation, a predecessor entity to Hallwood Realty, LLC, and the directors of Hallwood Realty Corporation by Gotham Partners, L.P. in the Delaware Court of Chancery, styled Gotham Partners, L.P. v. Hallwood Realty Partners, L.P., et al (C.A. No. 15754). This action alleges claims of breach of fiduciary duties, breach of HRP's partnership agreement and fraud in connection with certain transactions involving HRP's limited partnership units in the mid 1990's. The Company is alleged to have aided and abetted the alleged breaches. In June 2000, after completing fact discovery, all parties moved for summary judgment on several issues. In September and October 2000, the Delaware court issued three separate written opinions resolving the summary judgment motions. In the opinions, the court ruled that trial would be required as to all issues, except that (i) Gotham was found to have standing to pursue its derivative claims; (ii) defendants were entitled to judgment dismissing the fraud claim; (iii) the general partner was entitled to judgment dismissing the breach of fiduciary duty claims brought against it; and (iv) the general partner's outside directors were entitled to judgment dismissing all claims brought against them. A five-day trial was held in January 2001. In July 2001, the Delaware Court of Chancery rendered its opinion. In its decision, the court determined that an option plan and a sale of units to the Company in connection with a reverse unit split implemented by HRP in 1995 were in compliance with HRP's partnership agreement. The court also found that the sale of units to the Company in connection with a 1995 odd-lot offer by HRP did not comply with certain procedures required by the HRP partnership agreement. The court ruled that the defendants other than HRP pay a judgment to HRP in the amount of $3,417,000, plus pre-judgment interest of approximately $2,891,000 from August 1995. The judgment amount represents what the court determined was an underpayment by the Company. In August 2001, the plaintiff and certain defendants appealed the Court of Chancery's judgment to the Delaware Supreme Court. In October 2001, the Company paid $6,405,000, including post judgment interest, to HRP, subject to an arrangement that it be returned in full or part if the judgment is modified or reversed on appeal. Oral arguments before the Delaware Supreme Court were heard in February 2002, and a rehearing en banc was held in March 2002. In August 2002, the Supreme Court affirmed the judgement of the trial court that the remaining defendants other than HRP are jointly and severally liable to HRP. The Supreme Court reversed the trial court's determination of damages, and remanded the case to the trial court to fashion appropriate relief. A hearing on the remand proceedings was held before the Delaware Court of Chancery in October 2002. A further hearing on the remand is scheduled to take place in May 2003, with a decision by the Court of Chancery to follow. Since the appellate court reversed the judgment, any subsequent ruling by the trial court on remand may be more or less favorable to the Company.

In February 2000, HRP filed a lawsuit in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York styled Hallwood Realty Partners, L.P. v. Gotham Partners, L.P., et al (Civ. No. 00 CV 115) alleging violations of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 by certain purchasers of HRP's limited partnership units, including Gotham Partners, L.P., Gotham Partners, III L.P., Private Management Group, Inc., Interstate Properties, Steven Roth and EFO Realty, Inc., by virtue of those purchasers' misrepresentations and/or omissions in connection with filings required under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The complaint further alleged that the defendants, by acquiring more than 15% of the outstanding HRP limited partnership units, have triggered certain rights under its Unit Purchase Rights Agreement, for which HRP was seeking declaratory relief. HRP sought various forms of relief, including declaratory judgments, divestiture, corrective disclosures, a "cooling-off" period and damages, including costs and disbursements. In November 2000, the court granted HRP's motion to add as defendants Gotham Holdings II, LLC, Hallwood Investors, L.P., Liberty Realty Partners, L.P. and EFO/Liberty, Inc. and to remove EFO Realty, Inc. as a defendant. Discovery was completed in December 2000 and trial was held in February 2001. In February 2001, the court rendered a decision in favor of the defendants and the court ordered the complaint dismissed. HRP filed a Notice of Appeal in March 2001. Oral arguments were heard in March 2002. In April 2002, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit upheld the lower court's ruling in favor of the defendants. In April 2002, HRP filed with the court a Petition for Rehearing en banc with respect to the April 2002 decision. In June 2002 the Second Circuit denied the petition. HRP has not sought further appellate review and the determination in favor of defendants is now final.

Edgar Filing: HALLWOOD GROUP INC - Form 10-K

The Company was a party to certain litigation in the Delaware Court of Chancery styled, Corporate Property Associates 6 and Corporate Property Associates 7 v. The Hallwood Group Incorporated (C.A. 15661-NC), that involves a four-year, $500,000 promissory note of the Company due March 1998. The note was secured by a pledge of 89,269 HRP limited partner units. The agreement under which the note was issued also provided that the pledgee ("CPA," or the "Noteholder") had the right to receive up to an additional $500,000 based on the increase in price of the HRP units (the "HRP Participation Amount"). In 1996, the Company and CPA entered into an agreement under which the Company would pay off the principal and interest on the note and all other obligations between the parties would be ended. Subsequently, CPA refused to go forward with the agreement and this litigation was instituted. In December 1999, the Company and the Noteholder entered into an agreement, approved by the court, which provided that (i) the Company pay the face amount of $500,000 plus $83,000 of accrued interest to the Noteholder; (ii) the Company deposit $900,000 into an escrow account to secure the maximum amount which could be payable by the Company, including a potential claim of $400,000 for legal fees; and (iii) that the noteholder release its collateral of 89,269 HRP units. The parties reserved their rights to proceed with the litigation. Trial was held in June 2001 in the Delaware Court of Chancery. In February 2002, the court rendered its decision in favor of the Company. In March 2002, the court entered an order that provided for the return of approximately $971,000, including accrued interest, to the Company from the escrow account. The Noteholder filed an appeal in April 2002. Oral arguments before the Delaware Supreme Court were heard in September 2002, and a rehearing en banc was held in November 2002. In March 2003, the Delaware Supreme Court issued its opinion reversing the finding of the Trial Court that certain language in the letter agreement in question constituted a general release of Hallwood's obligations. On March 21, 2003, the parties submitted to the Chancery Court an agreed proposed Order and Judgment, which was signed by the Court and terminated the litigation. The Order and Judgment provided for payment out of the escrowed funds of approximately $547,000 to CPA and $437,000 to the Company. The Company received its share of the escrowed funds on March 31, 2003.

The Company was a defendant in two lawsuits regarding guaranties of certain obligations of the Embassy Suites and Holiday Inn hotels. In February 2003, the Company settled both matters. The Company agreed to pay $150,000 in cash and $250,000 in equal monthly installments over 18 months, in exchange for a full release regarding the Embassy Suites hotel, and $250,000 in cash in exchange for a full release regarding the Holiday Inn hotel. In December 2002, the Company recorded an additional loss provision in the amount of $247,000 to fully accrue for these two litigation matters.

The Company and its subsidiaries are from time to time involved in various other legal proceedings in the ordinary course of their respective businesses. Management believes that the resolution of the aforementioned litigation matters will not have a material adverse effect on the financial condition, results of operations or cash flows of the Company.

Contingencies. The Company has committed to make additional contributions to the capital of Hallwood Realty, the general partner of HRP, upon demand, up to a maximum aggregate amount of $13,118,000, subject to the terms of a subscription agreement, to the extent Hallwood Realty has insufficient capital to satisfy creditors of HRP. As of the date of this report no such demands have been made.

Edgar Filing: HALLWOOD GROUP INC - Form 10-K

In December 1999, the Company distributed certain assets and incurred a contingent obligation, under the Separation Agreement discussed in Note 11. The contingent obligation, in the amount of $4,000,000 at December 31, 2002 is the estimated value of the remaining payments under the Separation Agreement and is included in other accrued expenses. Interest on the contingent obligation was imputed at 12.75% and amounted to $395,000 and $408,000 for the years ended December 31, 2001 and 2000, respectively. In December 2001 the Company evaluated the contingent obligation and accrued an additional $500,000 under this agreement, which was paid in 2002. Similarly, the Company reevaluated the obligation at December 2002, and determined that a further cost of $1,000,000 should be accrued, which is expected to be paid in 2003 and 2004.

In February 2000, Brookwood, through a wholly owned subsidiary, acquired the assets of a company in a textile products-related industry. The purchase price was $1,479,000 in cash plus contingent payments of up to $3,000,000, based on specified levels of earnings over the next four years. Effective December 31, 2001, in consideration of thirty six monthly payments aggregating approximately $375,000, the contingent obligation had been reduced to a percentage of cash flow from the acquired subsidiaries, as defined, for the remaining years under the agreement. As of December 31, 2002, no amounts have been paid or were owed in relation to the contingency payments.

A number of jurisdictions in which the Company operates have adopted laws and regulations relating to environmental matters. Such laws and regulations may require the Company to secure governmental permits and approvals and undertake measures to comply therewith. Compliance with the requirements imposed may be time-consuming and costly. While environmental considerations, by themselves, have not significantly affected the Company's business to date, it is possible that such considerations may have a significant and adverse impact in the future. The Company actively monitors its environmental compliance and while certain matters currently exist, management is not aware of any compliance issues which will significantly impact the financial position, operations or cash flows of the Company.

Commitments. Total lease expense for noncancelable operating leases was $1,518,000, $1,718,000 and $3,456,000 for the years ended December 31, 2002, 2001 and 2000, respectively. The Company leases certain textile manufacturing equipment and certain hotel property, including land, buildings and equipment. The leases generally require the Company to pay property taxes, insurance and maintenance of the leased assets. The Company shares certain executive office facilities with HRP and pays a proportionate share of the lease expense. Two hotel leases (one of which was terminated in February 2001) required the payment of contingent rent if revenue was in excess of a base amount. Contingent rent was $-0-, $88,000 and $295,000 for the years ended December 31, 2002, 2001 and 2000, respectively.

NOTE 19 -- SEGMENT AND RELATED INFORMATION

The Company is a holding company and classifies its primary business operations into two reportable segments; real estate and textile products. Both segments have different management teams and infrastructures that engage in different businesses and offer different services.

Real Estate. The real estate operations are conducted primarily through the Company's wholly owned subsidiaries, HWG, LLC, Hallwood Realty and HCRE. Hallwood Realty is the sole general partner of HRP. At December 31, 2002, HRP owned fourteen real estate properties in six states containing 5,199,000 net rentable square feet. Hallwood Realty owns a 1% general partner interest and HWG, LLC owns a 21% limited partner interest in HRP. Hallwood Realty is responsible for asset management of HRP and its properties, including the decisions regarding financing, refinancing, acquiring and disposing of properties. It also provides general operating and administrative services to HRP. HCRE is responsible for on-site property management for all HRP properties, and properties it manages for third parties, for which it receives management, leasing and construction supervision fees. The Company accounts for its ownership in HRP using the equity method of accounting recording its pro-rata share of net income (loss) and partners capital transactions reported by HRP.

Textile Products. The textile products operations are conducted through the Company's wholly owned Brookwood subsidiaries. Brookwood is an integrated textile service firm that develops and produces innovative fabrics and related products through specialized finishing, treating and coating processes.

Discontinued Operations -- Energy. Hallwood Energy owned interests in oil and gas properties, primarily located in the San Juan Basin in New Mexico and Colorado, South Texas, the West Texas Permian Basin and onshore South Louisiana. The investment in Hallwood Energy was accounted for using the equity method of accounting, as the Company exercised significant influence over Hallwood Energy's operational and financial policies.

In May 2001, the Company sold its investment in Hallwood Energy. Accordingly, the Company's former energy operations have been reclassified as discontinued operations for all periods presented herein.

Discontinued Operations -- Hotels. Hotel operations were conducted through the Company's wholly owned Hallwood Hotels and Brock Hotels subsidiaries. Hallwood Hotels held a long-term leasehold interest in the Holiday Inn hotel, located in Longboat Key, Florida and a fee interest in the Airport Embassy Suites hotel, located in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. Brock Hotels owned fee interests in two GuestHouse Suites Plus properties located in Tulsa, Oklahoma and Greenville, South Carolina, and a long-term leasehold interest in one GuestHouse Suites Plus property located in Huntsville, Alabama.

In December 2000, the Company decided to discontinue and dispose of its hotel segment, which consisted of five hotel properties at that time. Accordingly, the Company's hotel operations which it intended to dispose of were reclassified as discontinued operations. The Company subsequently determined that it would retain a leasehold interest in one of the hotels which has been reclassified as a continuing operation and is included in "other" within the following schedule.

The following represents the Company's reportable amounts by segment, including its discontinued operations, as of and for the years ended December 31, 2002, 2001 and 2000, respectively (in thousands):

NOTE 20 -- EMPLOYEE BENEFIT RETIREMENT PLANS

In August 1989, the Company established a contributory, tax-deferred 401(k) tax favored savings plan covering substantially all of its non-union employees. The plan provides that (i) eligible employees may contribute up to 15% of their compensation to the plan; (ii) the Company's matching contribution is discretionary, to be determined annually by the Company's Board of Directors; (iii) excludes the Company's hotel hourly employees from a matching contribution; and (iv) excludes highly compensated employees from a matching contribution, although this group receives a compensatory bonus in lieu of such contribution and diminution of related benefits. Amounts contributed by employees are 100% vested and non-forfeitable. The Company's matching contributions, which were 50% of its employees contributions up to the first 6% contributed for each of the three years ended December 31, 2002, vest at a rate of 20% per year of service and become fully vested after five years. Employees of Hallwood Realty, HCRE and salaried hotel employees also participate in the Company's 401(k) plan. Brookwood has a separate 401(k) plan which is similar to the Company's plan. Brookwood did not provide a matching employer contribution to its 401(k) plan in the three years ended December 31, 2002. Employer contributions paid on behalf of Hallwood Realty employees were substantially paid by HRP. The Company's contributions to the plans for the years ended December 31, 2002, 2001 and 2000, respectively, excluding contributions from the Hallwood Realty affiliate paid on behalf of HRP were $71,000, $62,000, and $76,000, respectively.

Brookwood's union employees belong to a pension fund maintained by their union. The Company contributes $90 per month per employee to the fund. Total contributions for the years ended December 31, 2002, 2001 and 2000 were $268,000, $245,000 and $222,000, respectively. At March 31, 2002, the date of the latest actuarial valuation, Brookwood was not subject to a withdrawal liability upon termination of the pension plan because it was fully funded.

NOTE 21 -- CUMULATIVE EFFECT OF CHANGES IN ACCOUNTING PRINCIPLES

SFAS No. 142 became effective January 1, 2002 and specifies that goodwill and some intangible assets will no longer be amortized but instead will be subject to periodic impairment testing. The effect of adopting SFAS No. 142 by the Company resulted in the recording of income from the cumulative effect of a change in accounting principle in the amount of $568,000, which represented the unamortized amount of negative goodwill associated with the Company's equity investment in HRP.

During 2001, management conducted an analysis of the carrying value of certain intangible assets related to the textile products segment and recorded an impairment charge of $1,446,000 as of December 31, 2001. The Company no longer has any recorded goodwill or intangible assets that would be subject to amortization or impairment testing.

SCHEDULE I

THE HALLWOOD GROUP INCORPORATED AND SUBSIDIARIES

CONDENSED FINANCIAL INFORMATION OF REGISTRANT (PARENT COMPANY)

NOTE 1 -- BASIS OF PRESENTATION

Pursuant to the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission, the condensed financial statements of the Registrant do not include all of the information and notes normally included with financial statements prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. In addition, for purposes of this schedule, the investments in majority owned subsidiaries are accounted for using the equity method of accounting which is not in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. It is, therefore suggested that these condensed financial statements be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and notes thereto included in the Registrant's annual report as referenced in Form 10-K, Part II, Item 8.

NOTE 2 -- 10% COLLATERALIZED SUBORDINATED DEBENTURES

As referenced in Note 6 in the Consolidated Financial Statements, the Registrant's 10% Collateralized Subordinated Debentures due July 31, 2005, are comprised of the following (in thousands):

NOTE 3 -- INCOME (LOSS) FROM DISCONTINUED OPERATIONS

In December 2000, the Company decided to discontinue and dispose of its hotel segment, principally by allowing its non-recourse debt holders to assume ownership of the properties through foreclosure or by selling or otherwise disposing of its hotel properties. The Company's former hotel segment consisted of three owned properties and two leased properties. As part of the planned disposition, the Company evaluated the operations and economic environment in which each of the hotels operated and in December 2001 and December 2000 recorded impairments of $935,000 and $4,000,000, respectively, to reduce hotel carrying values to estimated fair market values, which is included in the equity in net loss of hotel subsidiaries in the table below. Apart from the leasehold interest in the GuestHouse Suites Plus hotel in Huntsville, Alabama that the Company continues to operate and report as an asset held for use, hotel operations have been segregated from the Company's continuing operations and reported as discontinued hotel operations. The loss from discontinued operations consists of the following (in thousands):

PART I

ITEM 1. BUSINESS

DESCRIPTION OF THE BUSINESS

Hallwood Realty Partners, L.P. ("HRP"), a publicly traded Delaware limited partnership, operates in the commercial real estate industry. HRP's activities include the acquisition, ownership and operation of its commercial real estate assets. Units representing limited partnership interests are traded on the American Stock Exchange under the symbol "HRY".

As of December 31, 2002, HRP owned 14 real estate properties (the "Properties") located in six states containing 5,199,000 net rentable square feet (for additional information, see Item 2 - Properties). HRP seeks to maximize the value of its real estate by making capital and tenant improvements, by executing marketing programs to attract and retain tenants, and by controlling or reducing, where possible, operating expenses.

Hallwood Realty, LLC ("Realty" or the "General Partner"), a Delaware limited liability company and indirectly wholly-owned subsidiary of The Hallwood Group Incorporated ("Hallwood"), is HRP's general partner and is responsible for asset management of HRP and its Properties, including decision-making responsibility for financing, refinancing, acquiring and disposing of properties. In addition, Realty provides general operating and administrative services to HRP. Hallwood Commercial Real Estate, LLC ("HCRE"), another indirectly wholly-owned subsidiary of Hallwood, provides property management, leasing and construction supervision services to the Properties.

RISKS, COMPETITION AND OTHER FACTORS

DETERIORATION IN ECONOMIC CONDITIONS AND THE REAL ESTATE MARKETS COULD HARM HRP'S BUSINESS.

The commercial real estate industry is sensitive to a number of factors relating to global, national, regional and local general and economic conditions, including war, threat of war, inflation, interest rates, taxation policies, availability of credit, employment levels, and wage and salary levels. A negative trend in any of these conditions could adversely affect HRP's business. If a substantial number of tenants default on their leases, choose not to renew, or if rental rates decrease, HRP's financial position could be adversely affected. Such effects could include a decline in acquisition, disposition and leasing activity; a decline in the supply of capital invested in commercial real estate; or a decline in the value of real estate.

Edgar Filing: HALLWOOD GROUP INC - Form 10-K

HRP's cash flow would be adversely affected by decreases in the performance of the properties it owns. Property performance typically depends upon the ability to attract and retain creditworthy tenants; the ability to manage operating expenses; the magnitude of defaults by tenants under their respective leases; governmental regulations; the nature and extent of competitive properties; financial and economic conditions generally and in the specific areas where properties are located; and the real estate market generally. Expenses may increase due to unexpected or higher repairs and maintenance costs, inflation, services and costs required to retain tenants or to sign new tenants, unsuccessful appeals of rising real estate taxes, changes in interest rates, higher insurance costs, the outcome of existing or future litigation, as well as other factors, many of which are beyond the control of HRP.

HRP MAY BE SENSITIVE TO CHANGES IN INTEREST RATES.

Because only one of its mortgage loans has a floating interest rate, HRP's exposure to changes in market interest rates is limited to the difference between the market rate in effect at the time a loan matures compared to its existing loan rate. As of December 31, 2002, HRP had mortgage loans totaling $172,552,000 with fixed interest rates from 6.97% to 8.7% (with an effective average interest rate of 8.21%). These loans mature between 2005 and 2020. At the time of loan maturity, a higher market interest rate compared to the existing rate will have a negative impact on the amount of mortgage proceeds secured from a refinancing, as well as a decrease in cash flow from future operations due to the higher interest rate.

A $25,000,000 mortgage loan secured by Allfirst Building bears interest at LIBOR plus 130 basis points, and therefore HRP's actual cash interest costs are affected by changes in market interest rates. The interest rate for this loan was 2.68% as of December 31, 2002. Assuming a 100 basis point, or 1%, change in LIBOR, interest paid by HRP would increase or decrease by $250,000 on an annual basis.

INSURANCE RISKS HAVE INCREASED AS A RESULT OF RECENT EVENTS.

Due in large part to the terrorist activities of September 11, 2001, insurance companies have re-examined many aspects of their business and have taken certain actions in the wake of these terrorist activities, including increasing premiums, mandating higher self-insured retentions and deductibles, reducing limits, restricting coverages, imposing exclusions (such as sabotage and terrorism), and refusing to underwrite certain risks and classes of business. Significantly increased premiums, mandated exclusions, or changes in limits, coverages, terms and conditions could adversely affect HRP's ability to obtain appropriate insurance coverages. However, at this time the only impact on HRP has been an increase in premiums. HRP has $250,000,000 of terrorism insurance coverage.

HRP MAY INCUR ENVIRONMENTAL LIABILITY IN ITS ROLE AS A PROPERTY OWNER.

Various national, state and local laws and regulations impose liability on real property owners, such as HRP, for the cost of investigating, cleaning up or removing contamination caused by hazardous or toxic substances. The liability may be imposed even if the original actions were legal and HRP did not know of, or was not responsible for, the presence of such hazardous or toxic substances.

Edgar Filing: HALLWOOD GROUP INC - Form 10-K

HRP may also be solely responsible for the entire payment of the liability if it is subject to joint and several liability with other responsible parties who are unable to pay. HRP may be subject to additional liability if it fails to disclose environmental issues to a buyer or lessee of property or if a third party is damaged or injured as a result of environmental contamination emanating from the site. HRP cannot be sure that any of such liabilities to which it may become subject will not have a material adverse effect upon its business, results of operations or financial condition.

Parklane Towers, as well as certain other properties to a lesser extent, are known to contain asbestos. Removal of asbestos at HRP's properties is not required because it is cementitious, it is not friable and because the procedures in HRP's site environmental program Operations and Maintenance Manual are performed as required.

HRP MAY HAVE DIFFICULTY DISPOSING OF ASSETS WHEN IT HAS TO DO SO.

HRP's basic investment strategy is to hold real estate assets until what it believes to be an optimal time to sell them. Normally, this will be during relatively strong real estate markets. However, factors beyond HRP's control could make it necessary for HRP to dispose of real estate properties during weak markets. Further, markets for real estate assets are not usually highly liquid, which can make it particularly difficult to realize acceptable prices when disposing assets during weak markets.

IF HRP DOES NOT GENERATE SUFFICIENT CASH FLOWS FROM OPERATIONS, IT MAY NEED ADDITIONAL CAPITAL.

To date, HRP has financed its operations with cash from profitably operating its established properties. If HRP does not generate enough cash from operations to finance its business in the future, it will need to raise additional funds through public or private financing or asset sales. If HRP borrows money, it may be required to agree to restrictions limiting its operating flexibility. If HRP requires additional funds and is not able to obtain such funds, it would have a material adverse effect on its operations.

SOME OF HRP'S LOANS CONTAIN COVENANTS AND RESTRICTIONS, WHICH AFFECT FLEXIBILITY.

HRP has two mortgage loans that require compliance with a loan covenant, which if not met will trigger a default. The loans require the properties securing each loan to maintain a liquidity ratio, specifically a debt service coverage ratio. A debt service coverage ratio is the relationship of adjusted net operating income (as defined in each loan agreement) for the previous 12 months to the loan's annual debt service. The ratio, for a loan requiring a minimum 1.15 ratio, was 2.25, 2.35, and 2.19 for 2002, 2001, and 2000, respectively. The ratio, for a loan requiring a minimum 1.10 ratio, was 2.39, 1.94, and 2.45 for the same periods. Accordingly, HRP was in compliance with these loan covenants for the three years ended December 31, 2002. As of December 31, 2002, the outstanding balance of the loans is $111,553,000.

Additionally, these two mortgage loans contain restrictions that limit certain actions. With respect to the properties encumbered by these loans, HRP cannot incur additional debt. Also, HRP's ability to sell a property, or a portion thereof, is limited because of the requirement to substitute collateral with substantial penalty. These loans also, under certain circumstances, may restrict the ability of HRP to merge, to consolidate or to liquidate.

Edgar Filing: HALLWOOD GROUP INC - Form 10-K

RISKS, COMPETITION AND OTHER FACTORS (CONTINUED)

HRP IS SUBJECT TO LITIGATION.

HRP is currently a party to certain litigation in Delaware state court, as described more fully in Item 3 - Legal Proceedings. The trial court in that matter ruled that the defendants other than HRP pay a judgment in the amount of $3,417,423, plus pre-judgment interest from August 1995 to HRP. The plaintiff and certain defendants have appealed that ruling. In October 2001, HRP received the $3,417,423 judgment together with $2,987,576 of pre-judgment and post-judgment interest, subject to an arrangement that it be returned in full or part if the judgment is modified or reversed on appeal. If the appellate court reverses the judgment, any subsequent ruling by the trial court on remand may be more or less favorable to HRP.

HRP IS SUBJECT TO COMPETITION.

The Properties are subject to substantial competition from similar properties in the vicinity in which they are located. In addition, there are numerous other potential investors seeking to purchase improved real property and many property holders seeking to dispose of real estate with which HRP will compete, including companies substantially larger than HRP and with substantially greater resources.

OTHER.

Realty and HCRE, on behalf of HRP, monitor compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act and are currently not aware of any material non-compliance issues.

HRP does not directly employ any individuals. Currently, approximately 90 employees of Realty and/or HCRE render services on behalf of HRP and its Properties.

The business of HRP involves only one industry segment. Accordingly, all information required by Item 101(b) of Regulation S-K is included in the Consolidated Financial Statements included in Item 8. HRP has no foreign operations and its business is not seasonal.

OCCUPANCY AND MAJOR TENANT INFORMATION

For information regarding occupancy, percentages of square feet scheduled to expire by calendar year, and major tenants, see "Liquidity and Capital Resources" in Item 7 - Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations.

Allfirst Bank, the principal tenant of Allfirst Building, has options to purchase the building from HRP for $28,000,000 in either 2004 or 2006. For information regarding this project as well as encumbrances to which any properties are subject and the status of related mortgage loans, see "Liquidity and Capital Resources" in Item 7 - Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations, as well as Note 6 to the Consolidated Financial Statements and Schedule III in Item 8 - Financial Statements and Supplemental Information.

OFFICE SPACE -

HRP leases and shares offices with Hallwood in Dallas, Texas under a lease which expires November 30, 2008. HRP has a one-time option to terminate the lease effective November 30, 2005. The annual minimum cash rental payments are $315,000, of which HRP's portion is approximately $210,000 annually.

ITEM 3. LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

On June 20, 1997, an action was filed against HRP, the General Partner, its directors, and Hallwood by Gotham Partners, L.P. in the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware, styled Gotham Partners, L.P. v. Hallwood Realty Partners, L.P., et al. (C.A. No. 15754). This action alleges claims of breach of fiduciary duties, breach of HRP's partnership agreement, and fraud in connection with certain transactions involving HRP's units in the mid 1990's. Hallwood is alleged to have aided and abetted the alleged breaches. On June 21, 2000, after completing fact discovery, all parties moved for summary judgment on several issues. In September and October 2000, the Delaware court issued three separate written opinions resolving the summary judgment motions. In the opinions, the court ruled that trial would be required as to all issues, except that (i) Gotham was found to have standing to pursue its derivative claims; (ii) defendants were entitled to judgment dismissing the fraud claim; (iii) the General Partner was entitled to judgment dismissing the breach of fiduciary duty claims brought against it; and (iv) the General Partner's outside directors were entitled to judgment dismissing all claims brought against them.

A five-day trial was held in January 2001. On July 18, 2001, the Delaware Court of Chancery rendered its opinion. In its decision, the court determined that an option plan and a sale of units to Hallwood in connection with a reverse split of units implemented by HRP in 1995 were in compliance with HRP's partnership agreement. The court also found that the sale of units to Hallwood in connection with a 1995 odd-lot offer by HRP did not comply with certain procedures required by the HRP partnership agreement. The court ruled that the defendants other than HRP pay a judgment to HRP in the amount of $3,417,423, plus pre-judgment interest from August 1995. The judgment amount represents what the court determined was an underpayment by Hallwood. In August 2001, plaintiff and certain defendants appealed the Court of Chancery's judgment to the Delaware Supreme Court. In October 2001, HRP received the $3,417,423 judgment together with $2,987,576 of interest, subject to an arrangement that it be returned in full or part if the judgment is modified or reversed on appeal. Oral arguments were heard on February 12, 2002, and a rehearing en banc was held on March 26, 2002. On August 29, 2002, the Supreme Court affirmed the judgment of the trial court that the remaining defendants other than HRP are jointly and severally liable to HRP. The Supreme Court reversed the trial court's determination of damages, and remanded the case to the trial court to fashion appropriate relief. A hearing on the remand proceedings was held before the Court of Chancery on October 25, 2002. A further hearing on the remand is scheduled to take place in May or June 2003, with a decision by the Court of Chancery to follow. Since the appellate court reversed the judgment, any subsequent ruling by the trial court on remand may be more or less favorable to HRP. As a result of the uncertainty of the litigation's outcome, HRP recorded the judgment and interest as "Deferred Litigation Proceeds" on its balance sheet.

On February 15, 2000, HRP filed a lawsuit in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York styled Hallwood Realty Partners, L.P. v. Gotham Partners L.P., et al. (Civ. No. 00 CV 1115) alleging violations of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 by certain purchasers of its units, including Gotham Partners, L.P., Gotham Partners III, L.P., Private Management Group, Inc., Interstate Properties, Steven Roth and EFO Realty, Inc., by virtue of those purchasers' misrepresentations and/or omissions in connection with filings required under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The complaint further alleged that defendants, by acquiring more than 15% of the outstanding HRP units, have triggered certain rights under its Unit Purchase Rights Agreement, for which HRP was seeking declaratory relief. HRP sought various forms of relief, including declaratory judgments, divestiture, corrective disclosures, a "cooling-off" period and damages, including costs and disbursements. On November 16, 2000, the court granted HRP's motion to add as defendants Gotham Holdings II, L.L.C., Hallwood Investors, L.P., Liberty Realty Partners, L.P. and EFO/Liberty, Inc. and to remove EFO Realty, Inc. as a defendant. Discovery was completed in December 2000 and trial was held in February 2001. On February 23, 2001, the court rendered a decision in favor of the defendants and on February 28, 2001, the court ordered the complaint dismissed. HRP filed a Notice of Appeal on March 29, 2001. Oral argument was heard on March 4, 2002. On April 11, 2002, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit upheld the lower court's ruling in favor of defendants. On April 25, 2002, HRP filed with the court a Petition for Rehearing and Rehearing En Banc with respect to the April 11, 2002 decision. On June 3, 2002, the Second Circuit denied that petition. HRP has not sought further appellate review and the determination in favor of defendants is now final.

HRP is from time to time involved in various other legal proceedings and claims which arise in the ordinary course of business. These matters are generally covered by insurance. Management believes that the resolution of these matters will not have a material adverse effect on HRP's financial position, cash flow or operations.

No matters were submitted to a vote of the security holders of HRP during the fourth quarter of 2002.

ITEM 5. MARKET FOR REGISTRANT'S UNITS AND RELATED SECURITY HOLDER MATTERS

HRP's units are traded on the American Stock Exchange under the symbol "HRY". As of March 14, 2003, there were approximately 24,000 unitholders owning the 1,593,948 units outstanding. Each quarter Realty reviews HRP's capacity to make cash distributions to its partners. HRP has not paid any cash distributions since February, 1992.

The following table shows the high and low closing prices for the periods indicated, as reported by the American Stock Exchange:

NOTES TO SELECTED FINANCIAL DATA:

- (a) Reclassifications, including a gross-up for parking, construction and tenant service expenses that were previously netted against revenues, have been made in the prior year amounts to conform to the classifications used in the current year. The reclassifications occurred due to the adoption of EITF No. 01-14, "Income Statement Characterization of Reimbursements Received for Out-of-Pocket Expenses Incurred". The reclassifications had no effect on previously reported net income or loss.
- (b) Acquisition and development activity from 1999 to 2001 increased HRP's real estate assets. These increases were partially offset by depreciation and amortization. Prior to 1999, real estate assets declined in each of the years, primarily due to depreciation and amortization exceeding the additions of tenant and property improvements.
- (c) Partners' capital includes Accumulated Other Comprehensive Income of $926,000 and $1,204,000 as of December 31, 2002 and 2001, respectively. Partners' capital balance is allocated 99% to the limited partners and 1% to the General Partner.

ITEM 7. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

This discussion should be read in conjunction with Item 6 - Selected Financial Data and Item 8 - Financial Statements and Supplemental Information.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

2002 COMPARED TO 2001 -

REVENUE FROM PROPERTY OPERATIONS in 2002 increased $399,000, or 0.6%, compared to 2001. The following table illustrates the components of the change, in thousands:

Rental income, net	$ 830
Other property income	(431)

Net increase	$ 399

Net rental income increased primarily due to an overall 5% increase in rental rates offset by a decrease in average occupancy between periods from 90.9% to 87.3%. Average occupancy for 2002 was 89.0% excluding the new, but unoccupied, building at Executive Park, which was completed in April 2002 - see Note 5 to the Consolidated Financial Statements for more information. Other property income decreased due to a reduction in tenant expense recoveries.

REVENUE FROM PARKING, CONSTRUCTION AND TENANT SERVICES for 2002 decreased $1,351,000, or 16.7%, primarily as a result of a few major construction service projects completed in 2001. By their nature, the demand for and size of construction service projects can vary significantly from time to time.

PROPERTY OPERATING EXPENSES for 2002 increased $271,000, or 1.0%, compared to 2001. The change in expense includes non-specific, or general, increases in real estate taxes, property and liability insurance premiums, and property level salaries, partially offset by a general decrease in utilities and landscaping costs.

PARKING, CONSTRUCTION AND TENANT SERVICES EXPENSE for 2002 decreased $787,000, or 14.8%, primarily as a result of a few major construction service projects completed in 2001. By their nature, the demand for and size of construction service projects can vary significantly from time to time.

INTEREST EXPENSE for 2002 decreased $980,000, or 6.1%, compared to 2001, as a result of a decrease in mortgage loan interest of $611,000 (primarily due to a lower interest rate for HRP's only variable rate mortgage secured by Allfirst Building), a decrease in capitalized interest of $230,000, and a decrease in loan cost amortization and other interest costs of $40,000. (For more information about the variable rate mortgage, see Item 7a - Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk.) Additionally, 2001 included $559,000 of prepayment penalties and other costs related to the early payoff of loans; these costs were reclassified in the fourth quarter of 2002 from an extraordinary item to current operations within interest expense as a result of the adoption of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 145.

DEPRECIATION AND AMORTIZATION EXPENSE for 2002 increased $335,000, or 2.3%, primarily due to depreciation for the newly completed building at Executive Park.

GENERAL AND ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES for 2002 increased $239,000, or 5.5%, compared to 2001, due to increases in certain professional fees, state franchise taxes, director and officer liability insurance, and overhead costs.

LITIGATION COSTS were $777,000 and $3,808,000 for 2002 and 2001, respectively, and are related to the lawsuits described in Item 3 - Legal Proceedings and Note 10 to the Consolidated Financial Statements.

INTEREST INCOME decreased by $406,000, or 38.9%, as a result of decreased earnings on overnight cash investments due to significantly lower interest rates available between years.

2001 COMPARED TO 2000 -

REVENUE FROM PROPERTY OPERATIONS in 2001 increased $2,929,000, or 4.6%, compared to 2000. The following table illustrates the components of the change, in thousands:

Rental income, net	$	2,208
Other property income		721

Net increase	$	2,929

Net rental income increased due to revenues generated from the addition and completion of one development property at Corporate Square in mid-2000 ($1,971,000), overall higher rental rates at most of HRP's real estate properties, and an increase in average occupancy between years from 89.4% to 90.9%. As of December 31, 2001, HRP had leases executed and in place for approximately 91% of the portfolio's net rentable square feet (excluding a 125,000 square foot development property at Executive Park). Other property income increased primarily due to increases in tenant expense recoveries.

REVENUE FROM PARKING, CONSTRUCTION AND TENANT SERVICES for 2001 increased $1,861,000, or 29.8%, primarily as a result of a few major construction service projects completed in 2001. By their nature, the demand for and size of construction service projects can vary significantly from time to time.

PROPERTY OPERATING EXPENSES for 2001 increased $641,000, or 2.4%, compared to 2000. The increase is comprised primarily of the following components:

- o Operating costs with respect to the addition of the one development property at Corporate Square completed in mid-2000 were $629,000 greater than in 2001.
- o Professional fees decreased $705,000 primarily due to costs incurred in 2000 for research and analysis of potential property development projects.
- o Combined, all other operating costs increased $717,000, or about 2.7%, of which none are individually significant.

PARKING, CONSTRUCTION AND TENANT SERVICES EXPENSE for 2001 increased $1,757,000, or 49.1%, primarily as a result of a few major construction service projects completed in 2001. By their nature, the demand for and size of construction service projects can vary significantly from time to time.

INTEREST EXPENSE for 2001 increased $313,000, or 2.0%, compared to 2000 as a result of an increase in mortgage loan interest of $845,000 (due to a higher average mortgage loan balance), partially offset by the capitalization of $486,000 of interest for construction of the development project at Executive Park (as described in Note 5 to the Consolidated Financial Statements), and a decrease in loan cost amortization and other interest costs of $46,000.

Edgar Filing: HALLWOOD GROUP INC - Form 10-K

DEPRECIATION AND AMORTIZATION EXPENSE was consistent between years and increased $64,000, or 0.4%.

GENERAL AND ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES for 2001 decreased $690,000, or 13.7%, compared to 2000 primarily due to $601,000 of non-qualified unit option compensation in 2000.

LITIGATION COSTS were $3,808,000 and $5,663,000 for 2001 and 2000, respectively, and are related to the lawsuits described in Item 3 - Legal Proceedings and Note 10 to the Consolidated Financial Statements.

GAIN FROM PROPERTY SALES of $4,184,000 in 2001 is comprised of the January sale of one building at Seattle Business Parks for a gross selling price of $3,287,000, resulting in a gain of $2,109,000; the January sale of one building at Fairlane Commerce Park for a gross selling price of $575,000, resulting in a gain of $153,000; and the March sale of Joy Road Distribution Center for a gross selling price of $5,326,000, resulting in a gain of $1,922,000.

INTEREST INCOME increased by $75,000, or 7.7%, as a result of increased earnings on overnight cash investments due to a higher average cash balance available for investment, partially offset by lower interest rates.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

GENERAL INFORMATION -

HRP operates in the commercial real estate industry. HRP's activities include the acquisition, ownership and operation of its commercial real estate assets. While it is the General Partner's intention to operate HRP's existing real estate investments and to acquire and operate additional real estate investments, Realty also continually evaluates each of HRP's real estate investments in light of current economic trends, operations, and other factors to determine if any should be considered for disposition.

As of December 31, 2002, HRP owned 14 real estate assets (the "Properties") located in six states containing 5,199,000 net rentable square feet. HRP seeks to maximize the value of its real estate by making capital and tenant improvements, by executing marketing programs to attract and retain tenants, and by controlling or reducing, where possible, operating expenses.

HRP fully consolidates into its financial statements majority owned entities. For each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2002, all entities and Properties were fully owned. All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

HRP has, in three situations, created a Special Purpose Entity ("SPE"). These SPEs were formed at the request of lenders for the express purpose of strengthening the collateral for the loans by isolating (for Federal bankruptcy law purposes) the assets and liabilities of the SPEs. In all cases and since their various formation dates, the assets, liabilities and results of operations of these wholly-owned entities have been fully consolidated into the financial statements of HRP.

CASH SOURCES, CASH USES AND COMMITMENTS -

HRP's cash position increased $7,450,000 during 2002 to $32,363,000 as of

Edgar Filing: HALLWOOD GROUP INC - Form 10-K

December 31, 2002. The source of cash during the year was $19,726,000 of cash provided by operating activities, . The uses of cash were $6,617,000 for property and tenant improvements, $1,977,000 for property development costs, $3,672,000 for scheduled mortgage principal payments, and $10,000 for loan fees.

For the foreseeable future, HRP anticipates that mortgage principal payments, tenant and capital improvements, lease commissions and litigation costs will be funded by net cash from operations. We believe that there will be sufficient cash from operations to meet these needs because HRP has leases in place as of December 31, 2002 to provide $54,963,000 of minimum rental payments during 2003 (see "Liquidity and Capital Resources - Lease Agreements and Major Tenant Information"). For 2002, HRP had leases in place to provide $55,261,000 of minimum rental payments (based on leases in place as of December 31, 2001), however the actual rental payments recorded for 2002 were $61,481,000. Actual rental payment results for 2002 were greater than the minimum rental payment amount primarily due to our ability to attract and retain tenants. Our ability to fund operations in the future will depend upon continued success in maintaining current occupancy levels, retaining current tenants, and attracting new tenants, as well as sustaining or increasing rental rates.

The primary sources of capital to fund any future acquisitions or developments will be proceeds from the sale, financing or refinancing of one or more of our properties. HRP has estimated and budgeted tenant and capital improvements of $15,631,000 and lease commissions of $2,851,000 for 2003. Each quarter Realty reviews HRP's capacity to make cash distributions. HRP has not made any cash distributions since February, 1992.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES -

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and judgments that affect the reported amounts of certain assets, liabilities, revenues, expenses, and related disclosures. Actual results may differ from these estimates under different assumptions or conditions. In December 2001, the SEC requested that registrants identify "critical accounting policies" in Item 7 - Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations. The SEC indicated that a "critical accounting policy" is one that is both important to the portrayal of an entity's financial condition and results and requires management's most difficult, subjective or complex judgments, often as a result of the need to make estimates about the effect of matters that are inherently uncertain. HRP believes that the following of its accounting policies fit this description:

Impairment of Long-Lived Assets - HRP reviews for impairment losses on its real estate assets when events and circumstances indicate that the assets might be impaired. If such indication is noted, an undiscounted cash flow analysis is performed, and in the event undiscounted cash flow estimated to be generated by an asset over the remaining depreciable life of that asset is less than its carrying value, then the asset would be written down to its fair value. Cash flow estimates are based on historical results adjusted to our best estimate of future market and operating conditions. Significant assumptions used in this process include an evaluation of leases in place, future rental and occupancy rates, and the level of expected operating expenses. For the three years ended December 31, 2002, HRP has not recorded a write-down or impairment of the carrying value of any real estate property based on these calculations.

Edgar Filing: HALLWOOD GROUP INC - Form 10-K

Assets Held for Sale - Should HRP decide to sell a property and actively commence the disposal process, all of the assets, liabilities, income, and expenses associated with such property will be segregated in the financial statements. At such time, an evaluation for potential impairment will be made using an estimate of the selling price less selling costs.

Revenue Recognition - SFAS No. 13 "Accounting for Leases" requires management to estimate the economic life of lease payments. However, this does not require subjective input by management, as rental income is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term, as defined in each respective lease. Adjustments to convert cash rental income (which may include free rent, reduced rent, or periodic rental rate increases over the term of the lease) to straight-line rental income increased revenues by $99,000, $256,000, and $569,000 in 2002, 2001, and 2000, respectively.

Other accounting policies are described in Note 2 to the Consolidated Financials Statements in Item 8. The policies listed are not intended to be a comprehensive list of all of our accounting policies. In most cases, the accounting treatment of a particular transaction is specifically dictated by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, with no need for management's judgment in the application. There are also areas in which management's judgment in selecting any available alternative would not produce a materially different result than those recorded and reported.

RECENT ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS -

SFAS No. 142 "Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets" was issued in June 2001 and was adopted January 1, 2002. Among other things, SFAS No. 142 requires that in conjunction with an acquisition of a property in the future all intangible assets associated with such property will be separately evaluated and recorded.

SFAS No. 143 "Accounting for Asset Retirement Obligations" was adopted January 1, 2003. It establishes an accounting standard for recognition and measurement of a liability for an asset retirement obligation and the associated asset retirement cost. HRP has no such obligations as of December 31, 2002.

SFAS No. 144 "Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets" was adopted January 1, 2002 and requires current, as well as historical, results of operations for disposed properties and those properties held for sale that occur subsequent to January 1, 2002 to be reclassified and presented separately as discontinued operations.

SFAS No. 145 "Rescission of FASB Statements 4, 44 and 64, Amendment of FASB Statement No. 13, and Technical Corrections" was issued in April 2002 and was adopted in the fourth quarter of 2002. Among other things, SFAS No. 145 limits debt extinguishments that can be classified as extraordinary items. As a result, HRP has reclassified previously recorded gains and losses from early extinguishment of debt from an extraordinary item to current operations within interest expense. Accordingly, the reclassifications had no effect on previously reported net income or loss.

SFAS No. 146 "Accounting for Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities" was issued in June 2002 and will be effective for exit or disposal activities subsequent to December 31, 2002. HRP anticipates no material impact on its financial statements from the adoption of this accounting standard.

SFAS No. 148 "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation - Transition and Disclosure, an amendment of FASB Statement No. 123" was issued in December 2002 and provides new transition methods if an entity adopts the fair value based method of valuing stock-based compensation suggested in SFAS No. 123, as well as requiring additional disclosures in interim and annual financial statements. At this time, HRP expects that the impact will be limited to additional disclosure requirements.

In November 2002, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Interpretation No. 45 "Guarantor's Accounting and Disclosure Requirements for Guarantees, Including Indirect Guarantees of Indebtedness of Others" ("FIN 45"). FIN 45 requires that the guarantor recognize, at the inception of certain guarantees, a liability for the fair value of the obligation undertaken in issuing such guarantee. FIN 45 also requires additional disclosure about the guarantor's obligations under certain guarantees that it has issued. As of December 31, 2002 HRP had no such guarantees.

LEASE AGREEMENTS AND MAJOR TENANT INFORMATION -

Lease provisions generally require HRP's tenants to pay fixed rental amounts, plus their proportionate share of certain building operating costs and real property taxes. Revenue from expense recoveries, included in property operations, was $3,755,000, $4,197,000, and $3,315,000 in 2002, 2001, and 2000, respectively. In addition, certain leases include provisions for annual rental adjustments. Some leases contain provisions to allow a tenant to terminate their lease prior to its normal expiration. At December 31, 2002, the Properties, in the aggregate, were 91% leased. The following table sets forth the minimum cash rental payments to be received from leases in place as of December 31, 2002 (in thousands):

	Payments from Leases without Early Termination Rights -----	Payments from Leases with Early Termination Rights -----		Total -----
2003	$ 54,963	$ 651	$	55,614

Based on leases in place as of December 31, 2002, set forth below are the percentages of leased square footage scheduled for lease expirations for each calendar year, assuming that none of the tenants exercise early termination or renewal options:

2005	14%
2006	15%
2007	7%
Thereafter	27%

During 2002 and 2001, two tenants leasing space contributed 10% or more of HRP's revenues. Ford Motor Company and affiliates ("Ford") leases space in Parklane Towers and Fairlane Commerce Park. Ford accounted for 11% and 12% of revenues in 2002 and 2001, respectively. The General Services Administration ("GSA") leases space in Corporate Square and Executive Park. GSA accounted for 17% and 14% of revenues in 2002 and 2001, respectively.

As of December 31, 2002, Ford leased 199,000 square feet of office space under seven leases at Parklane Towers and 224,000 square feet of office, technical laboratory and industrial space under seven leases at Fairlane Commerce Park. These leases expire between 2003 and 2005 and most contain options providing for one to ten year renewals. As of December 31, 2002, GSA leased 450,000 square feet of office space at Executive Park (including 128,000 square feet associated with a lease that begins in 2003 - see "Liquidity and Capital Resources - Property Development at Executive Park") under seven leases which expire between 2003 and 2015. Also, as of December 31, 2002, GSA leased 310,000 square feet of office space at Corporate Square under three leases which expire in 2004, 2013 (with a right to early terminate in 2008) and 2020. The remaining tenants are not concentrated in any one industry, nor is HRP otherwise dependent on any group of related tenants for 10% or more of its revenues.

LITIGATION & JUDGMENT -

In July 2001, the Delaware Court of Chancery rendered its opinion for the action styled Gotham Partners, L.P. v. Hallwood Realty Partners, L.P., et al. (C.A. No. 15754). The court ruled that the defendants other than HRP pay a judgment to HRP in the amount of $3,417,423, plus pre-judgment interest from August 1995. The judgment amount represents what the court determined was an underpayment by Hallwood. In August 2001, plaintiff and certain defendants appealed the Court of Chancery's judgment to the Delaware Supreme Court. In October 2001, HRP received the $3,417,423 judgment together with $2,987,576 of interest, subject to an arrangement that it be returned in full or part if the judgment is modified or reversed on appeal. Oral arguments were heard in February 2002 and a rehearing en banc was held in March 2002. In August 2002, the Supreme Court affirmed the judgment of the trial court that the remaining defendants other than HRP are jointly and severally liable to HRP. The Supreme Court reversed the trial court's determination of damages, and remanded the case to the trial court to fashion appropriate relief. A hearing on the remand proceedings was held before the Court of Chancery in October 2002. A further hearing on the remand is scheduled to take place in May or June 2003, with a decision by the Court of Chancery to follow. (For more information about this litigation, see Item 3 - Legal Proceedings.) Since the appellate court reversed the judgment, any subsequent ruling by the trial court on remand may be more or less favorable to HRP. As a result of the uncertainty of the litigation's outcome, HRP recorded the judgment and interest as "Deferred Litigation Proceeds" on its balance sheet.

MORTGAGE LOANS -

Edgar Filing: HALLWOOD GROUP INC - Form 10-K

Substantially all of the buildings in HRP's real estate properties were encumbered and pledged as collateral by 11 non-recourse mortgage loans aggregating $197,552,000 as of December 31, 2002. These mortgage loans have interest rates varying from 2.68% to 8.70% (with an effective average interest rate of 7.51%) and mature between 2005 and 2020. Other than Allfirst Building's mortgage ($25,000,000), all mortgages have fixed interest rates. Most of the mortgage loans require monthly principal payments with balloon payments due at maturity. The following table shows for the years presented the principal and balloon payments that are required (in thousands):

	Principal Payments	Balloon Payments	Total Mortgage Loan Payments
	-----	-----	-----
2003	$ 3,998	$ --	$ 3,998
2004	4,310	--	4,310
2005	4,167	74,515	78,682
2006	2,852	25,000	27,852
2007	3,079	--	3,079
Thereafter	22,894	56,737	79,631
	-----	-----	-----
Total	$ 41,300	$ 156,252	$ 197,552
	=====	=====	=====

Since August 2000, HRP has had available a $2,000,000 revolving line of credit, which matures on July 29, 2003. The line of credit has a variable interest rate of either prime plus 0.50% or LIBOR plus 3.0% and requires monthly interest payments, but no principal amortization. HRP has not borrowed against this facility.

HRP has two mortgage loans that require compliance with a loan covenant, which if not met will trigger a default. The loans require the properties securing each loan to maintain a liquidity ratio, specifically a debt service coverage ratio. A debt service coverage ratio is the relationship of adjusted net operating income (as defined in each loan agreement) for the previous 12 months to the loan's annual debt service. The ratio, for a loan requiring a minimum 1.15 ratio, was 2.25, 2.35, and 2.19 for 2002, 2001, and 2000, respectively. The ratio, for a loan requiring a minimum 1.10 ratio, was 2.39, 1.94, and 2.45 for the same periods. Accordingly, HRP was in compliance with these loan covenants for the three years ended December 31, 2002. As of December 31, 2002, the outstanding balance of the loans is $111,553,000.

Additionally, these two mortgage loans contain restrictions that limit certain actions. With respect to the properties encumbered by these loans, HRP cannot incur additional debt. Also, HRP's ability to sell a property, or a portion thereof, is limited because of the requirement to substitute collateral with substantial penalty. These loans also, under certain circumstances, may restrict the ability of HRP to merge, to consolidate or to liquidate.

TRANSACTIONS WITH RELATED PARTIES -

Realty receives certain fees in connection with the ongoing management of HRP, including an asset management fee, acquisition fees and disposition fees. Specifically, Realty is entitled to receive an asset management fee equal to 1% of the net aggregate base rents of the Properties, acquisition fees equal to 1% of the purchase price of newly acquired properties, and disposition fees with respect to real estate investments, other than the properties owned at the time of HRP's formation in 1990, equal to 10% of the amount, by which the sales price of a property exceeds the purchase price of such property.

HCRE receives compensation in connection with the management of the Properties, which includes a property management fee, lease commissions and construction supervision fees. The management contracts expire June 30, 2004 and provide for basic compensation from a property management fee in an amount equal to 2.85% of cash receipts collected from the Properties' tenants, lease commissions equal to the current commission market rate as applied to the net aggregate rent (none exceeding 6% of the net aggregate rent), and construction supervision fees for administering all construction projects equal to 5% of the total contracted costs of each capital expenditure or tenant improvement project.

Realty and HCRE are compensated for services provided to HRP and its Properties as described above and are reimbursed, at cost, for certain costs and expenses. In particular, since HRP does not directly employ any individuals, the compensation and other costs related to approximately 90 employees rendering services on behalf of HRP and its properties are reimbursed to Realty and HCRE by HRP. The following table sets forth such compensation and reimbursements paid by HRP (in thousands):

	Entity Paid or Reimbursed	2002	2001	2000
	-----	-----	-----	-----
Asset management fee	Realty	$ 618	$ 609	$ 58
Acquisition fee	Realty	--	--	7

Construction fees	HCRE	582	1,204	91
Reimbursement of costs(c)	HCRE	3,916	3,826	3,52

- (a) These expenses are recorded as general and administrative expenses and represent reimbursement, at cost, to Realty for administrative level employee and director compensation, officer and director liability insurance, and allocated overhead costs. HRP pays its account balance with Realty on a monthly basis.
- (b) As of December 31, 2002, $567,000 of the 2002 lease commissions are accrued and are scheduled to be paid in 2003.
- (c) These costs are recorded as property operating expenses and represent reimbursement to HCRE for property-level employee compensation and related expenses.

Edgar Filing: HALLWOOD GROUP INC - Form 10-K

In January 2001, HRP acquired a construction development consulting contract from Hallwood regarding a project in Tulsa, Oklahoma with an unrelated third party. In connection therewith, HRP reimbursed Hallwood for its actual costs incurred related to the project of $281,000.

INFLATION -

Inflation did not have a significant impact on HRP during the three years ended December 31, 2002 and is not anticipated to have a material impact in 2003.

RISKS, COMPETITION AND OTHER FACTORS -

For information about risks, see "Risks, Competition and Other Factors" in Item 1 - Business.

PROPERTY DEVELOPMENT AT EXECUTIVE PARK -

In early 2001, HRP demolished a one-story office building at its Executive Park property, which contained 18,000 net rentable square feet. In order to do so, HRP obtained a release of the building from Executive Park's mortgage lien by substituting for such collateral $608,000 of United States Treasury Bonds, which have various maturity dates through December 2007. In February 2001, HRP began constructing a five-story office building containing 128,000 net rentable square feet. The building and its parking garage, excluding tenant finish-out, was completed in April 2002. HRP incurred and capitalized $15,370,000 of construction and development costs, which included all of the costs for the building and its parking garage (excluding the existing land costs). A seven-year lease for the entire building, with an option for five additional years, with the General Services Administration was executed in September 2002 and will commence upon the completion of tenant improvements, estimated to be sometime between May and August 2003. The lease commissions incurred were $777,000, while the tenant improvements are estimated to be $4,500,000. All development and leasing costs have been or will be paid from cash funds on hand; however, it is anticipated that loan financing of $15,000,000 to $16,000,000 will be obtained in the second half of 2003.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS -

In the interest of providing investors with certain information regarding HRP's future plans and operations, certain statements set forth in this Form 10-K relate to management's future plans, objectives and expectations. Such statements are forward-looking statements. Although any forward-looking statements contained in this Form 10-K or otherwise expressed by or on behalf of HRP are, to the knowledge and in the judgment of the officers and directors of the General Partner, expected to prove true and come to pass, management is not able to predict the future with absolute certainty. Although HRP believes that the assumptions underlying the forward-looking statements are reasonable, any of the assumptions could be inaccurate and, therefore, there can be no assurance that the forward-looking statements will prove to be accurate.

Forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks and uncertainties, which may cause HRP's actual performance and financial results in future periods to differ materially from any projection, estimate or forecasted result. These risks and uncertainties include the risks identified under "Risks, Competition and Other Factors" in Item 1 - Business.

ITEM 7a. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

Edgar Filing: HALLWOOD GROUP INC - Form 10-K

On July 27, 2000, HRP sold its interest rate swap agreement for $1,597,000. HRP had entered into the interest rate swap agreement in 1998 to reduce its exposure to changes in interest rates for the loan secured by Allfirst Building. This interest rate swap agreement effectively fixed the loan's cash interest rate at 6.78%, as opposed to the mortgage loan interest rate of LIBOR plus 1.30% (or 7.94% at the time of the swap agreement sale). The proceeds from the sale were designated for general working capital purposes. For financial reporting purposes, the proceeds are being amortized over the life of the loan as a reduction to interest expense. During 2001, as the result of the adoption of SFAS No. 133 "Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities", HRP reclassified the remaining unamortized gain from liabilities to accumulated other comprehensive income. The proceeds will continue to be amortized over the life of Allfirst Building's mortgage payable as a reduction to interest expense. As of December 31, 2002 and 2001, the unamortized balance, included on the balance sheet as "Accumulated other comprehensive income", was $926,000 and $1,204,000, respectively.

Also on July 27, 2000 and in connection with the sale of the swap agreement, HRP purchased an interest rate cap for Allfirst Building's mortgage loan for $288,000, which limits HRP's exposure to changing interest rates to a maximum of 10%. This interest rate cap, which has a notional amount of $25,000,000, has terms consistent with Allfirst Building's mortgage loan. Allfirst Building's cash interest rate was 2.68% and 3.44% as of December 31, 2002 and 2001, respectively. The interest rate cap is a derivative and designated as a cash flow hedge. Hedge effectiveness is measured based on using the intrinsic value of the interest rate cap. All changes in the fair value of the time value of the cap are recorded directly to earnings. With the January 1, 2001 adoption of SFAS No. 133, HRP recorded the cumulative effect of the adoption as a reduction to income of $192,000, or the amount of the difference between the carrying value as of January 1, 2001 of $267,000 and the then estimated fair value of $75,000, all of which represented change in time value. Thereafter, on a quarterly basis, HRP has recorded changes in the estimated fair value of the cap in interest expense. As of December 31, 2002 and 2001, the estimated fair value of the interest rate cap was $55,000 and $68,000, respectively.

Other than Allfirst Building's mortgage ($25,000,000), all mortgages have fixed interest rates. Accordingly, changes in LIBOR or the prime rate do not significantly impact the amount of interest paid by HRP. Assuming a 100 basis point, or 1%, change in LIBOR, interest paid by HRP would increase or decrease by $250,000 on an annual basis.

HALLWOOD REALTY PARTNERS, L.P.
 NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
 Three Years Ended December 31, 2002

1 ORGANIZATION

Hallwood Realty Partners, L.P. ("HRP"), a publicly traded Delaware limited partnership, operates in the commercial real estate industry. HRP's activities include the acquisition, ownership and operation of its commercial real estate assets. Units representing limited partnership interests are traded on the American Stock Exchange under the symbol "HRY". As of December 31, 2002 there were 1,589,948 units outstanding.

As of December 31, 2002, HRP owned 14 real estate assets (the "Properties") located in six states containing 5,199,000 net rentable square feet. HRP seeks to maximize the value of its real estate by making capital and tenant improvements, by executing marketing programs to attract and retain tenants, and by controlling or reducing, where possible, operating expenses.

Hallwood Realty, LLC ("Realty" or the "General Partner"), a Delaware limited liability company and indirectly wholly-owned subsidiary of The Hallwood Group Incorporated ("Hallwood"), is HRP's general partner and is responsible for asset management of HRP and its Properties, including decision-making responsibility for financing, refinancing, acquiring and disposing of properties. In addition, Realty provides general operating and administrative services to HRP. Hallwood Commercial Real Estate, LLC ("HCRE"), another indirectly wholly-owned subsidiary of Hallwood, provides property management, leasing and construction supervision services to the Properties.

2 ACCOUNTING POLICIES

CONSOLIDATION

HRP fully consolidates into its financial statements majority owned entities. For each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2002, all entities and Properties were fully owned. All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

HRP has, in three situations, created a Special Purpose Entity ("SPE"). These SPEs were formed at the request of lenders for the express purpose of strengthening the collateral for the loans by isolating (for Federal bankruptcy law purposes) the assets and liabilities of the SPEs. In all cases and since their various formation dates, the assets, liabilities and results of operations of these wholly-owned entities have been fully consolidated into the financial statements of HRP.

CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

HRP considers highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less at the time of purchase to be cash equivalents.

PROPERTY

Property is stated at cost. Renovations and improvements are capitalized; maintenance and repairs are expensed. When an asset is sold or otherwise disposed of, the related cost and accumulated depreciation are removed from the accounts and any gain or any previously unanticipated loss is recognized in the year of sale or disposition. HRP reviews for impairment losses on its real estate assets when events and circumstances indicate that the assets might be impaired. If such indication is noted, an undiscounted cash flow analysis is performed, and in the event undiscounted cash flow estimated to be generated by an asset over the remaining depreciable life of that asset is less than its carrying value, then the asset would be written down to its fair value. Cash flow estimates are based on historical results adjusted to our best estimate of future market and operating conditions. Significant assumptions used in this process include an evaluation of leases in place, future rental and occupancy rates, and the level of expected operating expenses. For the three years ended December 31, 2002, HRP has not recorded a write-down or impairment of the carrying value of any real estate property based on these calculations.

HALLWOOD REALTY PARTNERS, L.P.
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Should HRP decide to sell a property and actively commence the disposal process, all of the assets, liabilities, income, and expenses associated with such property will be segregated in the financial statements. At such time, an evaluation for potential impairment will be made using an estimate of the selling price less selling costs.

Depreciation of buildings is computed using the straight-line method over estimated useful lives ranging from 15 to 43 years. Equipment and other improvements are depreciated on the straight-line method over estimated useful lives ranging from 3 to 23 years. Tenant improvements are capitalized and amortized over the terms of the respective leases or useful life, if shorter.

Edgar Filing: HALLWOOD GROUP INC - Form 10-K

HRP capitalizes all costs related to the development and construction of its projects, including interest of $256,000, $486,000, and $493,000 in 2002, 2001, and 2000, respectively. The development period of a project is considered to have begun when activities related to the construction of the project or a portion thereof has commenced. All costs for construction are capitalized and allocated to each building. Capitalization of such costs is discontinued when the building is available for occupancy.

HRP would accrue for losses associated with environmental remediation obligations if such losses were probable and reasonably estimable. Accruals for estimated losses from environmental remediation obligations would generally be recognized no later than completion of a remedial feasibility study. Such accruals would be adjusted as further information developed or circumstances changed. Costs of future expenditures for environmental remediation obligations would not be discounted to their present value. Recoveries of environmental remediation costs from other parties are recorded as assets when their receipt is deemed probable. HRP's management is not aware of any environmental remediation obligations which would materially affect the operations, financial position or cash flows of HRP and therefore has made no loss accruals.

OTHER ASSETS

Lease concessions and commissions are amortized over the terms of the respective leases. Leases at the Properties expire from 2003 to 2020. Loan costs are amortized over the terms of the respective loans. The loans mature between 2005 and 2020. Amortization of lease commissions, included in depreciation and amortization expense, was $2,817,000, $2,889,000, and $3,180,000 in 2002, 2001, and 2000, respectively. Amortization of loan costs, included in interest expense, was $591,000, $624,000, and $855,000 in 2002, 2001, and 2000, respectively. The caption "Prepaid expenses and other assets" on the Consolidated Balance Sheets includes prepaid real estate taxes, prepaid insurance and other miscellaneous deposits and prepaid expenses.

REVENUE RECOGNITION

Rental income is recognized as earned on a straight-line basis over the terms of the respective leases. Amortization of effective rent income adjustments, included in property operations revenues, was $99,000, $256,000, and $569,000 in 2002, 2001, and 2000, respectively. Lease provisions generally require tenants to pay their proportionate share of certain building operating costs and real property taxes. Revenue from these expense recoveries, included in property operations, are recorded as earned and was $3,755,000, $4,197,000, and $3,315,000 in 2002, 2001, and 2000, respectively.

Revenues and expenses from short-term construction and tenant service projects are recorded at the time of project completion. Revenues and expenses from long-term construction projects are accounted for using the percentage-of-completion method. Reclassifications, including a gross-up for parking, construction and tenant service expenses that were previously netted against revenues, have been made in the prior year amounts to conform to the classifications used in the current year. The reclassifications occurred due to the adoption of EITF No. 01-14, "Income Statement Characterization of Reimbursements Received for Out-of-Pocket Expenses Incurred". The reclassifications had no effect on previously reported net income or loss.

INTEREST RATE AGREEMENTS

HRP has used an interest rate swap as a hedge against interest exposure of variable rate debt. HRP's only interest rate swap was sold in July 2000. Differences between amounts paid or received in this interest rate agreement, which was designated as a hedge, were included in interest expense as the payments were made or received. HRP was exposed to credit-related gains or losses in the event of non-performance by counterparties, however none of the counterparties failed to meet their obligations during the term of the agreement. In July 2000, in connection with the sale of the interest rate swap, HRP purchased an interest rate cap derivative that limits its interest rate exposure on its mortgage for Allfirst Building (see Notes 6 and 9 for more information).

INCOME TAXES

Currently, HRP is a non-taxable entity. Federal and state income taxes, if any, are the responsibility of the individual partners. Accordingly, the Consolidated Financial Statements do not include a provision for income taxes. However, certain business and franchise taxes are the responsibility of HRP and subsidiary entities. These business and franchise taxes, included in general and administrative expenses, were $280,000, $178,000, and $182,000 in 2002, 2001, and 2000, respectively. HRP's tax returns are subject to examination by federal and state taxing authorities. If HRP's amounts are ultimately changed by the taxing authorities, the tax liability of the partners could be changed accordingly. Additionally, no assurance can be given that the federal or state governments will not pass legislation that will characterize HRP as an association taxable as a corporation for federal income tax purposes. Such classification may have an adverse effect on HRP.

EQUITY-BASED COMPENSATION

Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 123, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation" establishes a method of accounting whereby recognized option pricing models are used to estimate the fair value of equity-based compensation, including options. HRP has elected, as provided by SFAS No. 123, not to recognize employee equity-based compensation expense as calculated under SFAS No. 123, but has recognized such expense in accordance with the provisions of Accounting Principles Board Opinion No. 25, "Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees". As the only options of HRP fully vested in 1997, there is no difference between the historical operations and pro forma operations for each of the three years ended December 31, 2002 had the expense provisions of SFAS No. 123 been adopted.

COMPUTATION OF NET INCOME (LOSS) PER UNIT

Edgar Filing: HALLWOOD GROUP INC - Form 10-K

Basic earnings per unit is computed by dividing results attributable to the limited partners' interests by the weighted average number of units outstanding. Earnings per unit assuming dilution is computed by dividing results attributable to the limited partners' interests by the weighted average number of units and potential units outstanding. Options to acquire units were issued during 1995 and are considered to be potential units. The number of potential units is computed using the treasury stock method which assumes that the increase in the number of units is reduced by the number of units which could have been repurchased by HRP with the proceeds from the exercise of these options. The following table illustrates the amounts used to calculate the weighted average number of units outstanding:

	2002	2001
	-----	-----
Weighted average units outstanding - basic	1,590	1,590
Potential weighted average units issued from options	69	69
Potential repurchase of units from unit option proceeds	(11)	(14)
	-----	-----
Potential weighted average units outstanding - assuming	1,648	1,645

COMPREHENSIVE INCOME

Comprehensive income items are revenues, expenses, gains and losses that under accounting principles generally accepted accounting principles are excluded from current period results and reflected as a component of equity. HRP recorded comprehensive income related to its unrealized gain from the sale of an interest rate swap.

SEGMENT REPORTING

Operating segments are defined as components of an entity for which separate financial information is available that is evaluated by the chief operating decision-maker in deciding how to allocate resources and in assessing performance. Management believes that HRP operates in only one business segment, real estate.

RECENT ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS AND OTHER

SFAS No. 142 "Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets" was issued in June 2001 and was adopted January 1, 2002. Among other things, SFAS No. 142 requires that in conjunction with an acquisition of a property in the future all intangible assets associated with such property will be separately evaluated and recorded.

Edgar Filing: HALLWOOD GROUP INC - Form 10-K

SFAS No. 143 "Accounting for Asset Retirement Obligations" was adopted January 1, 2003. It establishes an accounting standard for recognition and measurement of a liability for an asset retirement obligation and the associated asset retirement cost. HRP has no such obligations as of December 31, 2002.

SFAS No. 144 "Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets" was adopted January 1, 2002 and requires current, as well as historical, results of operations for disposed properties and those properties held for sale that occur subsequent to January 1, 2002 to be reclassified and presented separately as discontinued operations.

SFAS No. 145 "Rescission of FASB Statements 4, 44 and 64, Amendment of FASB Statement No. 13, and Technical Corrections" was issued in April 2002 and was adopted in the fourth quarter of 2002. Among other things, SFAS No. 145 limits debt extinguishments that can be classified as extraordinary items. As a result, HRP has reclassified previously recorded gains and losses from early extinguishment of debt from an extraordinary item to current operations within interest expense. Accordingly, the reclassifications had no effect on previously reported net income or loss.

SFAS No. 146 "Accounting for Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities" was issued in June 2002 and will be effective for exit or disposal activities subsequent to December 31, 2002. HRP anticipates no material impact on its financial statements from the adoption of this accounting standard.

SFAS No. 148 "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation - Transition and Disclosure, an amendment of FASB Statement No. 123" was issued in December 2002 and provides new transition methods if an entity adopts the fair value based method of valuing stock-based compensation suggested in SFAS No. 123, as well as requiring additional disclosures in interim and annual financial statements. At this time, HRP expects that the impact will be limited to additional disclosure requirements.

In November 2002, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Interpretation No. 45 "Guarantor's Accounting and Disclosure Requirements for Guarantees, Including Indirect Guarantees of Indebtedness of Others" ("FIN 45"). FIN 45 requires that the guarantor recognize, at the inception of certain guarantees, a liability for the fair value of the obligation undertaken in issuing such guarantee. FIN 45 also requires additional disclosure about the guarantor's obligations under certain guarantees that it has issued. As of December 31, 2002 HRP had no such guarantees.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of certain assets, liabilities, revenues, expenses, and related disclosures, as of and for the reporting periods. Actual results may differ from these estimates under different assumptions or conditions.

The policies listed are not intended to be a comprehensive list of all of our accounting policies. In many cases, the accounting treatment of a particular transaction is specifically dictated by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, with no need for management's judgment in the application. There are also areas in which management's judgment in selecting any available alternative would not produce a materially different results.

3 STATEMENTS OF CASH FLOWS

Cash interest payments were $14,602,000 (net of capitalized interest of $256,000), $14,947,000 (net of capitalized interest of $486,000), and $13,831,000 (net of capitalized interest of $523,000) in 2002, 2001, and 2000, respectively.

Supplemental disclosure of noncash investing and financing activities are as follows -

As of December 31, 2001, HRP had a construction payable for property development at Executive Park of $250,000.

4 TRANSACTIONS WITH RELATED PARTIES

Realty receives certain fees in connection with the ongoing management of HRP, including an asset management fee, acquisition fees and disposition fees. Specifically, Realty is entitled to receive an asset management fee equal to 1% of the net aggregate base rents of the Properties, acquisition fees equal to 1% of the purchase price of newly acquired properties, and disposition fees with respect to real estate investments, other than the properties owned at the time of HRP's formation in 1990, equal to 10% of the amount, by which the sales price of a property exceeds the purchase price of such property.

HCRE receives compensation in connection with the management of the Properties, which includes a property management fee, lease commissions and construction supervision fees. The management contracts expire June 30, 2004 and provide for basic compensation from a property management fee in an amount equal to 2.85% of cash receipts collected from the Properties' tenants, lease commissions equal to the current commission market rate as applied to the net aggregate rent (none exceeding 6% of the net aggregate rent), and construction supervision fees for administering all construction projects equal to 5% of the total contracted costs of each capital expenditure or tenant improvement project.

Realty and HCRE are compensated for services provided to HRP and its Properties as described above and are reimbursed, at cost, for certain costs and expenses. In particular, since HRP does not directly employ any individuals, the compensation and other costs related to approximately 90 employees rendering services on behalf of HRP and its properties are reimbursed to Realty and HCRE by HRP. The following table sets forth such compensation and reimbursements paid by HRP (in thousands):

ENTITY PAID OR REIMBURSED	2002	2001	2000

(a) These expenses are recorded as general and administrative expenses and represent reimbursement, at cost, to Realty for administrative level employee and director compensation, officer and director liability insurance, and allocated overhead costs. HRP pays its account balance with Realty on a monthly basis.

(b) As of December 31, 2002, $567,000 of the 2002 lease commissions are accrued and are scheduled to be paid in 2003.

(c) These costs are recorded as property operating expenses and represent reimbursement to HCRE for property-level employee compensation and related expenses.

In January 2001, HRP acquired a construction development consulting contract from Hallwood regarding a project in Tulsa, Oklahoma with an unrelated third party. In connection therewith, HRP reimbursed Hallwood for its actual costs incurred related to the project of $281,000.

5 PROPERTY TRANSACTIONS

PROPERTY DEVELOPMENT AT EXECUTIVE PARK

In early 2001, HRP demolished a one-story office building at its Executive Park property in Atlanta, Georgia, which contained 18,000 net rentable square feet. In order to do so, HRP obtained a release of the building from Executive Park's mortgage lien by substituting for such collateral $608,000 of United States Treasury Bonds, which have various maturity dates through December 2007. In February 2001, HRP began constructing a five-story office building containing 128,000 net rentable square feet. The building and its parking garage, excluding tenant finish-out, was completed in April 2002. HRP incurred and capitalized $15,370,000 of construction and development costs, which included all of the costs for the building and its parking garage (excluding the existing land costs). A seven-year lease for the entire building, with an option for five additional years, with the General Services Administration was executed in September 2002 and will commence upon the completion of tenant improvements, estimated to be sometime between May and August 2003. The lease commissions incurred were $777,000, while the tenant improvements are estimated to be $4,500,000. All development and leasing costs have been or will be paid from cash funds on hand; however, it is anticipated that loan financing of $15,000,000 to $16,000,000 will be obtained in the second half of 2003.

Edgar Filing: HALLWOOD GROUP INC - Form 10-K

PROPERTY DEVELOPMENT AT CORPORATE SQUARE

During the second quarter of 2000, HRP completed new construction of a 6-story office building containing approximately 151,000 net rentable square feet that was commenced in the second quarter of 1999. It was constructed on undeveloped land within the Corporate Square complex in Atlanta, Georgia. A 20-year lease with the General Services Administration for the entire building was executed in 1999 and the tenant began paying rent August 2000.

The building construction, tenant improvements, lease commissions and loan costs totaled $18,779,000 (excluding the original land cost). In 1999, HRP incurred, in connection with the leasing of the entire project, $2,982,000 of lease commissions.

An interim-construction loan was secured in August 1999 that funded $12,621,000 of the costs ($6,998,000 in 1999 and $5,623,000 in 2000). On August 31, 2000, HRP secured permanent financing of $21,500,000. The loan's monthly payment is based on a twenty-year amortization period and matures August 15, 2020 and has a fixed interest rate of 7.97%. The loan proceeds repaid the interim-construction loan and replenished working capital for the completed project.

ACQUISITION

On January 26, 2000, HRP acquired three 3-story office buildings in San Diego, California (Fountain View Business Center) containing approximately 89,000 net rentable square feet on 4.3 acres of land. The acquisition cost was $7,791,000.

DISPOSITIONS

In March 2001, HRP sold Joy Road Distribution Center that contained 442,000 net rentable square feet on 21 acres for a gross selling price of $5,326,000. The carrying value of the assets was $2,994,000. The sale resulted in $4,916,000 of net proceeds to HRP and a net gain of $1,922,000. The net sale proceeds were used to pay the outstanding mortgage principal balance of $2,125,000, to pay a prepayment penalty of $14,000 to the lender, and to add $2,777,000 to general working capital. The prepayment penalty along with the writeoff of $31,000 of unamortized loan costs associated with the retired loan were expensed and are included in the Consolidated Statements of Operations as interest expense.

In January 2001, HRP sold one of the warehouse buildings at Seattle Business Parks that contained 63,000 net rentable square feet on 3.9 acres for a gross selling price of $3,287,000. The carrying value of the assets was $885,000. The sale resulted in $2,994,000 of net proceeds, which were added to HRP's working capital, and a net gain of $2,109,000.

Also in January 2001, HRP sold one building at Fairlane Commerce Park that contained less than 2,000 net rentable square feet on 0.5 acres for a gross selling price of $575,000. The carrying value of the assets was $372,000. The sale resulted in $525,000 of net proceeds, which were added to HRP's working capital, and a net gain of $153,000.

6 MORTGAGES PAYABLE

Substantially all of the buildings in HRP's real estate properties were encumbered and pledged as collateral by 11 non-recourse mortgage loans aggregating $197,552,000 as of December 31, 2002 and $201,224,000 as of December 31, 2001. These mortgage loans have interest rates varying from 2.68% to 8.70% (with an effective average interest rate of 7.51% as of December 31, 2002) and mature between 2005 and 2020. Other than Allfirst Building's mortgage ($25,000,000), all mortgages have fixed interest rates. Most of the mortgage loans require monthly principal payments with balloon payments due at maturity. The following table sets forth, by real estate property, mortgages payable balances as of December 31, 2002 and 2001 (in thousands), maturity dates, and interest rates:

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

6 MORTGAGES PAYABLE - (CONTINUED)

The following discussions pertain to financing and refinancing activities during the three years ended December 31, 2002.

ALLFIRST BUILDING

On July 27, 2000, HRP sold its interest rate swap agreement for $1,597,000. HRP had entered into the interest rate swap agreement in 1998 to reduce its exposure to changes in interest rates for the loan secured by Allfirst Building. This interest rate swap agreement effectively fixed the loan's cash interest rate at 6.78%, as opposed to the mortgage loan interest rate of LIBOR plus 1.30% (or 7.94% at the time of the swap agreement sale). The proceeds from the sale were designated for general working capital purposes. For financial reporting purposes, the proceeds are being amortized over the life of the loan as a reduction to interest expense. During 2001, as the result of the adoption of SFAS No. 133 "Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities", HRP reclassified the remaining unamortized gain from liabilities to accumulated other comprehensive income. The proceeds will continue to be amortized over the life of Allfirst Building's mortgage payable as a reduction to interest expense. As of December 31, 2002 and 2001, the unamortized balance, included on the balance sheet as "Accumulated other comprehensive income", was $926,000 and $1,204,000, respectively.

Also on July 27, 2000 and in connection with the sale of the swap agreement, HRP purchased an interest rate cap for Allfirst Building's mortgage loan for $288,000, which limits HRP's exposure to changing interest rates to a maximum of 10%. This interest rate cap, which has a notional amount of $25,000,000, has terms consistent with Allfirst Building's mortgage loan. Allfirst Building's cash interest rate was 2.68% and 3.44% as of December 31, 2002 and 2001, respectively. The interest rate cap is a derivative and designated as a cash flow hedge. Hedge effectiveness is measured based on using the intrinsic value of the interest rate cap. All changes in the fair value of the time value of the cap are recorded directly to earnings. With the January 1, 2001 adoption of SFAS No. 133, HRP recorded the cumulative effect of the adoption as a reduction to income of $192,000, or the amount of the difference between the carrying value as of January 1, 2001 of $267,000 and the then estimated fair value of $75,000, all of which represented change in time value. Thereafter, on a quarterly basis, HRP has recorded changes in the estimated fair value of the cap in interest expense. As of December 31, 2002 and 2001, the estimated fair value of the interest rate cap was $55,000 and $68,000, respectively.

BRADSHAW BUSINESS PARKS

In December 2000, HRP refinanced Bradshaw Business Park's existing loan with a new lender. The interest rate was reduced to 8.1% from 8.5% and the maturity date was extended by 17 years, subject to two call options exercisable by the lender on February 1, 2011 and February 1, 2016. The monthly principal payments amortize the loan over 20 years. The loan proceeds of $12,500,000 were used (i) to pay the outstanding principal balance of $5,724,000 with the former lender, (ii) to pay transaction costs of $267,000, (iii) to pay a prepayment penalty of $286,000, (iv) to fund $288,000 of loan reserves, and (v) to add $5,935,000 to general working capital. The prepayment penalty along with the writeoff of $103,000 of unamortized loan costs associated with the retired loan were expensed and are included in the Consolidated Statements of Operations as interest expense.

CORPORATE SQUARE

On August 7, 2001, HRP refinanced a mortgage loan secured by a portion of Corporate Square with a new lender. The interest rate was reduced to 7.7% from 8.625% and the maturity date was extended six years to August 2011. The monthly principal payments amortize the loan over 22.5 years. The loan proceeds of $10,000,000 were used to pay the outstanding mortgage principal balance of $2,760,000 with the former lender, to pay a prepayment penalty of $409,000, to pay transaction costs of $142,000, and for general working capital. The prepayment penalty along with the writeoff of $105,000 of unamortized loan costs associated with the retired loan were expensed and are included in the Consolidated Statements of Operations as an interest expense.

FOUNTAIN VIEW

In January 2000, HRP obtained financing of $5,500,000 in connection with the acquisition of Fountain View Business Center (three 3-story office buildings in San Diego, California). The loan has a monthly payment based on a twenty-year amortization, matures in ten years and has a fixed interest rate of 8.17%.

Edgar Filing: HALLWOOD GROUP INC - Form 10-K

JOY ROAD DISTRIBUTION CENTER

In August 2000, HRP received $3,000,000 of loan proceeds from a promissory term note secured by Joy Road Distribution Center in Detroit, Michigan. The loan proceeds were for general working capital purposes. The loan was scheduled to mature July 31, 2002, however it was paid off in March 2001 when Joy Road Distribution Center was sold. The loan had a variable interest rate of LIBOR plus 3.0%.

LINE OF CREDIT

Since August 2000, HRP has had available a $2,000,000 revolving line of credit, which matures on July 29, 2003. The line of credit has a variable interest rate of either prime plus 0.50% or LIBOR plus 3.0% and requires monthly interest payments, but no principal amortization. HRP has not borrowed against this facility.

RIVERBANK PLAZA

In May 2000, HRP closed on a new mortgage generating $2,500,000 of loan proceeds, which is secured by Riverbank Plaza (acquired in August 1999 in a cash transaction). The loan's monthly payment is based on a twenty-year amortization, matures in ten years and has a fixed interest rate of 8.29%. The loan proceeds were for general working capital purposes.

7 LEASE AGREEMENTS AND MAJOR TENANT INFORMATION

HRP leases and shares offices with Hallwood in Dallas, Texas under a lease which expires November 30, 2008. HRP has a one-time option to terminate the lease effective November 30, 2005. The annual minimum cash rental payments are $315,000, of which HRP's portion is approximately $210,000 annually.

Lease provisions generally require HRP's tenants to pay fixed rental amounts, plus their proportionate share of certain building operating costs and real property taxes. Revenue from expense recoveries, included in property operations, was $3,755,000, $4,197,000, and $3,315,000 in 2002, 2001, and 2000, respectively. In addition, certain leases include provisions for annual rental adjustments. Some leases contain provisions to allow a tenant to terminate their lease prior to its normal expiration. At December 31, 2002, the Properties, in the aggregate, were 91% leased. The following table sets forth the minimum cash rental payments to be received from leases in place as of December 31, 2002 (in thousands):

During 2002 and 2001, two tenants leasing space contributed 10% or more of HRP's revenues. Ford Motor Company and affiliates ("Ford") leases space in Parklane Towers and Fairlane Commerce Park. Ford accounted for 11% and 12% of revenues in 2002 and 2001, respectively. The General Services Administration ("GSA") leases space in Corporate Square and Executive Park. GSA accounted for 17% and 14% of revenues in 2002 and 2001, respectively.

7 LEASE AGREEMENTS AND MAJOR TENANT INFORMATION - (CONTINUED)

As of December 31, 2002, Ford leased 199,000 square feet of office space under seven leases at Parklane Towers and 224,000 square feet of office, technical laboratory and industrial space under seven leases at Fairlane Commerce Park. These leases expire between 2003 and 2005 and most contain options providing for one to ten year renewals. As of December 31, 2002, GSA leased 450,000 square feet of office space at Executive Park (including 128,000 square feet associated with a lease that begins in 2003 - see Note 5) under seven leases which expire between 2003 and 2015. Also, as of December 31, 2002, GSA leased 310,000 square feet of office space at Corporate Square under three leases which expire in 2004, 2013 (with a right to early terminate in 2008) and 2020. The remaining tenants are not concentrated in any one industry, nor is HRP otherwise dependent on any group of related tenants for 10% or more of its revenues.

8 PARTNERS' CAPITAL

In 1995, HRP issued options totaling 86,000 units to certain executives of Realty and HCRE with an exercise price of $11.875 per unit. The options were vested over a three year period ending in 1997 and they expire on February 27, 2005. As of December 31, 2002, 17,200 options had been exercised (all during 2000), none have been canceled and 68,800 options remained exercisable. In February 2003, options for 4,000 units were exercised by the estate of a deceased HCRE executive. No options have been granted since 1995.

As part of the resignation of Brian Troup as an officer and director of Hallwood and HRP's general partner on December 21, 1999, Hallwood transferred 82,608 units of HRP that it owned to a trust controlled by Mr. Troup. On May 12, 2000, Mr. Troup exercised his unit options to purchase 17,200 HRP units at the option plan's exercise price of $11.875 per unit, which generated $601,000 of non-cash compensation. Also on May 12, 2000, HRP purchased and retired all of Mr. Troup's above-mentioned 99,808 units at $46.825 per unit (the average of the closing market prices of the units for the twenty trading days prior to the purchase).

9 ESTIMATED FAIR VALUE OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

Estimated fair value amounts of certain financial instruments have been determined using available market information based upon negotiations held by Realty with potential lenders or other appropriate valuation methodologies that require considerable judgment in interpreting market data and developing estimates. Accordingly, the estimates presented herein are not necessarily indicative of the amounts that HRP could realize in a current market exchange. The use of different market assumptions and/or estimation methodologies may have a material effect on the estimated fair value amounts.

The fair value of financial instruments that are short-term or re-price frequently and have a history of negligible credit losses is considered to approximate their carrying value. These include cash and cash equivalents, short term receivables, accounts payable and other liabilities. Real estate and other assets are not considered financial instruments.

Management has reviewed the fair values of its mortgages payable in connection with interest rates currently available to HRP for borrowing with similar characteristics and maturities (approximately 7.5% as of December 31, 2002 and 2001). Based on those interest rates, management has determined that the estimated fair values of HRP's mortgages payable as of December 31, 2002 and 2001 would equal approximately $199,383,000 and $204,158,000, respectively, as compared to the carrying values of $197,552,000 and $201,224,000, respectively.

The estimated fair value of HRP's interest rate cap as of December 31, 2002 and 2001 was $55,000 and $68,000, respectively, based on quotes obtained from the issuer of the cap agreement (see Note 6 for more information). The carrying value of HRP's interest rate cap as of December 31, 2002 and 2001 was $55,000 and $68,000, respectively.

The fair value information presented herein is based on pertinent information available to management as of December 31, 2002. Although management is not aware of any factors that would significantly affect the estimated fair value amounts, such amounts have not been comprehensively revalued for purposes of these financial statements since that date and, therefore current estimates of fair value may differ significantly from the amounts presented herein.

10 COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

LITIGATION

On June 20, 1997, an action was filed against HRP, the General Partner, its directors, and Hallwood by Gotham Partners, L.P. in the Court of

Edgar Filing: HALLWOOD GROUP INC - Form 10-K

Chancery of the State of Delaware, styled Gotham Partners, L.P. v. Hallwood Realty Partners, L.P., et al. (C.A. No. 15754). This action alleges claims of breach of fiduciary duties, breach of HRP's partnership agreement, and fraud in connection with certain transactions involving HRP's units in the mid 1990's. Hallwood is alleged to have aided and abetted the alleged breaches. On June 21, 2000, after completing fact discovery, all parties moved for summary judgment on several issues. In September and October 2000, the Delaware court issued three separate written opinions resolving the summary judgment motions. In the opinions, the court ruled that trial would be required as to all issues, except that (i) Gotham was found to have standing to pursue its derivative claims; (ii) defendants were entitled to judgment dismissing the fraud claim; (iii) the General Partner was entitled to judgment dismissing the breach of fiduciary duty claims brought against it; and (iv) the General Partner's outside directors were entitled to judgment dismissing all claims brought against them.

A five-day trial was held in January 2001. On July 18, 2001, the Delaware Court of Chancery rendered its opinion. In its decision, the court determined that an option plan and a sale of units to Hallwood in connection with a reverse split of units implemented by HRP in 1995 were in compliance with HRP's partnership agreement. The court also found that the sale of units to Hallwood in connection with a 1995 odd-lot offer by HRP did not comply with certain procedures required by the HRP partnership agreement. The court ruled that the defendants other than HRP pay a judgment to HRP in the amount of $3,417,423, plus pre-judgment interest from August 1995. The judgment amount represents what the court determined was an underpayment by Hallwood. In August 2001, plaintiff and certain defendants appealed the Court of Chancery's judgment to the Delaware Supreme Court. In October 2001, HRP received the $3,417,423 judgment together with $2,987,576 of interest, subject to an arrangement that it be returned in full or part if the judgment is modified or reversed on appeal. Oral arguments were heard on February 12, 2002, and a rehearing en banc was held on March 26, 2002. On August 29, 2002, the Supreme Court affirmed the judgment of the trial court that the remaining defendants other than HRP are jointly and severally liable to HRP. The Supreme Court reversed the trial court's determination of damages, and remanded the case to the trial court to fashion appropriate relief. A hearing on the remand proceedings was held before the Court of Chancery on October 25, 2002. A further hearing on the remand is scheduled to take place in May or June 2003, with a decision by the Court of Chancery to follow. Since the appellate court reversed the judgment, any subsequent ruling by the trial court on remand may be more or less favorable to HRP. As a result of the uncertainty of the litigation's outcome, HRP recorded the judgment and interest as "Deferred Litigation Proceeds" on its balance sheet.

On February 15, 2000, HRP filed a lawsuit in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York styled Hallwood Realty Partners, L.P. v. Gotham Partners L.P., et al. (Civ. No. 00 CV 1115) alleging violations of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 by certain purchasers of its units, including Gotham Partners, L.P., Gotham Partners III, L.P., Private Management Group, Inc., Interstate Properties, Steven Roth and EFO Realty, Inc., by virtue of those purchasers' misrepresentations and/or omissions in connection with filings required under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The complaint further alleged that defendants, by acquiring more than 15% of the outstanding HRP units, have triggered certain rights under its Unit Purchase Rights Agreement, for which HRP was seeking declaratory relief. HRP sought various forms of relief, including declaratory judgments, divestiture, corrective disclosures, a "cooling-off" period and damages, including costs and disbursements. On November 16, 2000, the court granted HRP's motion to add as defendants Gotham Holdings II, L.L.C., Hallwood Investors, L.P., Liberty Realty Partners, L.P. and EFO/Liberty, Inc. and to remove EFO Realty, Inc. as a defendant. Discovery was completed in December 2000 and trial was held in February 2001. On February 23, 2001, the court rendered a decision in favor of the defendants and on February 28, 2001, the court ordered the complaint dismissed. HRP filed a Notice of Appeal on March 29, 2001. Oral argument was heard on March 4, 2002. On April 11, 2002, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit upheld the lower court's ruling in favor of defendants. On April 25, 2002, HRP filed with the court a Petition for Rehearing and Rehearing En Banc with respect to the April 11, 2002 decision. On June 3, 2002, the Second Circuit denied that petition. HRP has not sought further appellate review and the determination in favor of defendants is now final.

HRP is from time to time involved in various other legal proceedings and claims which arise in the ordinary course of business. These matters are generally covered by insurance. Management believes that the resolution of these matters will not have a material adverse effect on HRP's financial position, cash flow or operations.

ASBESTOS

The environmental laws of the federal government and of certain state and local governments impose liability on current property owners for the cleanup of hazardous and toxic substances discharged on such property. This liability may be imposed without regard to the timing, cause or person responsible for the release of such substances onto the property. HRP could be subject to additional liability in the event that it owns properties having such environmental problems. Parklane Towers, as well as certain other properties to a lesser extent, are known to contain asbestos. Removal of asbestos at HRP's properties is not required because it is cementitious, it is not friable and because the procedures in HRP's site environmental program Operations and Maintenance Manual are performed as required.

RIGHTS PLAN

HRP has a Unit Purchase Rights Agreement ("Rights Plan") that provides for a distribution of one right for each unit of HRP to holders of record at the close of business as of December 10, 1990. The rights will not trade separately from the units until, and will become exercisable only in the event, with certain exceptions, an acquiring party accumulates 15 percent or more of HRP's units, or if a party commences or announces an intent to commence a tender offer or exchange offer to acquire 30 percent or more of such units. Each right will entitle the holder to buy one additional unit at a price of $250. In addition, upon the occurrence of certain events, holders of the rights will be entitled to purchase either HRP units or shares in an "acquiring entity" at half of market value. HRP will generally be entitled to redeem the rights at $.01 per right at any time on or prior to the tenth day following the acquisition of a 15 percent or greater interest in its units. Unless and until a triggering event under the Rights Plan occurs, there is one right for each outstanding unit, the rights do not trade separately from the units, and the rights are not currently exercisable.

Edgar Filing: HALLWOOD GROUP INC - Form 10-K

OTHER

HRP has estimated and budgeted tenant and capital improvements of $15,631,000 and lease commissions of $2,851,000 for 2003.

ITEM 10. DIRECTORS AND EXECUTIVE OFFICERS OF THE REGISTRANT - (continued)

Section 16(a) of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 requires the officers and directors of Hallwood Realty, LLC and persons who own more than ten percent of HRP's units to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"). Officers, directors and greater than ten percent owners are required by the SEC regulations to furnish HRP with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file. Based solely on a review of the copies of such forms furnished to HRP, or written representations from certain reporting persons that no forms were required of those persons, HRP believes that during the period January 1, 2002 to December 31, 2002, all officers and directors of Hallwood Realty, LLC and ten percent owners complied with applicable filing requirements.

ITEM 11. EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE INTERLOCKS, INSIDER PARTICIPATION AND COMPENSATION OF DIRECTORS

Realty does not have a compensation committee and compensation decisions are made by the Board of Directors of Realty. During 2002, Messrs. Gumbiner and Guzzetti served on the Board of Directors of Realty. Mr. Gumbiner is also Chief Executive Officer of Hallwood and Realty, and a member of the Board of Directors of Hallwood, which serves as the compensation committee for Hallwood. Mr. Guzzetti is also President and Chief Operating Officer of Realty, and Executive Vice President of Hallwood. Messrs. Forsyth, Crisp, and Story were each paid $25,000 in 2002, 2001, and 2000, respectively, for director fees.

Realty receives certain fees in connection with the ongoing management of HRP, including an asset management fee, acquisition fees and disposition fees. Specifically, Realty is entitled to receive an asset management fee equal to 1% of the net aggregate base rents of the Properties, acquisition fees equal to 1% of the purchase price of newly acquired properties, and disposition fees with respect to real estate investments, other than the properties owned at the time of HRP's formation in 1990, equal to 10% of the amount, by which the sales price of a property exceeds the purchase price of such property.

HCRE receives compensation in connection with the management of the Properties, which includes a property management fee, lease commissions and construction supervision fees. The management contracts expire June 30, 2004 and provide for basic compensation from a property management fee in an amount equal to 2.85% of cash receipts collected from the Properties' tenants, lease commissions equal to the current commission market rate as applied to the net aggregate rent (none exceeding 6% of the net aggregate rent), and construction supervision fees for administering all construction projects equal to 5% of the total contracted costs of each capital expenditure or tenant improvement project.

Realty and HCRE are compensated for services provided to HRP and its Properties as described above and are reimbursed, at cost, for certain costs and expenses. In particular, since HRP does not directly employ any individuals, the compensation and other costs related to approximately 90 employees rendering services on behalf of HRP and its properties are reimbursed to Realty and HCRE by HRP. The following table sets forth such compensation and reimbursements paid by HRP (in thousands):
