EXPLANATORY NOTE

This Amendment No. 4 ("Amendment No. 4") is being made to the Schedule 13D as amended and restated by Amendment No. 2 filed on December 21, 2000 and as further amended by Amendment No. 3 filed on February 8, 2001 (the "Schedule 13D") jointly filed by William B. Turner and Sue Marie T. Turner, both in their individual capacities and as trustees of their respective grantor retained annuity trusts ("GRATs"). This Amendment No. 4 is being filed pursuant to Rules 13d-1(k)(1) and 13d-2 promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, to report: (1) the reorganization of TB&C Bancshares, Inc. ("TB&C") and the related distribution in liquidation by TB&C of 14,309,182 shares of common stock, $1.00 par value (the "Common Stock"), of Synovus Financial Corp., a Georgia corporation ("Synovus"), all of which were previously deemed to be beneficially owned indirectly by Mr. and Mrs. Turner; (2) the acquisition of 2,065,336 of such shares by Mr. Turner, as sole trustee of his GRAT; (3) the acquisition of 2,065,335 of such shares by Mrs. Turner, as sole trustee of her GRAT; and (4) the fact that Mr. and Mrs. Turner now beneficially own less than 5% of the outstanding shares of Synovus Common Stock. Other updating changes also are reflected in the items that are being amended.

ITEM 1. SECURITY AND ISSUER.

The information set forth in Item 1 of the Schedule 13D has not changed as of the date of this Amendment No. 4.

ITEM 2. IDENTITY AND BACKGROUND.

The information set forth in Item 2 of the Schedule 13D has not changed as of the date of this Amendment No. 4.

ITEM 3. SOURCE AND AMOUNT OF FUNDS OR OTHER CONSIDERATION.

Item 3 of the Schedule 13D is hereby amended to report a recent transaction involving TB&C that reduced Mr. and Mrs. Turner's beneficial ownership of Synovus Common Stock to below 5% of the outstanding shares of such Common Stock. As a result of Mr. Turner's position as a director of TB&C and Mr. Turner's and Mrs. Turner's positions as sole trustees of their respective GRATs, in which capacity they were significant shareholders of TB&C, Mr. and Mrs. Turner were deemed to beneficially own 14,309,182 shares of Synovus Common Stock that were owned by TB&C until the close of business on August 13, 2001. After the close of business and after the New York Stock Exchange closed on August 13, 2001, TB&C completed a reorganization (the "Reorganization") under Section 368(a)(1)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, in which:

- (a) TB&C transferred to Synovus the 14,309,182 shares of Synovus Common Stock that TB&C previously owned, and Synovus issued to TB&C the same number of newly issued shares of Synovus Common Stock, having the same rights as the shares surrendered; and

- (b) TB&C immediately distributed the 14,309,182 newly issued shares of Synovus Common Stock to TB&C's shareholders in proportion to their ownership of TB&C shares, all as part of the related liquidation and dissolution of TB&C.

The only shares of Synovus Common Stock previously owned by TB&C that Mr. and Mrs. Turner are deemed to beneficially own after the Reorganization are the shares distributed by TB&C to Mr. Turner and Mrs. Turner, each as sole trustee of his or her GRAT, of which he or she also is the sole annuity beneficiary. As trustee of his GRAT, Mr. Turner received 2,065,336 shares of Synovus Common Stock based on his ownership, as trustee of his GRAT, of 2,106,815 shares of TB&C Common Stock being cancelled in the dissolution of TB&C, and, as trustee of her GRAT, Mrs. Turner received 2,065,335 shares of Synovus Common Stock based on her ownership, as trustee of her GRAT, of 2,106,814 shares of TB&C Common Stock being cancelled in the dissolution of TB&C.

The only funds or other consideration that has been or will be given in connection with the Reorganization consists of: (a) the shares of Synovus Common Stock surrendered by TB&C to Synovus in exchange for the issuance of an equal number of new shares of Synovus Common Stock issued by Synovus to TBC and (b) the shares of TB&C Common Stock owned by Mr. Turner and Mrs. Turner, each as sole trustee of his or her GRAT (as well as the shares of TB&C Common Stock owned by the other TB&C shareholders) that are being cancelled in the dissolution of TB&C.

TB&C was formed in 1986 by Mr. Turner and his sisters, Elizabeth T. Corn and Sarah T. Butler, to effect various family, financial and estate planning goals. In 1986, Mr. Turner and his sisters contributed to TB&C a total of 1,766,637 shares (9.5% of the then outstanding shares) of Common Stock of Synovus that they and their ancestors had owned for many years. All of the shares of Synovus Common Stock that TB&C owned immediately prior to the Reorganization consisted of the shares initially contributed, a modest amount of additional shares contributed in 1990 by the three founding shareholders, and additional shares issued with respect to the contributed shares as a result of intervening stock splits, as reduced by two relatively modest charitable gifts of shares of Synovus Common Stock by TB&C. Stock splits, together with the sharing of voting and investment power over the shares his sisters contributed to TB&C and the sharing of voting power over shares as to which TB&C leased voting rights prior to January 22, 2001, accounted for the vast majority of increases from 1980 until August 13, 2001 in the number of shares shown as beneficially owned by Mr. Turner from time to time in his Schedule 13D filings.

As of the date of this report, TB&C no longer owns or votes any shares of Synovus Common Stock.

ITEM 4. PURPOSE OF TRANSACTION.

As indicated under Item 3, TB&C was formed to allow Mr. Turner and his sisters to effect various family, financial and estate planning goals for themselves and their lineal descendants. As previously disclosed in Amendment No. 3, Mr. Turner and the other family members who are directors of TB&C concluded, based on their continuing evaluation of the families' circumstances and on the advice of their professional advisors, that achievement of these goals would be advanced by the Reorganization of TB&C (including the distribution in liquidation by TB&C to its shareholders of all shares of Synovus Common Stock owned by TB&C). The Reorganization and related distribution of Synovus shares were completed on August 13, 2001.

Neither Mr. Turner nor Mrs. Turner has any plans or proposals that relate to or would result in: (a) any person acquiring additional securities of Synovus or disposing of securities of Synovus (except through any distributions in kind by Mr. and Mrs. Turner as trustees of their respective GRATs (or possibly sales by them as trustees of such GRATs) of shares of Synovus Common Stock to satisfy annuity payments due to Mr. and Mrs. Turner as annuity beneficiaries of such GRATs, and through Mr. Turner's participation in Synovus' Director Stock Purchase Plan or Synovus' Dividend Reinvestment and Direct Stock Purchase Plan); (b) an extraordinary corporate transaction involving Synovus; (c) a sale or transfer of a material amount of the assets of Synovus or any of its subsidiaries; (d) any change in the present board of directors or management of Synovus; (e) any material change in the present capitalization or dividend policy of Synovus; (f) any other material change in Synovus' business or corporate structure; (g) any changes in Synovus' charter or bylaws or other actions that might impede the acquisition of control of Synovus; (h) the delisting of Synovus Common Stock from the New York Stock Exchange; (i) the eligibility of Synovus Common Stock for termination of registration pursuant to Section 12(g)(4) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended; or (j) any action similar to any of those enumerated in items (a) through (i) above.

ITEM 5. INTEREST IN SECURITIES OF THE ISSUER.

(a) and (b) The percentages set forth below and on pages 2-3 hereof are based on 291,093,083 shares of Synovus Common Stock outstanding on August 23, 2001, as provided by Synovus.

Mr. Turner. Mr. Turner could be construed to be the beneficial owner of 6,792,215.871 shares (2.3%) of Synovus Common Stock. Certain of these shares have been beneficially owned by Mr. Turner for a number of years, with such beneficial ownership often pre-dating the organization of Synovus and extending to comparable beneficial ownership of the securities of Columbus Bank and Trust Company, the lead bank subsidiary for which Synovus was initially organized to acquire in 1972.

Mr. Turner has sole voting and investment power as to 2,086,996.871 shares of Synovus Common Stock, consisting of: (a) 21,660.871 shares that he owns directly; and (b) 2,065,336 shares owned by Mr. Turner as sole trustee of his GRAT. Mr. Turner has sole voting power as to an additional 51,862 shares, shared voting power as to 4,653,357 shares and shared investment power as to 4,705,219 shares of Synovus Common Stock, consisting of: (a) 51,862 shares owned by Synovus Trust Company ("STC"), a wholly owned subsidiary of Synovus, as sole trustee of a revocable trust for the benefit of Mr. Turner ("Mr. Turner's Living Trust") and subject to Mr. Turner's directions as to distributions and his right to vote the Synovus shares, as to which Mr. Turner has sole voting power, but shares investment power (based on Mr. Turner's power to direct distributions from and to revoke the trust) with STC, as trustee of such trust; (b) 19,817 shares owned by STC, as sole trustee of a revocable trust for the benefit of Mrs. Turner ("Mrs. Turner's Living Trust") and subject to Mrs. Turner's directions as to distributions and her right to vote the Synovus shares, as to which Mr.

Edgar Filing: TURNER WILLIAM B - Form SC 13D/A

Turner shares voting power and investment power with Mrs. Turner (based on Mrs. Turner's power to vote such shares and to direct distributions from and to revoke the trust) and as to which investment power is shared also with STC, as trustee of such trust; (b) 2,065,335 shares owned by Mrs. Turner as sole trustee of her GRAT, as to which voting power and investment power may be deemed to be shared by Mrs. Turner as trustee with her husband; and (c) 2,568,205 shares owned by Bradley-Turner Foundation, Inc. (the "B-T Foundation"), a charitable foundation of which both Mr. and Mrs. Turner are trustees and as to which voting power and investment power are shared with the other trustees of such foundation.

Mrs. Turner. Mrs. Turner could be construed to be the beneficial owner of 4,653,357 shares (1.6%) of Synovus Common Stock. Mrs. Turner has shared voting and investment power as to all of these shares, consisting of: (a) 19,817 shares owned by STC, as sole trustee of Mrs. Turner's Living Trust and subject to Mrs. Turner's directions as to distributions and her right to vote the Synovus shares, as to which Mrs. Turner shares voting power and investment power with Mr. Turner (based on Mrs. Turner's power to vote such shares and to direct distributions from and to revoke the trust) and as to which investment power is shared also with STC, as trustee of such trust; (b) 2,065,335 shares owned by Mrs. Turner as sole trustee of her GRAT, as to which voting power and investment power may be deemed to be shared with Mr. Turner; and (c) 2,568,205 shares owned by the B-T Foundation, as to which voting power and investment power are shared with the other trustees of the B-T Foundation. Based on the active and long-standing relationship of Mr. Turner and his ancestors with Synovus and its predecessor and on other considerations, Mr. Turner and Mrs. Turner do not believe that Mrs. Turner shares any voting or investment power over: (a) the 21,660.871 shares of Synovus Common Stock owned directly by Mr. Turner; (b) the 51,862 shares owned by STC as sole trustee of Mr. Turner's Living Trust; or (c) the 2,065,336 shares owned by Mr. Turner as sole trustee of his GRAT. Accordingly, such shares have been excluded from the total shares shown as beneficially owned by Mrs. Turner and she disclaims beneficial ownership of such shares.

Additional information regarding the persons and entity with whom Mr. and Mrs. Turner share voting power and/or investment power is included in the following chart.
