Item 1. Description of Business

The Bank of South Carolina (the Bank) is a FDIC insured, state-chartered financial institution, which was organized on October 22, 1986, and opened for business on February 26, 1987. The Bank is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Bank of South Carolina Corporation (the Company). The reorganization of The Bank of South Carolina into a subsidiary of a one-bank holding company became effective on April 17, 1995. Each issued and outstanding share of the Bank was exchanged for two shares of Bank of South Carolina Corporation stock. Since the primary asset of the Company is its wholly-owned subsidiary, the majority of the following discussion relates to the Bank.

The Bank serves Berkeley, Charleston and Dorchester counties (the Tri-County Area) as an independent, community-oriented commercial bank concentrating on individuals and small and medium-sized businesses desiring a high level of personalized services.

The Bank offers a full range of deposit services. Checking account services include regular non-interest bearing checking accounts as well as interest bearing negotiable order of withdrawal (NOW) accounts. Savings and certificate of deposit accounts include accounts ranging from a daily maturity (regular savings and also money market accounts) to longer term certificates as authorized by regulation. The Bank offers tiered interest to its customers on both money market and NOW accounts. In addition, Individual Retirement Accounts are available. All deposit accounts are insured by the FDIC to the full amount permitted by law. Deposit accounts are solicited from individuals, businesses, professional organizations and governmental authorities.

Lending services include a full range of commercial, personal and mortgage loans. The Bank's primary focus is on business lending. The types of commercial loans that are available include both secured and unsecured loans for working capital (including inventory and receivables), business expansion (including acquisition of real estate and improvements) and purchase of machinery and equipment. From time to time the Bank may make real estate loans for land acquisition, land development or construction loans. The types of personal loans that are available include secured and unsecured loans for such purposes as financing automobiles, home improvements, education, lot acquisition, construction, home equity loans and personal investments. In the fourth quarter of 1993, a residential mortgage lending department was opened with mortgage loans being provided through correspondent relationships. The Bank originates, processes and closes the loan and sells (each individually) to a correspondent.

The Bank offers credit cards (through correspondent banking services) including MasterCard (TM) and Visa (TM) along with a personal checking account related line of credit. The line of credit is available for both protection against unexpected overdrafts and also for the convenience of having a pre-arranged loan that can be activated simply by a check drawn on a personal checking account. Other services offered, but not limited to, include safe deposit boxes, letters of credit, travelers checks, direct deposit of payroll, social security and dividend payments and automatic payment of insurance premiums and mortgage loans. The Bank does not have a proprietary automated teller machine but participates in a national ATM network through the Visa Debit Card Program. This service is called Check Card by the Bank and also offers purchases by the cardholder where Visa debit cards are accepted worldwide using a direct charge to their checking account. The Bank offers a courier service and ACH organization service as part of its deposit services for commercial customers. During 2001, the Bank introduced Internet Banking. This service is called ESafe by the Bank and offers twenty-four hour information, up-to-the minute account activity, automatic transfers or one-time transfers between accounts, actual images of customer checks, and statement viewing. All banking services are available through four banking house locations, 256 Meeting Street, Charleston, SC, 100 N. Main Street, Summerville, SC, 1337 Chuck Dawley Boulevard, Mt. Pleasant, SC, and 2027 Sam Rittenberg Boulevard, Charleston, SC.

The Company is a bank holding company within the meaning of the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended and as such, is under the supervisory and regulatory authority of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (the Federal Reserve). The Company is publicly traded on the National Association of Securities Dealers Automated Quotations (NASDAQ), and is under the reporting authority of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). As a bank holding company registered under the laws of the South Carolina Bank Holding Company Act, the Company is also subject to regulation by the South Carolina State Board of Financial Institutions. Thus, the Company is required to file annual reports and other information with the Federal Reserve and the South Carolina State Board of Financial Institutions regarding its financial condition, results of operations, management and intercompany relationships and transactions between the Company and its subsidiaries.

The Company's subsidiary bank, The Bank of South Carolina, is a state chartered financial institution, and as such, is subject to various statutory requirements, supervision and regulation, of which regular bank examinations are a part, promulgated and enforced primarily by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and the South Carolina State Board of Financial Institutions.

The Company's accounting policies are discussed in Item 7, Note 1 to the Consolidated Financial Statements. Of these significant accounting policies, the Company considers its policies regarding the allowance for loan losses to be its most critical accounting policy due to the significant degree of management judgment. For additional discussion concerning the Company's allowance for loan losses and related matters, see Item 6, Allowance for Loan Losses. The Company was authorized by its Board of Directors at its December 1995, board meeting to repurchase up to 93,170 shares of its common stock on the open market from time to time, and, at its October, 1999 Board meeting, to repurchase up to 30,250 shares of its common stock on the open market from time to time, and, at its September, 2001 Board meeting, to repurchase up to 36,300 shares of its common stock on the open market from time to time. As of this date, 159,601 shares have been repurchased by the Company with 119 shares remaining that are authorized to be repurchased.

Compliance with federal, state and local provisions regulating the discharge of materials into the environment had no material effect on the capital expenditures, earnings and competitive position of the Bank in the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005.

At year-end 2005, the Bank employed 65 people, 1 of whom is considered a part time employee, none of whom are subject to a collective bargaining agreement. Management believes its relationship with its employees is excellent. The business of the Bank is not considered to be seasonal nor is the Bank's business dependent on any one industry. In the Bank's primary service area, there are 18 commercial banks, of which four are considered to have their headquarters in the Bank's service area. Of the 18 commercial banks, three have a large share of the market. These three are Wachovia Bank, N.A., Bank of America, N.A. and First Federal Savings and Loan Association. In addition, there are two savings banks and various credit unions with offices in the Tri-County Area. The Bank encounters strong competition from these financial institutions as well as consumer and commercial finance companies, insurance companies, brokerage firms and other financial institutions, some of which are not subject to the same degree of regulation and restrictions as the Bank. Many of these competitors have substantially greater resources and lending limits than the Bank has and offer certain services, such as trust and international banking services, which the Bank is not providing. The Bank does, however, provide a means for clearing international checks and drafts through a third party or correspondent bank.

Since January 1, 1986, South Carolina law has permitted regional interstate banking. Pursuant to such law, several of the banks in the Tri-County Area have been acquired by banks with headquarters outside the State of South Carolina. In addition, South Carolina laws permit statewide branching by banks and savings and loan associations. During 2005 and 2006 several banks have applied to open offices in the Tri-County Area, and two banks have applied for a De Novo Charter, which will increase competition.

Item 2. Description of Property

The Bank leases its headquarters and office facilities at 256 Meeting Street in downtown Charleston. Base rent is payable in equal monthly installments of $29,014 in advance to be renegotiated in March 2007. The base rent will increase at the end of each rental year by the lesser of (i) 8% of the base rent or (ii) the percentage increase in the Consumer Price Index, Urban Index, For All Wage Earners, issued by the U.S. Department of Labor.

On June 30, 1995, the Bank was successful in renegotiating its 256 Meeting Street facilities lease for one hundred forty (140) months with two additional ten-year terms. Base rent was $26,432 monthly payable in advance for the first twenty (20) months and the remaining one hundred twenty (120) months of the term (which began March 1, 1997) and for the two (2) extensions of the original term is $24,801 per month in advance and is adjustable by 4% of the base rent every two years. In addition, the Bank leases adjacent parking facilities at $2,928 per month.

In October of 1993, the Bank opened an office at 100 N. Main Street, Summerville, SC and entered into a lease agreement on August 9, 1993, with an original termination date of June 30, 1999, and two 5-year options to renew. In June of 2004, the bank was successful in renegotiating its 100 N. Main Street facilities lease beginning July 1, 2004 to an annual rent of $30,725 with an increase of $3,582 each year thereafter until July 1, 2009. The lease was a fixed rate of $2,262 through July 1, 2009, however, the new lease was negotiated so that the bank could remain in its current location with the option to expand. At the end of the Five year term (June 30, 2009) The Bank of South Carolina will have three (3) ten (10) year options for renewal. During the renewal periods, the annual rent will be adjusted by the current Consumer Price Index (CPI) capped at 3% annually.

On November 1, 1995, the Bank entered into an agreement with an individual to lease property for construction of a new banking facility at 1337 Chuck Dawley Boulevard, Mt. Pleasant, SC. The original term of the lease is for fifteen (15) years with six (6) additional terms of five (5) years each. The base rent for the first ten (10) years will be $2,250 per month paid in advance. Rent for years 11 through 15 and each six (6) option periods shall be adjusted to reflect an annualized return determined by multiplying the average yield on five (5) year U.S. Treasury Notes plus 150 basis points times an assumed raw land value of $325,000. The monthly rent, however, shall never be less than the original rent of $2,250 per month. In November 2005 it was determined that there would be no increase in the rent based on the above described formula.

In the first quarter of 1997, the Bank purchased one acre of land for approximately $838,000 in order to construct a full service banking office and operations center in the West Ashley community of Charleston. In March, 1998, the two-story, 12,000 square foot facility was completed at a cost of approximately $1,334,000 representing construction costs and furnishings. At this same time, the Bank spent approximately $839,000 to upgrade its computer system and to install a new check processing and check imaging system.

All leased properties are in good order and condition.

Item 3. Legal Proceedings

In the opinion of management, there are no legal proceedings pending other than routine litigation incidental to its business. To the knowledge of management, no proceedings have been instituted or are contemplated by or against any governmental authority against or by the Company or the Bank.

Item 4. Submission of Matters to a Vote of Security Holders

No matters were submitted to a vote of security holders during the fourth quarter of the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005.

PART IIItem 5. Market for the Company's Common Equity and Related Stockholder Matters

There were issued and outstanding 3,092,266 shares of the 6,000,000 authorized shares of common stock of the Company at the close of the Company's fiscal year ended December 31, 2005. These outstanding shares were held by approximately 1,200 shareholders in nominee names and of record on December 31, 2005. The common stock of the Company is traded in the capital market by five market making investment banking firms. These firms are The Robinson-Humphrey Company, Inc., Sterne, Agee & Leach, Inc., Scott and Stringfellow, Inc., Nite Securities LP and Speer, Leeds & Kellogg. Stock quotations are available through the National Association of Securities Dealers Automated Quotations (NASDAQ) where the Bank's shares are listed as BKSC.

According to information supplied by The Nasdaq Stock Market, the range of high and low bid quotations for each quarterly period in the fiscal years 2005, 2004 and 2003 has been as follows:

Item 6. Management's Discussion and Analysis or Plan of Operations

Management's discussion and analysis is included to provide the shareholders with an expanded narrative of the Company's results of operations, changes in financial condition, liquidity and capital adequacy. This narrative should be reviewed in conjunction with the audited consolidated financial statements and notes included in this report. Since the primary asset of the Company is its wholly-owned subsidiary, most of the discussion and analysis relates to the Bank.

DISCUSSION OF FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations and other portions of this annual report contain certain forward-looking statements concerning the future operations of the Bank of South Carolina Corporation. Management desires to take advantage of the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1996 and is including this statement for the express purpose of availing the Company of protections of such safe harbor with respect to all forward-looking statements contained in this Form 10-KSB. We have used forward-looking statements to describe future plans and strategies including our expectations of the Company's future financial results. Management's ability to predict results or the effect of future plans or strategies is inherently uncertain. Factors which could affect actual results include interest rate trends, the general economic climate in the Company's market area and the country as a whole, the ability of the Company to control costs and expenses, the ability of the Company to successfully address competitive products and pricing, loan delinquency rates, and changes in federal and state regulation. These factors should be considered in evaluating the forward-looking statements and undue reliance should not be placed on such statements.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The Company's significant accounting policies are set forth in Note One of the consolidated financial statements. Of these policies, the Company considers its policy regarding the allowance for loan losses to be its most subjective accounting policy due to the significant degree of management judgement. The Company has developed what it believes to be appropriate policies and procedures for assessing the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses, recognizing that this process requires a number of assumptions and estimates with respect to its loan portfolio. The Company's assessments may be impacted in future periods by changes in economic conditions, the impact of regulatory examinations and the discovery of information with respect to borrowers which were not known by management at the time of the issuance of the consolidated financial statements. For additional discussion concerning the Company's allowance for loan losses and related matters, see Allowance for Loan Losses .

OVERVIEW

Earnings for the year ended December 31, 2005 were $3,185,006 or basic and diluted earnings per share of $1.03 and $1.02, respectively, an increase of 73% over 2004's earnings of $1,845,623 or basic and diluted earnings per share of $.60. Earnings for the fourth quarter of 2005 were $952,671 or basic and diluted earnings per share of $.31 and $.30, respectively, up 81% from fourth quarter 2004 earnings of $524,929 or basic and diluted earnings per share of $.17. Our return on average equity and return on average assets for the year were 15.26% and 1.41%, respectively, compared to the 2004 return on average equity and return on average assets of 9.27% and .96%, respectively. During the first quarter of 2005, the Company increased its regular quarterly cash dividends from $.11 per share to $.12 per share. The Company had two regular quarterly cash dividends during the second and third quarter of $.12 per share, increasing the quarterly cash dividend to $.15 per share in the fourth quarter of 2005. The Company also declared a 10% stock distribution on April 12, 2005.

COMPARISON OF THE YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2005 TO DECEMBER 31, 2004

Net income increased $1,339,383 from $1,845,623 for 2004, to $3,185,006 for 2005, an increase of 73%. Basic and diluted earnings per share increased to 1.03 and $1.02, respectively for 2005, compared to basic and diluted earnings per share of $.60 for 2004. This increase is primarily due to an increase in interest and fees earned on loans caused by an increase in the volume of loans and an increase in interest rates earned on these loans. The interest and fees on loans increased $3,520,827 to $10,301,512 or 51.92% from $6,780,685 for the year ended December 31, 2004. Net interest income increased $2,691,023 or 38.19% to $9,737,350 from $7,046,327 for 2004. Net interest income depends upon the volume of and rates associated with interest earning assets and interest bearing liabilities, which result in the net interest spread. The net interest spread increased from 3.68% for the year ended December 31, 2004 to 3.98% for the year ended December 31, 2005. Average interest earning assets increased from $179,171,857 for the year ended December 31, 2004 to $212,558,731 for the year ended December 31, 2005. This increase is primarily due to the increase in average loans of $23,921,095. The yield on average loans increased 150 basis points to 6.97 from 5.47 for the year ended December 31, 2004. The average balance of investment securities available for sale and the average balance of federal funds sold increased $3,787,808 and $5,677,901, respectively. Average interest bearing liabilities increased from $117,834,551 for the year ended December 31, 2004 to $143,663,987 for the year ended December 31, 2005. This increase is primarily due to the increase in average transaction accounts as well as an increase in certificates of deposits of $21,886,912 and $7,018,523, respectively. The increase is offset slightly by a decrease in average saving accounts of $3,119,765. Net interest margin increased from 3.93% to 4.58% for the year ended December 31, 2005.

Total interest and fees earned on interest earning assets increased $4,479,420 or 56.67% to $12,383,548 for the year ended December 31, 2005. This increase is primarily due to the increase in average loans. The interest and fees on loans increased $3,520,827 or 51.92% to $10,301,512 for the year ended December 31, 2005 from $6,780,685 for the year ended December 31, 2004. The average balance of investment securities available for sale and the average balance of federal funds sold increased $9,465,709, collectively, which resulted in an 85% increase in the interest earned on these assets. The yield on average interest earning assets increased from 4.41% to 5.83%, an increase of 142 basis points between December 31, 2004 and December 31, 2005.

Total interest expense increased $1,788,397 or 208.47% to $2,646,198 for the year ended December 31, 2005 from $857,801 for the year ended December 31, 2004. This increase is primarily due to an increase in average balance of transaction accounts and certificates of deposits. The interest on deposits increased $1,776,050 or 208.70% to $2,627,103 for the year ended December 31, 2005 from $851,053 for the year ended December 31, 2004. The average cost on interest bearing liabilities increased 111 basis points between years to 1.84% for the year ended December 31, 2005 from .73% for the year ended December 31, 2004.

Total provision for loan losses for 2005 was $12,000 compared to a recovery of loan losses of ($103,000) for 2004. The provision for loan losses is recorded in amounts sufficient to bring the allowance for loan losses to a level deemed appropriate by management. Management determines this amount based upon many factors, including its assessment of loan portfolio quality, loan growth, changes in the loan portfolio composition, net loan charge-off levels, and expected economic conditions. Based on these factors management believes that the allowance for loan losses is adequate to absorb probable losses in the loan portfolio based on an evaluation at December 31, 2005; however, the process of assessing adequacy of the allowance is a process that requires considerable judgement. For further discussion, see Non accrual and Past Due Loans and Allowance for Loan Losses.

Total non interest income increased $39,757 or 2.27% to $1,788,472 for the year ended December 31, 2005 from $1,748,715 for the year ended December 31, 2004. Mortgage banking income increased 30.91% to 823,510 for the year ended December 31, 2005. This increase is primarily due to an increase in both origination fees and the gain on the sale of the mortgage loans in the secondary market. Mortgage loan origination fees increased $132,208 or 49.00% to $402,044 for the year ended December 31, 2005 from $269,836. Mortgage loans originated totaled $68,662,280 for the year ended December 31, 2005 compared to $58,767,560 for the year ended December 31, 2004. The discount fees earned on mortgage loans sold in the secondary market increased 89.64% to $453,384 for the year ended December 31, 2005 compared to $239,078 for the year ended December 31, 2004. This increase was primarily due to a correction of an error in accounting for a liability clearing account. The Company determined as of June 30, 2005, that the liability clearing account (discount points due investors) was not being properly recorded into mortgage banking income. The account was overstated by $142,971. The $142,971 was recorded as mortgage banking income for the twelve months ended December 31, 2005. Management determined that the error was not material to the financial statements. This increase is offset by a 36.84% increase in commissions paid due to the increase in volume of mortgage loan originations.

The increase in mortgage banking income is offset by a decrease in service charges and fees of $157,563 or 14.45% to $932,832 for the year ended December 31, 2005 from $1,090,395 for the year ended December 31, 2004. The fees earned on business accounts decreased $113,826 or 42.56% to $153,597 for the year ended December 31, 2005 from $267,423 for the year ended December 31, 2004. The decrease in the service charges on business accounts was caused by an increase in the earnings credit and an increase in average balances maintained, which offset the service charges. Bank overhead increased $455,658 or 7.50% to $6,529,267 for the year ended December 31, 2005 from $6,073,609 for the year ended December 31, 2004. The increase is primarily due to an increase of 9.99% in salaries and employee benefits and an increase of 7.69% in other expenses. Salaries increased 9.97% to $3,067,094 from $2,788,957 as a result of annual merit increases and a one time bonus to all employees totaling $87,000. Health insurance increases as well as an increase in the ESOP contribution, also contributed to the increase in salaries and employee benefits. Although we were able to reduce many of our expenses in 2005, we saw an increase in fees paid for accounting fees and general insurance on the Bank.

Income tax expense increased $820,739 or 83.85% to $1,799,549 for the year ended December 31, 2005 from $978,810 for the year ended December 31, 2004. This increase is due to higher levels of income. The company's effective tax rate was approximately 36.10% for the year ended December 31, 2005 and 34.66% for the year ended December 31, 2004.

COMPARISON OF THE YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2004 TO DECEMBER 31, 2003

Net income decreased $59,090 from $1,904,713 for 2003, to $1,845,623 for 2004 or 3% decreasing basic and diluted earnings per share to $.60 for 2004, compared to basic earning per share of $.62 and diluted earnings per share of $.61 for 2003. This decrease is primarily due to a decrease in our interest earned on investment securities available for sale, mortgage banking income and service charge fees on business account, offset by an increase in other interest income and the recovery of loan loss reserve. Interest on investment securities available for sale decreased $131,850 from $1,008,160 for 2003 to $876,310 for 2004. This decrease is due to the reinvestment of maturing securities at lower yields. Interest on federal funds sold increased $140,550 from $106,583 to $247,133 or 1.32%. Mortgage banking income decreased $278,555 from $907,608 for 2003 to $629,053 for 2004. The decrease in mortgage banking income is primarily due to the decrease in the volume of mortgage loan originations due to an increase in interest rates and an end to the refinance boom. The recovery of loan losses of ($103,000) was attributable to improvements in classified and delinquent loans. Service charge fees on business accounts decreased $31,950 to $267,423 for 2004 from $299,373 for 2003. The decrease in service charge fees on the business accounts was caused by an increase in the earnings credits and an increase in average balance maintained, which offset the service charges.

Net interest income depends upon the volume of and rates associated with interest earning assets and interest bearing liabilities, which result in the net interest spread. Net interest income decreased $44,187 from $7,090,514 for 2003 to $7,046,327 for 2004. This decrease is primarily due to a decrease in interest earned on investment securities and an increase on interest paid on interest bearing liabilities, which resulted in a decline in our net interest margin and a change in asset mix from a decrease in loans and mortgage loans held for sale and an increase in lower earning federal funds sold and investment securities. Net interest margin decreased from 4.36% for the year ended December 31, 2003 to 3.93% for the year ended December 31, 2004.

Total interest and fee income increased .62% or $48,967 to $7,904,128 at year ended December 31, 2004 from $7,855,161 at year ended December 31, 2003. This increase in interest and fee income is due to an increase in average earning assets. Average interest earning assets increased from $162,542,476 for the year ended December 31, 2003 to $179,171,857 for the year ended December 31, 2004 primarily due to an increase in average investments available for sale of $13,606,056 between periods. The yield on interest earning assets decreased 42 basis points between years to 4.41% for the year ended December 31, 2004 compared to 4.83% for the year ended December 31, 2003. The decrease in yield on average interest earning assets is due to a decrease in the yield on average investments available for sale of 223 basis points to 2.52% for the year ended December 31, 2004 compared to 4.75% for the year ended December 31, 2003.

Total interest expense increased 12.18% or $93,154 to $857,801 at December 31, 2004 from $764,647 at year end December 31, 2003. The increase in interest expense is primarily due to an increase in the interest bearing liabilities. Interest paid on deposits for the year ended December 31, 2004, was $851,053 compared to $757,755 for the year ended December 31, 2003, an increase of $93,298 or 12.31%. Total interest bearing deposits averaged approximately $117,249,815 for the year ended December 31, 2004 compared to $105,977,713 for the year ended December 31, 2003. The average cost of interest bearing liabilities was .73% and .72% for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003, respectively.

The total recovery of loan losses for 2004 was ($103,000) compared to a provision for loan losses of $9,230 for 2003. The decrease in the provision is attributable to improvements in classified and delinquent loans. The allowance for loan losses as a percentage of total loans decreased from .93% in 2003 to .81% in 2004. Management believes the allowance for loan losses is adequate to absorb probable losses in the loan portfolio based on an evaluation at December 31, 2004; however, assessing adequacy of the allowance is a process that requires considerable judgement. For further discussion, see Non-accrual and Past Due Loans and Allowance for Loan Losses.

Total other income decreased from $2,096,959 for 2003, to $1,748,715 for 2004. This decrease is attributable to a decrease in service charges, fees and commissions, a decrease in mortgage banking income, as well as a decrease in other non-interest income. Service charges, fees and commissions decreased $33,681 or 3.00% to $1,090,395 for the year ended December 31, 2004, from $1,124,076 for the year ended December 31, 2003 due to a decrease in service charges. The decrease in service charges on the business accounts was caused by an increase in the earnings credits and an increase in average balance maintained, which offset the service charges. Mortgage banking income decreased $278,555 or 30.69% to $629,053 for the year ended December 31, 2004, from $907,608 for the year ended December 31, 2003, due to a decrease in the volume of mortgage loan originations. Gain on the sale of other real estate owned was $36,312 in 2003 and $0 in 2004.

Salaries and employee benefits decreased $114,759 or 3.19% to $3,483,438 for the year ended December 31, 2004 from $3,598,197 for the year ended December 31, 2003. This decrease is primarily due to a decrease in salaries and employee benefits as a result of the resignation of a loan officer whose position the Company decided not to fill at this time and another officer currently on an extended medical leave of absence.

Net occupancy expense decreased $30,975 from $1,233,608 for 2003 to $1,202,633 for 2004. This decrease is primarily due to a decrease in depreciation expense on furniture and fixtures and equipment and on automobiles. Depreciation expense decreased due to several assets, which are still in use, becoming fully depreciated during 2004. Total other expense decreased $187,573 from $6,261,182 for 2003 to $6,073,609 for 2004. Other operating expenses decreased $41,839 or 2.93% to $1,387,538 for the year ended December 31, 2004 from $1,429,377 for the year ended December 31, 2003. This decrease is primarily due to a decrease in expenses associated with postage, packages and non-postal shipments and mileage.

Income tax expense decreased from $1,012,348 for 2003 to $978,810 for 2004 due to lower income levels. The Company's effective tax rate was approximately 35% for the year ended December 31, 2004 and 35% for the year ended December 31, 2003.

ASSET AND LIABILITY MANAGEMENT

The assets and liabilities of the Company are managed to provide a consistent level of liquidity to accommodate normal fluctuations in loans and deposits. At year end 2005, total assets were $222,517,526 an increase of 10.58% from the end of the previous year, and total deposits were $197,847,314, an increase of 10.49% from the end of the previous year, while short-term borrowings, consisting of Demand Notes Issued to U.S. Treasury, increased $582,321 or 39.83% to $2,044,250 for the year ended December 31, 2005 from $1,461,929 for the year ended December 31, 2004.

At December 31, 2005, approximately 94% of the Company's assets were earning assets composed of U.S. Treasury, Federal Agency and municipal securities in the amount of $39,833,240, Federal Funds Sold and interest bearing deposits in other banks in the amount of $10,608,776, and loans in the amount of $159,338,650.

The yield on a majority of the Company's earning assets adjusts simultaneously with changes in the general level of interest rates. Some of the Company's liabilities are issued with fixed terms and can be repriced only at maturity. During 2002 and 2003 loans continued to grow at a faster rate than deposits, however, our net interest margin declined by 29 basis points from January to December 2002 and 40 basis points from January to December 2003 with the decline in interest rates. During 2004 deposits grew at a faster rate than loans and our net interest margin decreased 43 basis points from January to December. In 2005 our loans grew 23.42% compared to an increase of 10.49% in deposits. As a result our net interest margin increased 65 basis points to 4.58% at December 31, 2005 compared to 3.93% for the year ended December 31, 2004.

MARKET RISK

Market risk is the risk of loss from adverse changes in market prices and rates. For the Company, this risk is constituted primarily of interest rate risk in its lending and investing activities as they relate to their funding by deposit and borrowing activities.

The Bank's policy is to minimize interest rate risk between interest bearing assets and liabilities at various maturities and to attempt to maintain an asset positive position over a 6 month period. In adhering to this policy, unless there is a sudden extraordinary drop in the interest rate, it is anticipated that the Bank's net interest margins will not be materially affected by changes in interest rates. The net interest rate spread for 2005 increased to 3.98% from 3.68% for 2004 and the net interest margin for 2005 increased to 4.58% from 3.93% for 2004. Management will continue to monitor its asset sensitive position.

Since the rates on most of the Bank's interest bearing liabilities can vary on a daily basis, management continues to maintain a loan portfolio priced predominately on a variable rate basis; however, in an effort to protect future earnings in a declining rate environment, the bank has begun to offer certain fixed rates and terms primarily associated with real estate transactions. The Bank seeks stable, long-term deposit relationships to fund its loan portfolio.

At December 31, 2005, the average maturity of the investment portfolio was 1 year 3.5 months with an average yield of 3.96% compared to 4.5 months with an average yield of 2.53% at December 31, 2004.

The Company does not take foreign exchange or commodity risks.

LIQUIDITY

Historically, the Company has maintained its liquidity at levels believed by management to be adequate to meet requirements of normal operations, potential deposit outflows and strong loan demand and still allow for optimal investment of funds and return on assets. The following table summarizes future contractual obligations as of December 31, 2005:

Total	Payment Due by Period
	Less than 1-5	After 5

		1 Year	Years	Years
Contractual Obligations (in 000 s)
Time deposits	$ 35,084	$ 34,306	$ 778	$
Short-term borrowings	2,044	2,044
Operating leases	750	448	294	8
Total contractual cash obligations	$ 37,878	$ 36,798	$ 1,072	$ 8

The Bank manages its assets and liabilities to ensure that there is sufficient liquidity to enable management to fund deposit withdrawals, loan demand, capital expenditures, reserve requirements, operating expenses and dividends and to manage daily operations on an ongoing basis. Funds are primarily provided by the Bank through customer's deposits, principal and interest payments on loans, mortgage loan sales, the sale or maturity of securities, temporary investments and earnings.

Proper liquidity management is crucial to ensure that the Company is able to take advantage of new business opportunities as well as meet the demands of its customers. Investment securities are an important tool in the Company's liquidity management. Securities classified as available for sale may be sold in response to changes in interest rates, liquidity needs and/or significant prepayment risk. All of the securities presently owned by the Bank are classified as Available for Sale. Net cash provided by operations and deposits from customers have been the primary sources of liquidity for the Company. At December 31, 2005, the Bank had unused short-term lines of credit totaling approximately $18,500,000 (which are withdrawable at the lender's option). Management believes that these sources are adequate to meet its liquidity needs. Liquidity at the parent company level is provided through cash dividends from the Bank and the capacity of the parent company to raise additional borrowed funds as needed.

Composition of Average Assets

Average earning assets increased by $33,386,874 from 2004 to 2005 while average non-earning assets increased by $518,381. Average earning assets increased primarily as a result of an increase in loans, federal funds sold and investment securities available for sale. Average loans for 2005 were up $23,921,095 or 19.30% from 2004. Average federal funds sold increased $5,677,901 or 27.79% from 2004 and investment securities available for sale increased $3,787,808 or 10.88% from 2004.

IMPAIRED AND RESTRUCTURED LOANS

The Bank had impaired loans totaling $80,852 as of December 31, 2005 compared to $65,751, $128,504, $198,309 and $169,807 as of December 31, 2004, 2003, 2002 and 2001, respectively. The impaired loans include non-accrual loans with balances at December 31, 2005, 2004, 2003, 2002 and 2001 of $ 80,852, $65,751, $102,588, $198,309 and $161,500, respectively. The Bank had one restructured loan included in non accrual loans at December 31, 2005 in the amount of $3,394, no restructured loans at December 31, 2004, one restructured loan in the amount of $25,916 at December 31, 2003, no restructured loans at December 31, 2002 and one restructured loan in the amount of $8,307 at December 31, 2001. Management does not know of any loans, which will not meet their contractual obligations that are not otherwise discussed herein.

NON-ACCRUAL AND PAST DUE LOANS

The Bank had $80,852 in non-accrual loans as of December 31, 2005, compared to $65,751, $102,588, $198,309 and $161,500 as of December 31, 2004, 2003, 2002 and 2001, respectively. There were no loans over 90 days past due still accruing interest at December 31, 2005 or December 31, 2004.

The accrual of interest is generally discontinued on loans, which become 90 days past due as to principal or interest. The accrual of interest on some loans, however, may continue even though they are 90 days past due if the loans are well secured, in the process of collection, and management deems it appropriate. If non-accrual loans decrease their past due status to 30 days for a period of six months, they are reviewed individually by management to determine if they should be returned to accrual status.

ALLOWANCE FOR LOAN LOSSES

The provision for loan losses is based on management's and the Loan Committee's review and evaluation of the loan portfolio and general economic conditions on a monthly basis and by the Board of Directors on a quarterly basis. Management's review and evaluation of the allowance for loan losses is based on an analysis of historical trends, significant problem loans, current market value of real estate or collateral and certain economic and other factors affecting loans and real estate or collateral securing these loans. Loans are charged off when, in the opinion of management, they are deemed to be uncollectible. Recognized losses are charged against the allowance and subsequent recoveries are added to the allowance.

The allowance for loan losses is subject to periodic evaluation by various regulatory authorities and may be subject to adjustment based upon information that is available at the time of their examination.

All loan relationships are reviewed and classified in accordance with the Company's loan policy. The Company's classifications are generally based on regulatory definitions of classified assets for other loans especially mentioned, substandard loans, doubtful loans and loss loans. The Company annually reviews its overall Loan Policy.

The allowance for loan losses consists of an estimated reserve for classified loans and an estimated reserve for unclassified loans. Classified loans are assigned a loss estimate in the allowance for loan loss model based on their risk grade. The loss estimate is based on regulatory guidelines which the Company believes is an appropriate measure of the estimated loss on its classified loans. The loss estimate for classified loans is 5% for other loans especially mentioned and 15% for substandard loans. The loss estimate for doubtful and loss loans is 50% and 100%, respectively. Unclassified loans are assigned a loss ratio in the allowance for loan loss model based on the Company's average historical loss experience for the previous five years, adjusted quarterly. The Company believes the five year historical loss ratio is a reasonable estimate of the existing losses in the unclassified loan portfolio. In addition, the reserve includes unclassified past due loans greater than 30 days at 2.5%. During the quarter ending September 30, 2004, the Company reviewed its allowance for loan loss model and made changes to better reflect the risk in the portfolio. The changes included adding a loss estimate of 1.5% for the loans on the watch list and a loss estimate of 1.0% for certain real estate loans. Before September 30, 2004, both the watch list loans and real estate loans were included in the unclassified category. In addition, the loss ratio on unclassified loans was adjusted to a five year historical loss ratio from a three year historical ratio to better reflect the Company's credit cycle and to conform with regulatory practices. The Company has unallocated reserves totaling $85,890 and $64,460 at December 31, 2005 and 2004 respectively, related to other inherent losses in the portfolio.

Based on the evaluation described above, the Company recorded a provision for loan losses of $12,000 for the year ended December 31, 2005 compared to a recovery of loan losses of ($103,000) for the year ended December 31, 2004. The Company believes that the five year historical average is more representative of the loss cycle of their portfolio based on their review of the timing of large losses in their portfolio and the fact that such losses would not be captured in the average loss ratio using a three-year period. Classified assets were $1.9 million at December 31, 2004 compared to $2.2 million at December 31, 2004. The decrease in classified assets caused a decrease in the required allowance for loan loss per the allowance for loan loss, offset by the additional reserves estimated for watch list loans and certain real estate loans which increased the required allowance for loan loss per the allowance for loan loss model by approximately $182,740.

Net charge-offs were $38,726 in 2005 or .03% of average loans as compared to $22,726 in 2004 or .02% of average loans. Uncertainty in the economic outlook still exists, making charge-off levels in future periods less predictable; however, loss exposure in the portfolio is identified, reserved and closely monitored to ensure that changes are promptly addressed in the analysis of reserve adequacy.

The allowance for loan losses decreased $26,726 or 2.56% to $1,017,175 or .64% of total loans at December 31, 2005 from $1,043,901 or .81% of total loans at December 31, 2004. Management believes the allowance for a loan loss at December 31, 2005 is adequate to cover probable losses in the loan portfolio; however, assessing the adequacy of the allowance is a process that requires considerable judgment. Management's judgments are based on numerous assumptions about current events which it believes to be reasonable, but which may or may not be valid. Thus there can be no assurance that loan losses in future periods will not exceed the current allowance amount or that future increases in the allowance will not be required. No assurance can be given that management's ongoing evaluation of the loan portfolio in light of changing economic conditions and other relevant circumstances will not require significant future additions to the allowance, thus adversely affecting the operating results of the Company.

OFF-BALANCE SHEET ARRANGEMENTS

In the normal course of operations, the Company engages in a variety of financial transactions that, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, are not recorded in the financial statements, or are recorded in amounts that differ from the notional amounts. These transactions involve, to varying degrees, elements of credit, interest rate, and liquidity risk. Such transactions are used by the Company for general corporate purposes or for customer needs. Corporate purpose transactions are used to help manage credit, interest rate and liquidity risk or to optimize capital. Customer transactions are used to manage customer s requests for funding.

The Company s off-balance sheet arrangements, consist principally of commitments to extend credit described below. At December 31, 2005 and 2004, the Company had no interests in non-consolidated special purpose entities.

Commitments to extend credit are agreements to lend to a customer as long as there is no violation of any condition established in the contract. Commitments generally have fixed expiration dates or other termination clauses and may require payment of a fee. Since many of the commitments are expected to expire without being drawn upon, the total commitment amounts do not necessarily represent future cash requirements. The amount of collateral obtained if deemed necessary by the Company upon extension of credit is based on management s credit evaluation of the borrower. Collateral held varies, but may include accounts receivable, inventory, property, plant and equipment, and real estate. Commitments to extend credit, including unused lines of credit, amounted to $45,383,793 and $39,274,635 at December 31, 2005 and 2004 respectively.

Standby letters of credit represent an obligation of the Company to a third party contingent upon the failure of the Company s customer to perform under the terms of an underlying contract with the third party or obligates the Company to guarantee or stand as surety for the benefit of the third party. The underlying contract may entail either financial or nonfinancial obligations and may involve such things as the shipment of goods, performance of a contract, or repayment of an obligation. Under the terms of a standby letter, generally drafts will be drawn only when the underlying event fails to occur as intended. The Company can seek recovery of the amounts paid from the borrower. The majority of these standby letters of credit are unsecured. Commitments under standby letters of credit are usually for one year or less. At December 31, 2005 and 2004, the Company has recorded no liability for the current carrying amount of the obligation to perform as a guarantor, as such amounts are not considered material. The maximum potential amount of undiscounted future payments related to standby letters of credit at December 31, 2005 and 2004 was $635,402 and 410,374, respectively.

The Company originates certain fixed rate residential loans and commits these loans for sale. The commitments to originate fixed rate residential loans and the sales commitments are freestanding derivative instruments. The fair value of these commitments was not significant at December 31, 2005 and 2004. The Company had forward sales commitments, totaling $3.3 million at December 31, 2005, to sell loans held for sale of $3.3 million. At December 31, 2004, the Company had forward sales commitments of $1.7 million. The fair value of these commitments was not significant at December 31, 2005 or 2004. The Company has no embedded derivative instruments requiring separate accounting treatment.

Once the Company sells certain fixed rate residential loans, the loans are no longer reportable on the Company's balance sheet. With most of these sales, the Company has an obligation to repurchase the loan in the event of a default of principal or interest on the loan in the event of a default of principal or interest on the loan. This warranty period ranges from three to six months. The unpaid principal balance of loans sold with recourse was $42,792,000 at December 31, 2005 and $37,791,000 at December 31, 2004.

EFFECT OF INFLATION AND CHANGING PRICES

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles which require the measurement of financial position and results of operations in terms of historical dollars without consideration of changes in the relative purchasing power over time due to inflation.

Unlike most other industries, the assets and liabilities of financial institutions such as the Bank are primarily monetary in nature. As a result, interest rates generally have a more significant impact on the performance of a financial institution than the effects of general levels of inflation. The Bank strives to manage the effects of inflation through its asset/liability management.

CAPITAL RESOURCES

The capital needs of the Company have been met to date through the $10,600,000 in capital raised in the Bank's initial offering, the retention of earnings less dividends paid and the exercising of stock options of $124,000 in 1995, 1996, 1997 and 1998 for a total shareholders' equity at December 31, 2005, of $21,505,794. The rate of asset growth from the Bank's inception has not negatively impacted this capital base. Effective December 31, 1990, regulatory authorities adopted risk based capital guidelines for financial institutions. These risk based guidelines are designed to highlight differences in risk profiles among financial institutions and to account for off balance sheet risk. The guidelines established require a risk based capital ratio of 8% for bank holding companies and banks. The risk based capital ratio at December 31, 2005, for the Bank was 11.64% and 13.69% at December 31, 2004. The Company's management does not know of any trends, events or uncertainties that may result in the Company's capital resources materially increasing or decreasing.

The Company and the Bank are subject to various regulatory capital requirements administered by the federal banking agencies. Failure to meet minimum capital requirements can initiate certain mandatory and possibly additional discretionary actions by regulators that, if undertaken, could have a material effect on the financial statements. Under capital adequacy guidelines and the regulatory framework for prompt corrective action, the Company and the Bank must meet specific capital guidelines that involve quantitative measures of the Company's and the Bank's assets, liabilities and certain off-balance sheet items as calculated under regulatory accounting practices. The Company's and the Bank's capital amounts and classification are also subject to qualitative judgments by the regulators about components, risk weightings and other factors.

Quantitative measures established by regulation to ensure capital adequacy require the Company and the Bank to maintain minimum amounts and ratios of total and Tier 1 capital to risk-weighted assets and to average assets. Management believes, as of December 31, 2005, that the Company and the Bank meet all capital adequacy requirements to which they are subject.

At December 31, 2005 and 2004, the Company and the Bank are categorized as well capitalized under the regulatory framework for prompt corrective action. To be categorized as well capitalized the Company and the Bank must maintain minimum total risk based, Tier 1 risk based and Tier 1 leverage ratios of 10%, 6% and 5% and to be categorized as adequately capitalized, the Company and the Bank must maintain minimum total risk based, Tier 1 risk based and Tier 1 leverage ratios of 8%, 4% and 4%, respectively. There are no current conditions or events that management believes would change the Company's or the Bank's category.

Please see Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements for the Company's and the Bank's various capital ratios at December 31, 2005.

ACCOUNTING AND REPORTING CHANGES

In December 2004, the FASB issued Statement No. 123 (revised December 2004), Share-Based Payments. Statement 123R sets accounting requirements for share-based compensation to employees, including employee-stock-purchase-plans (ESPPs). It carries forward prior guidance on accounting for awards to nonemployees. Accounting for employee-stock-ownership-plan transactions (ESOPs) will continue to be accounted for in accordance with SOP 93-6. Awards to most nonemployee directors will be accounted for as employee awards. Statement 123R replaces FASB Statements No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation, and supersedes APB Opinion No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees. Management is currently evaluating the impact that the adoption of SFAS No. 123R will have on its financial position, results of operations and cash flows. The cumulative effect of adoption, if any, will be measured and recognized in the statement of operations on the date of adoption.

THE BANK OF SOUTH CAROLINA EMPLOYEE STOCK OWNERSHIP PLAN AND TRUST

During 1989, the Board of Directors of the Bank adopted an Employee Stock Ownership Plan and Trust Agreement to provide retirement benefits to eligible employees of the Bank for long and faithful service. The Board of Directors of the Bank approved the cash contribution of $300,000 to The Bank of South Carolina Employee Stock Ownership Plan for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005. The contribution was made during 2005. An amendment and restatement of the Employee Stock Ownership Plan effective January 1, 2001, was approved by the Board of Directors on February 17, 2002. The Bank is the Plan Administrator. T. Dean Harton, Sheryl G. Sharry and Hugh C. Lane, Jr., currently serve as the Plan Administrative Committee and as Trustees for the Plan. The Plan currently owns 198,159 shares of common stock of Bank of South Carolina Corporation.

Item 7. Financial Statements

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

The Board of Directors

Bank of South Carolina Corporation and subsidiary

Charleston, South Carolina

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheets of Bank of South Carolina Corporation and subsidiary (the Corporation) as of December 31, 2005 and 2004, and the related consolidated statements of operations, shareholders' equity and comprehensive income, and cash flows for each of the years in the three-year period ended December 31, 2005. These consolidated financial statements are the responsibility of the Corporation's management.

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Bank of South Carolina Corporation and subsidiary at December 31, 2005 and 2004, and the results of their operations and their cash flows for each of the years in the three-year period ended December 31, 2005, in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

BANK OF SOUTH CAROLINA CORPORATION NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The following is a summary of the more significant accounting policies used in preparation of the accompanying consolidated financial statements. The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions. These estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements. In addition, they affect the reported amounts of income and expense during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from these estimates and assumptions.

Principles of Consolidation: The accompanying consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Bank of South Carolina Corporation (the Company) and its wholly-owned subsidiary, The Bank of South Carolina (the Bank). In consolidation, all significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated. Bank of South Carolina Corporation is a one-bank holding company organized under the laws of the State of South Carolina. The Bank provides a broad range of consumer and commercial banking services, concentrating on individuals and small and medium-sized businesses desiring a high level of personalized service.

The reorganization of the Bank into a one-bank holding company became effective on April 17, 1995. Each issued and outstanding share of the Bank's stock was converted into two shares of the Company's stock.

Investment Securities: The Company accounts for its investment securities in accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board's (FASB) Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 115, Accounting for Certain Investments in Debt and Equity Securities. Investments are classified into three categories as follows: (1) Held to Maturity debt securities that the Company has the positive intent and ability to hold to maturity, which are reported at amortized cost, adjusted for the amortization of any related premiums or the accretion of any related discounts into interest income using a methodology which approximates a level yield of interest over the estimated remaining period until maturity; (2) Trading debt and equity securities that are bought and held principally for the purpose of selling them in the near term, which are reported at fair value, with unrealized gains and losses included in earnings; and (3) Available for Sale debt and equity securities that may be sold under certain conditions, which are reported at fair value, with unrealized gains and losses excluded from earnings and reported as a separate component of shareholders' equity, net of income taxes. Unrealized losses on securities due to fluctuations in fair value are recognized when it is determined that an other than temporary decline in value has occurred. Gains or losses on the sale of securities are recognized on a specific identification, trade date basis. All securities were classified as available for sale for 2005 and 2004.

Loans Receivable Held for Sale: Mortgage loans originated and intended for sale in the secondary market are carried at the lower of cost or estimated market value in the aggregate. Net unrealized losses are provided for in a valuation allowance by charges to operations. At December 31, 2005 and 2004, the Company had approximately $3.3 million and $1.7 million in mortgage loans held for sale, respectively. Gains or losses on sales of loans are recognized when control over these assets has been surrendered in accordance with SFAS No. 140, Accounting for Transfer and Servicing of Financial Assets and Extinguishment of Liabilities (SFAS No. 140), and are included in mortgage banking income in the consolidated statements of operations.

Loans and Allowance for Loan Losses: Loans are carried at principal amounts outstanding. Loan origination fees, net of certain direct origination costs, are deferred and recognized as an adjustment to yield. Interest income on all loans is recorded on an accrual basis. The accrual of interest is generally discontinued on loans which become 90 days past due as to principal or interest. The accrual of interest on some loans, however, may continue even though they are 90 days past due if the loans are well secured, in the process of collection,

BANK OF SOUTH CAROLINA CORPORATION NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS and management deems it appropriate. If non-accrual loans decrease their past due status to less than 30 days for a period of six months, they are reviewed individually by management to determine if they should be returned to accrual status. The Company defines past due loans based on contractual payment and maturity dates.

The Company accounts for impaired loans in accordance with SFAS No. 114, Accounting by Creditors for Impairment of a Loan. This statement requires that all creditors value loans for which it is probable that the creditor will be unable to collect all amounts due according to the terms of the loan agreement at the loan's fair value. Fair value may be determined based upon the present value of expected cash flows, market price of the loan, if available, or value of the underlying collateral. Expected cash flows are required to be discounted at the loan's effective interest rate.

SFAS No. 114 was amended by SFAS No. 118 to allow a creditor to use existing methods for recognizing interest income on an impaired loan and by requiring additional disclosures about how a creditor estimates interest income related to impaired loans.

When the ultimate collectibility of an impaired loan's principal is in doubt, wholly or partially, all cash receipts are applied to principal. When this doubt does not exist, cash receipts are applied under the contractual terms of the loan agreement first to principal and then to interest income. Once the recorded principal balance has been reduced to zero, future cash receipts are applied to interest income, to the extent that any interest has been foregone. Further cash receipts are recorded as recoveries of any amounts previously charged off.

A loan is also considered impaired if its terms are modified in a troubled debt restructuring. For these accruing impaired loans, cash receipts are typically applied to principal and interest receivable in accordance with the terms of the restructured loan agreement. Interest income is recognized on these loans using the accrual method of accounting, provided they are performing in accordance with their restructured terms.

Management believes that the allowance is adequate to absorb inherent losses in the loan portfolio. The allowance for loan losses is based on management's evaluation of the loan portfolio under current economic conditions. The evaluation includes a review of delinquencies and an estimate of the probability of loss based on the risk characteristics of the portfolio. The allowance is maintained at a level considered adequate by management to provide for known and inherent loan losses. While management uses the best information available to make evaluations, future adjustments to the allowance may be necessary if economic conditions differ substantially from the assumptions used in making the evaluations. The allowance for loan losses is subject to periodic evaluations by various regulatory authorities and may be subject to adjustment based upon information that is available to them at the time of their examination.

Concentration of Credit Risk: The Company's primary market consist of the counties of Berkeley, Charleston and Dorchester, South Carolina. At December 31, 2005, the majority of the total loan portfolio, as well as a substantial portion of the commercial and real estate loan portfolios, were to borrowers within this region. No other areas of significant concentration of credit risk have been identified.

Premises, Equipment and Leasehold Improvements and Depreciation: Buildings and equipment are carried at cost less accumulated depreciation, calculated on the straight-line method over the estimated useful life of the related assets 40 years for buildings and 3 to 15 years for equipment. Amortization of leasehold improvements is recorded using the straight-line method over the lesser of the estimated useful life of the asset or the term of the lease. Maintenance and repairs are charged to operating expenses as incurred.

Other Real Estate Owned: Other real estate owned is recorded at the lower of fair value less estimated selling costs or cost and is included in other assets on the consolidated balance sheets. There was no other real estate owned at December 31, 2005 or 2004. Gains and losses on the sale of other real estate owned and subsequent write-downs from periodic reevaluation are charged to other operating income.

Income Taxes: The Company accounts for income taxes in accordance with SFAS No. 109, Accounting Income taxes . Under the asset and liability method of SFAS No. 109, deferred tax assets and liabilities recognized for future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases. Deferred tax assets and liabilities measured using the enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. Under SFAS No. 109, the effect on deferred tax assets liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in income in the period that includes the enactment date. Net deferred tax assets are included in other assets in the consolidated balance sheet.

Stock-Based Compensation: The Company has a stock based employee compensation plan as of December 31, 2005 which is described more fully in Note Ten. The Company accounts for this plan using the intrinsic value method prescribed in Accounting Principles Board Opinion (APB) No. 25, Accounting for stock Issued to Employees, and related interpretations. Accordingly, the Company has not recognized any compensation cost for its fixed stock option plan as all options granted under the plan have an exercise price equal to or greater than the market price of the underlying common stock on the date of grant. Had compensation cost for the Company s stock based compensation plan been determined consistent with SFAS No. 123, Accounting for Stock Based Compensation , the Company s net income and earnings per share would have been reduced to the proforma amounts indicated below for the three years ended December 31:

	Year Ended December 31,
	2005	2004	2003
Net income, as reported	$ 3,185	$ 1,846	$ 1,905

There were no options granted in 2005. The weighted average fair value per share of options granted in 2004 and 2003 amounted to $2.86, $2.70, respectively. Fair values were estimated on the date of grant using the Black-Scholes option-pricing model with the following assumptions used for grants: dividend yield of 3.29%, 3.43% for 2004 and 2003, respectively; historical volatility of 24.49%, 28.38% for 2004 and 2003, respectively; risk-free interest rate of 3.94%, 2.84% for 2004 and 2003, respectively; expected lives of the options of 7.5 years and 7.5 years for 2004 and 2003, respectively. For purposes of the proforma calculation compensation expense is recognized on a straight-line basis over the vesting period.

Earnings Per Common Share: Basic earnings per share are computed by dividing net income applicable to common shareholders by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding. Diluted earnings per share are computed by dividing net income by the weighted average number of shares of common stock and common stock equivalents. Common stock equivalents consist of stock options and are computed using the treasury stock method.

Comprehensive Income: The Company applies the provisions of SFAS No. 130, Reporting Comprehensive Income, which establishes standards for the reporting and display of comprehensive income and its components in a full set of general purpose financial statements. Comprehensive income consists of net income and net unrealized gains or losses on securities and is presented in the consolidated statements of shareholders' equity and comprehensive income.

Segment Information: The Company reports operating segments in accordance with SFAS No. 131, Disclosures about Segments of an Enterprise and Related Information. Operating segments are components of an enterprise about which separate financial information is available that is evaluated regularly by the chief operating decision maker in deciding how to allocate resources and assess performance. SFAS No. 131 requires that a public enterprise report a measure of segment profit or loss, certain specific revenue and expense items, segment assets, information about the way that the operating segments were determined and other items. The Company has one reporting segment, The Bank of South Carolina.

Derivative Instruments: SFAS No. 133, Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities, establishes comprehensive accounting and reporting standards for derivative instruments and hedging activities. SFAS No. 133 requires that all derivative instruments be recorded in the statement of financial position at fair value. The accounting for the gain or loss due to change in fair value of the derivative instrument depends on whether the derivative instrument qualifies as a hedge. If the derivative does not qualify as a hedge, the gains or losses are reported in earnings when they occur. However, if the derivative instrument qualifies as a hedge, the accounting varies based on the type of risk being hedged.

The Company has no embedded derivative instruments requiring separate accounting treatment. The Company has freestanding derivative instruments consisting of fixed rate conforming loan commitments and commitments to sell fixed rate conforming loans. The Company does not currently engage in hedging activities.

Cash Flows: Cash and cash equivalents include working cash funds, due from banks, interest bearing deposits in other banks, items in process of collection and federal funds sold. To comply with Federal Reserve regulations, the Bank is required to maintain certain average cash reserve balances. The daily average reserve requirement was approximately $738,000 and $709,000 for the reserve periods ended December 31, 2005 and 2004, respectively.

Reclassifications: Certain prior year amounts have been reclassified to conform to the 2005 presentation. Such reclassifications had no impact on net income or retained earnings as previously reported.

Total	$ 45,522,457	$ 153,258	$ (37,021)	$ 45,638,694

The amortized cost and estimated fair value of investment securities available for sale at December 31, 2005, by contractual maturity are as follows:

	AMORTIZED COST	ESTIMATED FAIR VALUE
Due in one year or less	$ 24,143,701	$ 24,114,745
Due in one year to five years	13,106,131	13,106,187
Due in five years to ten years	2,665,820	2,612,308
Total	$ 39,915,652	$ 39,833,240

During 2005 and 2004, there were no sales of investment securities.

The carrying value of investment securities pledged to secure deposits and other balances was $24,782,766 and $21,035,325 at December 31, 2005 and 2004, respectively.

BANK OF SOUTH CAROLINA CORPORATION NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
Gross unrealized losses and the estimated fair value of the related securities, aggregated by investment category and length of time that individual securities have been in a continuous unrealized loss position, at December 31, 2005 are as follows:

Description of Securities	Less than 12	Unrealized Losses	12	Unrealized	Total	Unrealized
	Fair Value		months or longer Fair Value		Losses
U.S. Treasury Bills	$ 23,829,000	$ 29,701	$	$	$ 23,829,000	$ 29,701

Federal Agency Securities	8,920,800	23,683			8,920,800	23,683
Municipal Securities	1,800,476	53,533			1,800,476	53,533
	$ 37,540,676	$ 108,165	$	$	$ 37,540,676	$ 108,165

The unrealized losses on investments were caused by interest rate increases. The contractual terms of these investments do not permit the issuer to settle the securities at a price less the amortized cost of the investment. Because the Company has the ability and intent to hold these investments until a market price recovery or maturity, these investments are not considered other-than-temporarily impaired. Nearly all of these investments are rated AAA so the credit risk is minimal.

During the second quarter of 2005, the Company adopted FASB Statement No. 91 (FAS 91) Accounting for Nonrefundable Fees and Costs Associated with Originating or Acquiring Loans and Initial Direct Costs of Leases (an amendment of FASB Statement No. 13, 60 and 65 and a rescission of FASB Statement No. 17) . FAS 91 establishes the accounting for nonrefundable fees and costs associated with lending, committing to lend, or purchasing a loan or group of loans. This statement also specifies the accounting for fees and initial direct costs associated with leasing. The adoption of FAS 91 by the Company in the second quarter resulted in a decrease to interest income and fees on loans and total loans of $76,000. The $76,000 will be spread over the remaining life of the loans originated before June 30, 2005. As of July 1, 2005 any fee or cost associated with originating or acquiring loans are being deferred and amortized in accordance with FAS 91. The net balance of the deferred loan fees at December 31, 2005 was $93,966. The Company grants short to intermediate term commercial and consumer loans to customers throughout its primary market area of Charleston, Berkeley and Dorchester Counties, South Carolina. The Company's primary market area is heavily dependent on tourism and medical services. Although the Company has a diversified loan portfolio, a substantial portion of its debtors' ability to honor their contracts is dependent upon the stability of the economic environment in their primary market including the government, tourism and medical industries. Except for the fact that the majority of the loan portfolio is located in the bank's immediate market area, there were no material concentrations of loans in any type of industry, in any type of property or to any one borrower.

As of December 31, 2005 and 2004, the Company had loans on non-accrual totaling $80,852 and $65,751, respectively. The additional amount of gross income that would have been recorded during 2005, 2004 and 2003 if these loans had performed as agreed would have been $4,167, $1,924 and $2,746, respectively. The Company did not recognize any interest income on these loans in 2005, 2004 or 2003 while these loans were on non-accrual.

There were no loans over 90 days past due still accruing interest at December 31, 2005 and 2004.

At December 31, 2004 and 2003 impaired loans amounted to $80,852 and $65,751, respectively, and their related reserve for loan losses totaled $44,799 and $32,876 at December 31, 2005 and 2004, respectively. The Bank had one restructured loan included in the non accrual loans of $3,394, and no restructured loans at December 31, 2004. For the years ended December 31, 2005, 2004 and 2003, the average recorded investment in impaired loans was $ 93,536, $76,707 and $138,096, respectively, and $2,552 in 2005, $3,428 in 2004 and $4,267 in 2003 of interest income was recognized on loans prior to being considered impaired. All of this income was recognized using the accrual method of accounting.

Total	$ 2,044,250	$ 1,461,929

Securities sold under agreements to repurchase with customers mature on demand. During the year ended December 31, 2005 and 2004, there were no securities sold under agreements to repurchase. The securities underlying the repurchase agreements are held in safekeeping by an authorized broker. At the maturity dates of these transactions, the securities are returned to the account of the Bank.

At December 31, 2005 and 2004, the Bank had unused short-term lines of credit totaling approximately $18,500,000 and $18,500,000 respectively (which are withdrawable at the lender's option).

BANK OF SOUTH CAROLINA CORPORATION NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

There was a $9,000 valuation allowance for deferred tax assets at December 31, 2005 and a $7,000 valuation allowance at December 31, 2004. In assessing the realizability of deferred tax assets, management considers whether it is more likely than not that some portion or all of the deferred tax assets will not be realized. The ultimate realization of deferred income tax assets is dependent upon the generation of future taxable income during the periods in which those temporary differences become deductible and prior to their expiration governed by the income tax code. Management considers the scheduled reversal of deferred tax liabilities, projected future taxable income, and tax planning strategies in making this assessment. Based upon the level of historical taxable income and projections for future taxable income over the periods during which the deferred income tax assets are expected to be deductible, management believes it is more likely than not the Company will realize the benefits of these deductible differences, net of the existing valuation allowance at December 31, 2005. The amount of the deferred income tax asset considered realizable, however, could be reduced in the near term if estimates of future taxable income during the carry forward period are reduced.

Tax returns for 2002 and subsequent years are subject to examination by taxing authorities.

7. COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

The Company has entered into agreements to lease equipment and its office facilities under noncancellable operating lease agreements expiring on various dates through 2011. The Company may, at its option, extend the lease of its office facility at 256 Meeting Street in Charleston, South Carolina, for two additional ten year periods and extend the land lease where the Mt. Pleasant office is constructed for six additional five year periods.

Minimum rental commitments for these leases as of December 31, 2005 are as follows:

2007	132,389
2008	72,087
2009	57,996
2010	31,030
2011 and thereafter	8,530
Total	 $ 750,258

Total rental expense was $441,568, $428,087 and $384,775 in 2005, 2004 and 2003, respectively.

The Company is a party to financial instruments with off-balance sheet risk in the normal course of business to meet the financing needs of its customers. These financial instruments include commitments to extend credit and standby letters of credit. Those instruments involve, to varying degrees, elements of credit and interest rate risk in excess of the amount recognized in the financial statements. The Company's exposure to credit loss in the event of nonperformance by the other party to the financial instrument for commitments to extend credit and standby letters of credit is essentially the same as that involved in extending loan facilities to customers. The Company uses the same credit policies in making commitments and conditional obligations as it does for on-balance sheet instruments. Commitments to extend credit are agreements to lend to a customer as long as there is no violation of any condition established in the contract. Commitments generally have fixed expiration dates or other termination clauses and may require payment of a fee. Since many of the commitments are expected to expire without being drawn upon, the total commitment amounts do not necessarily represent future cash requirements. The amount of collateral obtained if deemed necessary by the Company upon extension of credit is based on management's credit evaluation of the counterparty. Collateral held varies, but may include accounts receivable, negotiable instruments, inventory, property, plant and equipment, and income-producing commercial properties. Commitments to extend credit, including unused lines of credit, amounted to $45,383,793 and $39,274,635 at December 31, 2005 and 2004, respectively.

BANK OF SOUTH CAROLINA CORPORATION NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Standby letters of credit represent an obligation of the Company to a third party contingent upon the failure of the Company's customer to perform under the terms of an underlying contract with the third party or obligates the Company to guarantee or stand as surety for the benefit of the third party. The underlying contract may entail either financial or nonfinancial obligations and may involve such things as the shipment of goods, completion of a construction contract, or repayment of an obligation. Under the terms of a standby letter, generally drafts will be drawn only when the underlying event fails to occur as intended. The Company can seek recovery of the amounts paid from the borrower; and a majority of these standby letters of credit are generally collateralized.

Commitments under standby letters of credit are usually for one year or less. At December 31, 2005 and 2004, the Company has recorded no liability for the current carrying amount of the obligation to perform as a guarantor, as such amounts are not considered material. The maximum potential amount of undiscounted future payments related to standby letters of credit at December 31, 2005 and 2004 was $635,402 and $410,374, respectively.

The Company originates certain fixed rate residential loans and commits these loans for sale. The commitments to originate fixed rate residential loans and the sales commitments are freestanding derivative instruments. The fair value of these commitments was not significant at December 31, 2005 and 2004. The Company has forward sales commitments, totaling $3.3 million at December 31, 2005, to sell loans held for sale of $3.3 million. Such forward sales commitments are to sell loans at par value and are generally funded within 60 days. The fair value of these commitments was not significant at December 31, 2005.

8. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

In the opinion of management, loans to officers and directors of the Company are made on substantially the same terms as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with unaffiliated persons and do not involve more than the normal risk of collectibility. There were no outstanding loans to executive officers of the Company as of December 31, 2005 and 2004. Related party loans are summarized as follows:

10. INCENTIVE STOCK OPTION PLAN AND EMPLOYEE STOCK OWNERSHIP PLAN AND TRUST

The Company has an Incentive Stock Option Plan which was approved in 1998. Under the 1998 Incentive Stock Option Plan, options are periodically granted to employees at a price not less than the fair market value of the shares at the date of grant. Employees become 20% vested after five years and then vest 20% each year until fully vested. The right to exercise each such 20% of the options is cumulative and will not expire until the tenth anniversary of the date of the grant. On October 2, 2005, Nathaniel I. Ball, III in accordance with the Incentive Stock Option Plan, exercised his option to purchase 16,637 shares of common stock. The stock was purchased with the redemption of 10,300 shares of Bank of South Carolina Corporation common stock (personally held) with a price of $18.00 a share and a payment of $225 cash. The stock options were fully vested and fully exercisable. No shares were exercisable at December 31, 2004. At December 31, 2005, 40,205 shares of common stock are reserved to be granted under the 1998 Incentive Stock Option Plan from the original 217,800 shares.

All outstanding options, option price, and option activity for the stock-based option plan has been retroactively restated to reflect the effects of the 10% stock dividend declared June 19, 2003 and a 10% stock distribution declared April 12, 2005.

A summary of the activity under the stock-based option plan for the years ended December 31, 2005, 2004, and 2003 follows:

The Company established an Employee Stock Ownership Plan (ESOP) effective January 1, 1989. Each employee who has attained age twenty-one and has completed at least 1,000 hours of service in a plan year is eligible to participate in the ESOP. Contributions are determined annually by the Board of Directors and amounts allocable to individual participants may be limited pursuant to the provisions of Internal Revenue Code section 415. The Company recognizes expense when the contribution is approved by the Board of Directors. The total expenses amounted to $300,000, $180,000 and $197,500 for the years ended December 31, 2005, 2004 and 2003 respectively.

11. COMMON STOCK DIVIDEND

On June 19, 2003 the Company declared a 10% stock dividend for a total of 254,915 shares and on April 12, 2005 the Company declared a 10% stock distribution for a total of 280,319 shares a combined total of approximately 535,234 shares. All share and per share data has been retroactively restated to give effect to the common stock dividend and common stock distribution.

12. INCOME PER COMMON SHARE

Basic earnings per share are computed by dividing net income by the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding. Diluted earnings per share are computed by dividing net income by the weighted-average number of common shares and potential common shares outstanding. Potential common shares consist of dilutive stock options determined using the treasury stock method and the average market price of common stock. All share and per share data have been retroactively restated for all common stock dividends and distributions. The Company has no antidilutive securities at December 31, 2005.

13. REGULATORY CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS

Quantitative measures established by regulation to ensure capital adequacy require the Company and the Bank to maintain minimum amounts and ratios (set forth in the table below) of total and Tier 1 capital (as defined in the regulation) to risk-weighted assets (as defined) and to average assets. Management believes, as of December 31, 2005, that the Company and the Bank meet all capital adequacy requirements to which they are subject.

At December 31, 2005 and 2004, the Company and the Bank are categorized as well capitalized under the regulatory framework for prompt corrective action. To be categorized as well capitalized the Company and the Bank must maintain minimum total risk based, Tier 1 risk based and Tier 1 leverage ratios of 10%, 6% and 5%, respectively, and to be categorized as adequately capitalized, the Company and the Bank must maintain minimum total risk-based, Tier 1 risk-based and Tier 1 leverage ratios as set forth in the table below. There are no current conditions or events that management believes would change the Company's or the Bank's category.

14. DISCLOSURES REGARDING FAIR VALUE OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

SFAS No. 107, Disclosure About Fair Value of Financial Instruments, requires disclosure of fair value information about financial instruments whether or not recognized on the balance sheet, for which it is practicable to estimate fair value. Fair value estimates are made as of a specific point in time based on the characteristics of the financial instruments and the relevant market information. Where available, quoted market prices are used. In other cases, fair values are based on estimates using present value or other valuation techniques. These techniques involve uncertainties and are significantly affected by the assumptions used and the judgements made regarding risk characteristics of various financial instruments, discount rates, prepayments, estimates of future cash flows, future expected loss experience and other factors. Changes in assumptions could significantly affect these estimates. Derived fair value estimates cannot be substantiated by comparison to independent markets and, in many cases, may or may not be realized in an immediate sale of the instrument.

Under SFAS No. 107, fair value estimates are based on existing financial instruments without attempting to estimate the value of anticipated future business and the value of the assets and liabilities that are not financial instruments. Accordingly, the aggregate fair value amounts presented do not represent the underlying value of the Company.

BANK OF SOUTH CAROLINA CORPORATION NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The following describes the methods and assumptions used by the Company in estimating the fair values of financial instruments:

a. Cash and due from banks, interest bearing deposits in other banks and federal funds sold

The carrying value approximates fair value.

b. Investment securities available for sale

The fair value of investment securities is derived from quoted market prices.

c. Loans

The carrying value of variable rate consumer and commercial loans and consumer and commercial loans with remaining maturities of three months or less approximates fair value. The fair value of fixed rate consumer and commercial loans with maturities greater than three months are determined using a discounted cash flow analysis and assumes the rate being offered on these types of loans by the Company at December 31, 2005 and 2004, approximates market.

The carrying value of mortgage loans held for sale approximates fair value.

For lines of credit, the carrying value approximates fair value.

d. Deposits

Under SFAS No. 107, the estimated fair value of deposits with no stated maturity is equal to the carrying amount. The fair value of time deposits is estimated by discounting contractual cash flows, by applying interest rates currently being offered on the deposit products. Under SFAS No. 107, the fair value estimates for deposits do not include the benefit that results from the low cost funding provided by the deposit liabilities as compared to the cost of alternative forms of funding (deposit base intangibles).

e. Short-term borrowings

The carrying amount approximates fair value due to the short-term nature of these instruments.

BANK OF SOUTH CAROLINA CORPORATION NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Item 8. Changes In and Disagreements With Accountants on Accounting and Financial Disclosure

On November 17, 2005, the appointment of KPMG, LLP as independent auditor was terminated effective upon the completion of the audit of the Company's financial statements as of and for the year ending December 31, 2005 and the issuance of KPMG LLP's report thereon. The decision to change accountants to Elliott Davis, LLC was approved by the audit committee of the Board of Directors. At the 2006 Annual Shareholder's Meeting the selection of Elliott Davis, LLC will be subject to ratification by a simple majority vote of shares represented at the meeting. If the ratification is not achieved, the selection of an independent certified public accountant will be reconsidered and made by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors reserves the right to direct the appointment of any other independent certified public accounting firm even if the selection of Elliott Davis, LLC is ratified.

Item 8A. Controls and Procedures

An evaluation was carried out under the supervision and with the participation of Bank of South Carolina Corporation's management, including its President and Chief Executive Officer, Executive Vice President and Executive Vice President and Treasurer, of the effectiveness of Bank of South Carolina Corporation's disclosure controls and procedures as of December 31, 2005. Based on that evaluation, Bank of South Carolina Corporation's management, including the Chief Executive Officer and Executive Vice President and Treasurer, has concluded that Bank of South Carolina Corporation's disclosure controls and procedures are effective. During the fourth quarter of 2005, there was no change in Bank of South Carolina Corporation's internal control over financial reporting that has materially affected or is reasonably likely to materially affect, Bank of South Carolina Corporation's internal control over financial reporting.

Item 8B. Other Information

There is no information required to be disclosed in a report on Form 8-K during the fourth quarter of 2005 that was not reported.

PART IIIItem 9. Directors, Executive Officers, Promoters and Control Persons; Compliance with Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act*Election of Directors

One director, Nathaniel I. Ball III, Executive Vice President and Secretary, retired July 31, 2005. Sixteen Directors, constituting the current Board of Directors, will be elected at the Annual Meeting, each to hold office for one year and until a successor shall have been duly elected or appointed and shall have qualified. In addition the Nominating Committee of the Company Board of Directors recommended at its December 15, 2005 meeting to approve Fleetwood S. Hassell, Executive Vice President, for nomination to the Board of Directors. This recommendation was approved by the Board of Directors and will be voted on at the Annual Meeting. In the absence of instructions to the contrary, shares of Common Stock represented by properly executed proxies will be voted for the seventeen Nominees listed on pages 52, 53 and 54, all of whom are recommended by the Nominating Committee of the Company Board of Directors and have consented to be named and to serve if elected.

The Company does not presently know of anything that would preclude any Nominee from serving; however, should any Nominee for any reason become unable or unwilling to serve as a Director, the number of Directors to be elected will be reduced accordingly.

The name of each Nominee designated by the Board of Directors of the Company for election as a Director of the Company and certain information provided by such Nominee to the Company are set forth in the table below. Eight of the current Nominees served as initial Directors of the Bank from October 22, 1986, when the Bank's charter was issued until the first Annual Meeting of Shareholders on April 14, 1987, and were elected to serve a one-year term at such Annual Meeting. John M. Tupper was first elected as a Director of the Bank during 1993. All of the below nine Directors of the bank were elected to serve one-year terms at subsequent Annual Meetings. All of the above nine Directors of the Bank were elected Directors of the Company upon its organization in 1995. Alan I. Nussbaum, MD and Edmund Rhett Jr., MD, were first elected as Directors of the Company during 1999. Linda J. Bradley and Steve D. Swanson were first elected as Directors of the Company during 2002. They were all re-elected as Directors of the Company to serve one-year terms at subsequent Annual Meetings. Graham M. Eubank, Jr., Richard W. Hutson, Jr. and Malcolm M. Rhodes, MD were elected pursuant to the bylaws of the Company on December 16, 2004 and were elected to serve at the subsequent Annual Meeting. All of the above current Nominees served as Directors of the Company from April 12, 2005, the date of the last Annual Meeting of shareholders.

- (1) Includes same life, disability, dental and health insurance benefits as all other employees of the Bank who work at least 30 hours a week.
- (2) Amounts shown represent the number of shares underlying incentive stock options granted, as adjusted for a 10% stock dividend effective on July 15, 2003 and a 10% stock distribution effective April 29, 2005.
- (3) Amounts contributed to the Bank's ESOP.
- (4) Fleetwood S. Hassell was promoted to Executive Vice President on August 16, 2005.

Non-officer Directors of the Company received $100.00 for each meeting of the Board of Directors of the Company attended and non-officer Directors of the Bank received $250.00 for each meeting of the Board of Directors of the Bank attended and $100.00 Dollars for each Company or Bank Board Committee meeting attended.

On November 2, 1989, the Bank adopted an Employee Stock Ownership Plan and Trust Agreement (the Plan) to provide retirement benefits to eligible employees for long and faithful service.

An employee of the Bank is eligible to become a participant in the ESOP upon reaching 21 years of age and upon completion of 1,000 hours of service in a plan year. No contributions by employees are permitted. The amount and time of contributions are at the sole discretion of the Board of Directors of the Bank. The contribution for all participants is based solely on each participant's respective regular or base salary and wages paid by the Bank including commissions, bonuses and overtime, if any.

A participant becomes vested in the ESOP upon completion of five years of service, as defined in the Plan. There is no vesting prior to the completion of five years of service.

The Plan became effective as of January 1, 1989.

The Board of Directors of the Bank approved the contribution of $300,000 to the ESOP for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005. The contribution was made during 2005. T. Dean Harton, Sheryl G. Sharry and Hugh C. Lane, Jr., currently serve as Plan Administrators and as Trustee for the Plan. The Plan currently owns 198,159 shares or 6.41% of the Company's Common Stock.

During the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005, the Company had no plans or arrangements pursuant to which any Executive Officer, Director or Principal Shareholder received contingent remuneration or personal benefits other than the contingent remuneration and life, disability, dental and health insurance benefits referred to in the footnotes to the preceding table.

On April 14, 1998, the Shareholders of the Company approved an Incentive Stock Option Plan for the benefit of eligible officers and employees of the Bank and reserved a total of 180,000 shares. On April 16, 1998, the Bank granted options to purchase Common Stock in the aggregate amount of 146,000 shares to 52 employees of the Bank (including Officers, such Directors as are also employees and other employees) pursuant to the Incentive Stock Option Plan. These grants include those to Hugh C. Lane, Jr., Nathaniel I. Ball, III, and William L. Hiott, Jr., Executive Officers and Directors, and Fleetwood S. Hassell, Executive Vice President. As adjusted for a 10% stock dividend paid on May 15, 1998, 198,000 shares were being held in reserve.

As of July 10, 2000, all option holders, including the above Executive Officers, terminated their existing stock options. There was no obligation on the part of the Company or the Bank of South Carolina to issue additional or replacement options. No options were exercised in 1998, 1999 or 2000. On May 14, 2001, the Bank granted options to purchase Common Stock in the aggregate amount of 152,350 shares to 45 employees of the Bank (including Officers, such Directors as are also employees and other employees) pursuant to the Incentive Stock Option Plan. These grants included those to Hugh C. Lane, Jr., Nathaniel I. Ball, III, William L. Hiott, Jr., Executive Officers and Directors and Fleetwood S. Hassell, Executive Vice President. Except for those options granted to Hugh C. Lane, Jr. as described below, all of the options were granted at an exercise price of $13.50 per share. No additional options were granted during 2001. Additional options for 9,500 shares were granted at an exercise price of $14.925 per share to 4 employees of the Bank during 2002. Options for 13,500 shares with an exercise price of $14.20 per share were granted to 13 employees in 2003. Options for 4,000 shares with an exercise price of $14.00 per share were granted to one employee in 2004. No options were exercised during 2001, 2002, 2003 or 2004.

As adjusted for a 10% stock dividend effective on July 15, 2003, and a 10% stock distribution effective on April 29, 2005, there are currently 239,580 shares being held in reserve. There are currently outstanding options to purchase 19,965 shares at an option price of $12.27 per share, 12,705 shares at an option price of $11.74 per share, 123,240 shares at an option price of $11.15 per share, 2,420 shares at an option price of $12.34 per share, resulting in total outstanding options to purchase 158,330 shares at the prices set forth above.

As adjusted for a 10% stock dividend effective on July 15, 2003 and a 10% stock distribution effective on April 29, 2005, options for 19,964 shares with an exercise price of $11.15 per share, options for 3,025 shares with an exercise price of $11.74 per share, options for 4,440 with an exercise price of $12.73 per share and options for 2,420 with an exercise price of $12.34 per share have expired. There were no options granted during 2005.

On October 2, 2005, Nathaniel I. Ball, III in accordance with the Incentive Stock Option Plan, exercised his option to purchase 16,637 shares of common stock. The stock was purchased with the redemption of 10,300 share of Bank of South Carolina Corporation common stock (personally held) with a price of $18.00 a share and the payment of $225 cash. The stock options were fully vested and fully exercisable.

Hugh C. Lane, Jr., President and Chief Executive Officer, was granted the option to purchase 16,500 shares of Common Stock of the Company pursuant to the Incentive Stock Option Plan at a price of $14.85 per share. This option is exercisable on May 14, 2006 and expires if not exercised on that date. William L. Hiott, Jr., Executive Vice President and Treasurer, was granted the option to purchase 13,750 shares of Common Stock of the Company and Fleetwood S. Hassell, Executive Vice President was granted the option to purchase 8,250 shares of common stock pursuant to the Incentive Stock option Plan at a price of $13.50 per share. All of these options are exercisable in five 20% percent increments beginning on and for the year following May 14, 2006 with an additional 20% to be exercisable on and for the year following each successive anniversary. The right to exercise each such 20% of each option is cumulative and will not expire until the 10th anniversary of the date of the grant.

Adjusted for a 10% stock dividend effective on July 15, 2003 and a 10% stock distribution effective on April 29, 2005, Hugh C. Lane, Jr. now has the option to purchase 19,965 shares of Common Stock of the Company at a price of $12.27 per share, William L.
