RHOMBIC CORPORATION
(A DEVELOPMENT STAGE COMPANY)
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS FOR THE QUARTERS ENDED AND
SIX MONTHS ENDED JUNE 30, 2002 and 2001

The unaudited financial statements included herein were prepared from the records of the Company in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles. These financial statements reflect all adjustments which are, in the opinion of management, necessary to provide a fair statement of the results of operations and financial position for the interim periods. Such financial statements generally conform to the presentation reflected in the Company's Forms 10-KSB and 10-KSB filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission for the year ended December 31, 2001. The current interim period reported herein should be read in conjunction with the Company's Form 10-KSB subject to independent audit at the end of the year.

The results of operations for the three months ended June 30, 2002 are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the year ending December 31, 2002.

Stockholders' Equity

During the second quarter of 2002, the Company issued 1,302,958 restricted common shares as payment in full for general corporate and securities counsel, officer fees and director fees at a deemed value of $55,198.

During the second quarter of 2001, the Company issued 400,000 restricted common shares as payment in full for legal services regarding its patents. The transaction had a deemed value of $ 92,000. It also issued 1,166,142 shares under the terms of its debenture for $200,000 of cash advances.

The deemed value of the all shares issued was determined based upon the trading value of the Company's common stock at the time of the issuance of the stock.

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The following discussion is intended to provide an analysis of the Company's financial condition and Plan of Operation and should be read in conjunction with the Company's financial statements and the notes thereto. The matters discussed in this section, that are not historical or current facts, deal with potential future circumstances and developments. Such forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to the seeking of revenue producing acquisitions, the development plans for the technologies of the Company, trends in the results of the Company's development, anticipated development plans, operating expenses and the Company's anticipated capital requirements and capital resources. The Company's actual results could differ materially from the results discussed in the forward-looking statements.

The Company has not generated revenue from operations during the first six months of 2002 or since its inception. During the second quarter of 2002, the Company began the quarter with $9,100 in cash and received a refund of approximately $10,000 from a consultant for discontinued research.. At July 20, 2002, the Company had a working capital deficit. The Company had approximately $5,000 in cash and trade payables of approximately $20,000 at that date.

During the second quarter 2002, the Company had no cash disbursements but disbursed $11,672 during July 2002 for auditing costs, electronic filing fees and transfer agent fees.

During the second quarter of 2001, the Company had cash disbursements of approximately $50,000 in officer consulting fees, $22,000 in general counsel and legal fees to submit its registration statement, $16,500 in travel expenses, $12,000 in director fees, $10,500 for investor relation expenses, $5,500 for office expenses, $3,000 for auditing costs, $2,665 in interest expense on the debenture and approximately $8,000 on other general and administrative costs.

During the second quarter of 2002, directors personally incurred expenses of $1,625 on behalf of the Company for patent renewal fees and office expenses. On June 30, 2002, the directors, officers and its general legal counsel reduced their accrued fees of $112,000 to $55,198 and agreed not to charge any more fees until the Company successfully acquires a revenue generating operation. The Company eliminated the debt of $55,198 by issuing 1,302,958 restricted common shares.

Also during the second quarter of 2002, all stock options to directors expired leaving 500,000 options to a previous consultant remaining. All options are priced significantly higher than the trading market of Company's stock and the probability of their being exercised is low at this time.

The competition in the technology proliferation and transfer market is highly intense and is based on product and technology recognition and acceptance, novelty and marketability of an invention, price, and sales expertise. The Company has placed its primary emphasis on product development, dependability and commercial viability of its acquired technologies. Management is currently determining the cost-benefit involved to develop its Excimer Lamp intellectual property into commercial applications. To date, the Company has not generated any revenues from any of its acquired intellectual property except minimal royalties from Daimler Benz from the IEC Technology. Rhombic is currently a development stage company and is operating at a loss. None of the intellectual properties have been developed to commercialization. The Company is not able to determine an approximate date for commercialization of any of its intellectual property at this time. No assurances can be given that any of the Company's intellectual property will ever be developed to a point of usefulness or, if developed, that any will be commercially feasible.

Development of its intellectual property may be possible through joint ventures where Rhombic contributes its intellectual property for an ownership percentage in a joint venture and all costs are paid by the other joint venture partners. In the event Rhombic had an opportunity to raise cash, it would pay for a marketing study and development plan for the Excimer Lamp. An 18-month budget of approximately $ 350,000 to develop a prototype with patent protection.

The Company is currently in discussions with potential acquisition candidates that are revenue producing that would bring value to the shareholders.

Edgar Filing: RHOMBIC CORP - Form 10QSB

The Company does not have any employees and uses consultants for matters pertaining to coordinating technology development and administration. The Company may hire employees during the next twelve months depending upon its success in developing prototype applications for sale and financing more development.

This report contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, and Section 21E of the Exchange Act of 1934. Although the Company believes that the expectations reflected in the forward-looking statements and the assumptions upon which the forward-looking statements are based are reasonable, it can give no assurance that such expectations and assumptions will prove to be correct.
