Section 8 - Other Events

Item 8.01. Other Events

On November 16, 2004, Abercrombie & Fitch Co. (the "Registrant") issued a news release (the "Release") announcing that it is implementing a series of programs and initiatives that are designed to achieve greater diversity throughout its stores.

As announced on November 9, 2004, the initiatives were agreed to as part of a consent decree, resolving all matters relating to three consolidated diversity lawsuits filed in the United States District Court for the Northern District of California: the previously reported lawsuit captioned Eduardo Gonzalez, et al. v. Abercrombie & Fitch Stores, Inc., et al.; a related Equal Employment Opportunity Commission lawsuit filed on November 8, 2004; and a lawsuit captioned Elizabeth West, et al. v. Abercrombie & Fitch Stores, Inc., et al. filed on November 8, 2004. The execution of the consent decree on November 8, 2004 as well as the monetary terms thereof were reported in the Current Report on Form 8-K of the Registrant filed on November 9, 2004. Judge Susan Illston of the United States District Court for the Northern District of California signed the preliminary approval order on November 16, 2004. In the agreed consent decree, the defendants deny that they engaged in any discriminatory practices.

A copy of the Release is included as Exhibit 99 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated herein by reference. Please see the Release for a description of some of the principal components of the programmatic portion of the settlement.
