Telephone: (810) 750-8725

SPECIAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

This proxy statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors of Fentura Financial, Inc. (the Corporation) to be voted at the Special Meeting of its shareholders to be held at the Genesys Conference and Banquet Center, 805 Health Park Boulevard, Grand Blanc, Michigan, on _____, December __, 2008, at 7:00 p.m., eastern standard time, and at any adjournment of the meeting, for the purposes set forth in the accompanying Notice of Special Meeting of Shareholders. This proxy statement and form of proxy are first being sent to shareholders on or about November __, 2008.

If a proxy in the accompanying form is properly executed, duly returned to the Corporation, and not revoked, the shares represented by the proxy will be voted at the Special Meeting of the Corporation's shareholders and at any adjournment of that meeting. Where a shareholder specifies a choice, a proxy will be voted as specified. If no choice is specified, the shares represented by the proxy will be voted for each of the proposals. The Corporation's management does not know of any other matters to be presented at the Special Meeting. If other matters are presented, the shares represented by proxy will be voted at the discretion of the persons designated as proxies, who will take into consideration the recommendations of the Corporation's management.

Any shareholder executing a proxy in the enclosed form has the power to revoke it by notifying the Secretary of the Corporation in writing at the address indicated above at any time before it is exercised, or by appearing at the meeting and voting in person.

Solicitation of proxies is being made by mail. Directors, officers, and regular employees of the Corporation and its subsidiaries may also solicit proxies in person or by telephone without additional compensation. In addition, banks, brokerage firms, and other custodians, nominees, and fiduciaries may solicit proxies from the beneficial owners of shares they hold and may be reimbursed by the Corporation for reasonable expenses incurred in sending proxy material to beneficial owners of the Corporation's stock. The Corporation will pay all expenses of soliciting proxies.

Required Vote

The presence, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast by the shareholders at the Special Meeting is necessary to constitute a quorum. Abstentions and broker non votes are counted as present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining a quorum. A broker non vote occurs when a broker, bank or other nominee holding shares for a beneficial owner does not vote on a particular proposal because such broker, bank or nominee does not have discretionary authority to vote and has not received instructions from the beneficial owner.

Once a quorum is achieved, the affirmative vote of a majority of the issued and outstanding shares entitled to vote is required to approve the amendment to articles of incorporation. Abstentions and broker non votes have the effect of a vote against the proposed amendment.

Any other matter that may properly come before the special meeting requires that more shares be voted in favor of the matter than are voted against the matter. Abstentions and broker non votes are not counted.

No Rights of Dissenting Shareholders

Under applicable Michigan laws and the Corporation's articles of incorporation and bylaws, shareholders do not have the right to dissent and to receive the fair value of their shares in cash.

Authority to Adjourn Special Meeting to Solicit Additional Proxies

In the event that there are not sufficient votes to constitute a quorum or to approve the proposal to amend the articles of incorporation at the time of the special meeting, the proposal cannot be approved unless the special meeting is adjourned or postponed to a later date or dates in order to permit further solicitation of proxies. In order to allow proxies that have been received by the Corporation at the time of the special meeting to be voted for an adjournment or postponement, if deemed necessary, the Corporation has submitted the question of adjournment or postponement to its shareholders as a separate matter for their consideration. If it is deemed necessary to adjourn the special meeting, no notice of the adjourned meeting is required to be given to the Corporation's shareholders, other than an announcement at the special meeting of the place, date and time to which the special meeting is adjourned.

PROPOSAL TO AMEND THE ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

General

In October 2008, the U.S. Department of Treasury announced a voluntary Capital Purchase Program under the Emergency Economic Stabilization Act of 2008 whereby it would purchase senior preferred stock of qualifying bank holding companies on what our board considers to be favorable terms (the Treasury program). Participants in the Treasury program are also required to issue warrants to purchase a number of shares of common stock having an aggregate market price equal to 15% of the senior preferred amount. The U.S. Department of Treasury's term sheet summarizing the terms of its proposed investment is attached hereto as Appendix A.

Our Board of Directors has unanimously approved and recommended that our shareholders adopt an amendment to the Corporation's articles of incorporation to authorize the issuance of up to 200,000 shares of preferred stock with such rights and preferences as the Board may determine in order to participate in the Treasury program. The Board of Directors believes that authorizing the Board to issue preferred stock will enable the Corporation to raise capital to help ensure that its wholly-owned bank subsidiaries remain well-capitalized.

Currently, we are not authorized to issue preferred stock. If the amendment is adopted by the shareholders of the Corporation, the shares of preferred stock will be available for issuance in connection with the Treasury program and from time to time for such purposes and consideration as the Board may approve. No further vote of the shareholders of the Corporation will be required, except as provided under Michigan law. The Board of Directors believes that it is advisable to increase the Corporation's authorized capital to include preferred stock in order take advantage of the Treasury program and to help ensure that its wholly-owned bank subsidiaries remain well-capitalized.

The Corporation's preferred stock may have such terms, including dividend or interest rates, conversion prices, voting rights, redemption prices, maturity dates, and other rights, preferences and limitations, as determined by the Board in its sole discretion. The Board will also have the sole authority to issue such shares of preferred stock to whomever and for whatever purposes it may deem appropriate.

The Board currently anticipates that it will issue the maximum amount available (3% of risk adjusted assets) under the Treasury program with the terms, rights and preferences set forth on Appendix A and will issue a number of warrants exercisable for Corporation common stock equal to 15% of the senior preferred amount. The exercise price for the warrants, and the market price for determining the number of shares of common stock subject to the warrant is the market price for the Corporation's common stock on the date of the senior preferred investment (calculated on a 20-trading day trailing average). The warrants will have additional terms and features set forth on Appendix A. Shareholder approval is not necessary for the issuance of the warrants since the Corporation has sufficient authorized but unissued shares of common stock.

Potential Effects of the Proposed Amendment

In deciding whether to issue shares of preferred, the Board of Directors will consider the terms of such capital stock and the effect of the issuance on the operating results of the Corporation and its existing shareholders. Issuances of one or more series of preferred stock may result in dilution to the investments of existing shareholders. Issuances of preferred stock could be used to discourage or make it more difficult for a person to acquire control of the Corporation or remove management. The Board of Directors did not propose this amendment for the purpose of discouraging mergers or changes in control of the Corporation.

The text of the proposed amendment to the articles of incorporation is set forth in Appendix B attached hereto. Shareholders are urged to read Appendix B carefully.

The Board intends to issue shares of preferred stock and common stock warrants as soon as possible under the Treasury program. None of our directors or executive officers has any financial or other personal interest in this proposal except as described herein.

Required Vote

The affirmative vote of a majority of issued and outstanding shares of the Corporation's common stock entitled to vote is required for approval of this proposal.

The Board of Directors recommends a vote FOR the approval of the amendment to the articles of incorporation to authorize the issuance of preferred stock by the Corporation.

The QFI will apply for the listing on the national exchange on which the QFI's common stock is traded of the common stock underlying the warrants and will take such other steps as may be reasonably requested to facilitate the transfer of the warrants or the common stock.
- VOTING: The UST will agree not to exercise voting power with respect to any shares of common stock of the QFI issued to it upon exercise of the warrants.

- REDUCTION: In the event that the QFI has received aggregate gross proceeds of not less than 100% of the issue price of the Senior Preferred from one or more Qualified Equity Offerings on or prior to December 31, 2009, the number of shares of common stock underlying the warrants then held by the UST shall be reduced by a number of shares equal to the product of (i) the number of shares originally underlying the warrants (taking into account all adjustments) and (ii) 0.5.
- CONSENT: In the event that the QFI does not have sufficient available authorized shares of common stock to reserve for issuance upon exercise of the warrants and/or stockholder approval is required for such issuance under applicable stock exchange rules, the QFI will call a meeting of its stockholders as soon as practicable after the date of this investment to increase the number of authorized shares of common stock and/or comply with such exchange rules, and to take any other measures deemed by the UST to be necessary to allow the exercise of warrants into common stock.
- SUBSTITUTION: In the event the QFI is no longer listed or traded on a national securities exchange or securities association, or the consent of the QFI stockholders described above has not been received within 18 months after the issuance date of the warrants, the warrants will be exchangeable, at the option of the UST, for senior term debt or another economic instrument or security of the QFI such that the UST is appropriately compensated for the value of the warrant, as determined by the UST.

ARTICLE III

The total number of shares of all classes of the capital stock which the Corporation has authority to issue is 5,200,000, which shall be divided into a class of 5,000,000 shares of common stock and a class of 200,000 shares of preferred stock.

Preferred Stock

Subject to the limitations and restrictions set forth in this Article III, the board of directors is authorized and empowered at any time, and from time to time, to designate and issue any authorized and unissued preferred stock (whether or not previously designated as shares of a particular series, and including preferred stock of any series issued and thereafter acquired by the Corporation) as shares of one or more series, hereby or hereafter to be designated. Each different series of preferred stock may vary as to dividend rate, redemption price, liquidation price, voting rights and conversion rights, if any, all of which shall be fixed as hereinafter provided. Each series of preferred stock issued hereunder shall be so designated as to distinguish the shares thereof from the shares of the other series and classes. All preferred stock of any one series shall be alike in every particular.

The rights, qualifications, limitations or restrictions on each series of preferred stock shall be as stated and expressed in the resolution or resolutions adopted by the board of directors which provides for the issuance of such series, which resolutions may include, but shall not be limited to, the following:

- (i) The distinctive designation and number of shares comprising such series, which number may (except where otherwise provided by the board of directors in creating such series) be increased or decreased (but not below the number of shares then outstanding) from time to time by action of the board of directors;
- (ii) The rate of the dividends thereon and the relation which such dividends shall bear to the dividends payable on any other class of capital stock or any other series of preferred stock, the terms and conditions upon which and the periods in respect of which dividends shall be payable, whether and upon what conditions such dividends shall be cumulative and if cumulative, the date or dates from which dividends shall accumulate;
- (iii) The amount per share, if any, which the holders of preferred stock of such series shall be entitled to receive, in addition to any dividends accrued and unpaid thereon, (a) upon the redemption thereof, plus the premium payable upon redemption, if any; or (b) upon the voluntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation; or (c) upon the involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation;

- (iv) The conversion or exchange rights, if any, of such series, including without limitation, the price or prices, rate or rates, provision for the adjustment thereof (including provisions for protection against the dilution or impairment of such rights), and all other terms and conditions upon which preferred stock constituting such series may be convertible into, or exchangeable for shares of any other class or classes or series;
- (v) Whether the shares of such series shall be redeemable, and, if redeemable, whether redeemable for cash, property or rights, including securities of any other corporation, at the option of either the holder or the Corporation or upon the happening of a specified event, the limitations and restrictions with respect to such redemption, the time or times when, the price or prices or rate or rates at which, the adjustments with which and the manner in which such shares shall be redeemable, including the manner of selecting shares of such series for redemption if less than all shares are to be redeemed;
- (vi) Whether the shares of such series shall be subject to the operation of a purchase, retirement, or sinking fund, and, if so, whether and upon what conditions such purchase, retirement or sinking fund shall be cumulative or noncumulative, the extent to which and the manner in which such fund shall be applied to the purchase or redemption of the shares of such series for retirement or to other corporate purposes and the terms and provisions relative to the operation thereof;
- (vii) The voting rights per share, if any, of each such series, and whether and under what conditions the shares of such series (alone or together with the shares of one or more other series) shall be entitled to vote separately as a single class, upon any merger, share exchange or other transaction of the Corporation, or upon any other matter, including (without limitation) the elections of one or more additional directors of the Corporation in case of dividend arrearage or other specified events; and
- (viii) Whether the issuance of any additional shares of such series, or of any shares of any other series shall be subject to restrictions of such series, as the board of directors may deem advisable and as shall not be inconsistent with the provisions of these articles of incorporation.

Common Stock

No shares of common stock shall be entitled to any preferences, and each share of common stock shall be equal to every other share of such class of stock in every respect. At all meetings of shareholders of the Corporation, the holders of the common stock shall be entitled to one vote for each share of common stock held by them of record.
