INFORMATION STATEMENT

INTRODUCTION

This Information Statement is furnished by the Board of Directors of Consumers Energy Company ( Consumers ) in connection with the annual meeting of shareholders to be held on May 22, 2009.

As of March 27, 2009, Consumers outstanding common stock ($10 par value) and preferred stock ($100 par value) consisted of 84,108,789 shares of common stock held by CMS Energy Corporation ( CMS ) and 441,599 shares of preferred stock held by the public (except the directors holdings noted below). Holders of preferred and common stock are entitled to one vote for each share and shareholders have cumulative voting rights for the election of directors. That is, holders of preferred and common shares are entitled to cast as many votes as equal the number of shares held multiplied by the number of directors to be elected (eleven this year), and they may cast all of such votes for a single nominee or distribute them among any two or more nominees as they choose.

While all shareholders are cordially invited to attend the annual meeting, WE ARE NOT ASKING YOU FOR A PROXY AND YOU ARE REQUESTED NOT TO SEND US A PROXY. We have been advised that all 84,108,789 Consumers common shares held by CMS (99.5% of the Consumers shares entitled to vote) will be voted in favor of the proposed directors, thus assuring their election, as well as in favor of the other proposal(s) recommended by the Consumers Board of Directors.

To the knowledge of management, no person or entity except CMS owns beneficially more than 5% of any class of Consumers outstanding voting securities. Messrs. Pierre, Way, Whipple, and Yasinsky each own 10 shares of the preferred stock of Consumers.

The determination of approval of corporate action by the shareholders is based on votes for and against. Abstentions and broker discretionary votes are not counted as against votes but are counted in the determination of a quorum.
