Tennant Company Announces Change in Leadership Structure in International Business Unit

Company Reaffirms Annual Guidance

MINNEAPOLIS, June 14, 2011—Tennant Company (NYSE: TNC), a world leader in designing, manufacturing and marketing of solutions that help create a cleaner, safer, healthier world, today announced that Karel Huijser, Vice President of the company's International business unit, will be leaving the company but will continue to work for a period of time to complete the transition of his duties. Huijser joined the company in 2006.

"I want to thank Karel for his service to Tennant," said Chris Killingstad, president and CEO of Tennant Company. The company does not plan to replace Huijser at this time. According to Killingstad, the company will use this opportunity to leverage the strengths of the regional leaders based in Europe, China and Australia.

"For the remainder of 2011, we still anticipate continued recovery in North America, strong growth in emerging markets and modestly improving conditions in Europe," said Killingstad. "We remain committed to managing the business with a focus on operational excellence and rigorous cost controls while making selective investments in key strategic priorities."

For the second quarter ending June 30, 2011, Tennant Company anticipates overall revenue growth to be approximately in line with the 15 percent gain reported in the 2011 first quarter.

Killingstad said, "We are pleased with the momentum we are seeing currently in the marketplace and are reiterating our guidance for the 2011 year for earnings in the range of $1.75 to $1.95 per diluted share on net sales in the range of $710 million to $730 million." This annual guidance is based on expectations outlined in the first quarter results press release dated April 21, 2011.

The company expects to release results for the 2011 second quarter and first half of 2011 on July 28, 2011, and conduct its quarterly conference call that morning.

Forward-Looking Statements

Certain statements contained in this document, as well as other written and oral statements made by us from time to time, are considered “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act. These statements do not relate to strictly historical or current facts and provide current expectations or forecasts of future events. Any such expectations or forecasts of future events are subject to a variety of factors. These include factors that affect all businesses operating in a global market as well as matters specific to us and the markets we serve. Particular risks and uncertainties presently facing us include: geopolitical and economic uncertainty throughout the world; the competition in our business; our ability to effectively manage organizational changes; our ability to comply with laws and regulations; our ability to effectively maintain and manage the data in our computer systems; our ability to develop new innovative products and services; our ability to successfully upgrade and evolve the capabilities of our computer systems; our ability to attract and retain key personnel; the occurrence of a significant business interruption; fluctuations in the cost or availability of raw materials and purchased components; unforeseen product liability claims or product quality issues; our ability to acquire, retain and protect proprietary intellectual property rights; and the relative strength of the U.S. dollar, which affects the cost of our materials and products purchased and sold internationally.

We caution that forward-looking statements must be considered carefully and that actual results may differ in material ways due to risks and uncertainties both known and unknown. Shareholders, potential investors and other readers are urged to consider these factors in evaluating forward-looking statements and are cautioned not to place undue reliance on such forward-looking statements. For additional information about factors that could materially affect Tennant's results, please see our other Securities and Exchange Commission filings, including disclosures under “Risk Factors.”

We do not undertake to update any forward-looking statement, and investors are advised to consult any further disclosures by us on this matter in our filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission and in other written statements we make from time to time. It is not possible to anticipate or foresee all risk factors, and investors should not consider any list of such factors to be an exhaustive or complete list of all risks or uncertainties.
