Pursuant to Rule 13d-2 of Regulation 13D-G of the General Rules and Regulations under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, the undersigned, Ronald L. Chez (the Reporting Person ) hereby amends his statement on Schedule 13D dated February 10, 2012, as amended by Amendment No. 1 to Schedule 13D dated as of April 23, 2012, Amendment No. 2 to Schedule 13D dated as of October 21, 2013 and Amendment No. 3 to Schedule 13D dated as of October 23, 2013 (collectively, the Schedule 13D ). This Statement constitutes Amendment No. 4 to the Schedule 13D. Unless otherwise indicated herein, there are no material changes to the information set forth in the Schedule 13D.

Item 4. Purpose of the Transaction: is hereby amended by adding the following to the end of the section:

The Reporting Person wrote a letter to Mr. Chris McGurk, Chairman & CEO of the Company, dated August 19, 2014. A copy of the letter is attached as Annex A to this Amendment No. 4 to Schedule 13D.

Item 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer is hereby amended and restated in its entirety as follows:

Subject: Cinedigm Policy of Equity Ownership by Officers & Directors

Dear Chris:

I would like to discuss the following matters at your earliest convenience.

STOCK OWNERSHIP

In reviewing the Schedule 14A, Definitive Proxy Statement filed by the company July 29, 2014, with important information related to the company's upcoming Annual Meeting set for September 16, 2014 in Los Angeles, I was concerned to see that certain key officers and members of the Board of Directors have yet to make a serious personal financial commitment to own equity in Cinedigm apart from holding stock options. Of course, SEC reporting schedules follow certain formats and definitions requiring lengthy footnotes, from which calculations are required to reach conclusions. Notwithstanding those somewhat obtuse footnotes, it is clear that to me that Company shareholders would benefit from a specific policy promulgated by the Board of Directors, which clearly defines the widely held expectation that key executives and directors of public companies invest next to the shareholders of the company, such that their interests are as completely aligned as possible. It is my experience that a commitment to planned equity ownership has benefits for all constituencies.

Based on prior matters of this character, I believe the board policy should define ownership levels based on management positions ranging from 50% to 300% of base compensation for company officers, and three to five times annual director total compensation for outside directors. These levels should be achieved within a reasonable time frame. As you may know, such policies run several pages to fully document and detail definitions and processes to follow, including oversight by the Board's Nominating and Governance Committee and CEO. There are many examples of existing policies available for review.

COMPENSATION PLANS

With respect to compensation plans, in addition to previous constructs, special thought should be given to a new compensation structure in light of the aggressive pursuit of

Over The Top (OTT) opportunities. It is very disconcerting to see that the valuation of Cinedigm does not appear to take adequate cognizance of these new efforts to monetize OTT content/channels, an area I know you believe has great potential; and I agree. This is a new opportunity that warrants a fresh perspective with regard to Cinedigm's compensation planning.

However, I want to emphasize the need to achieve improved results with existing business segments. Your emphasis on better current performance is essential to realizing the opportunity that exists for Cinedigm in the delivery of content that is focused on narrowcasting. All elements of the compensation plans should be closely tied to delivering superior results in all phases of the business.

I look forward to meeting with you to discuss these important issues. I strongly believe that ownership of company stock by Cinedigm board members and officers, and compensation plans that are structured to better connect with delivering superior results, across all business segments, will send an important message to Company shareholders of your commitment to, and belief in, the future of Cinedigm.

Sincerely,

/s/ Ronald L. Chez
